Eucharistic Adoration

If we only knew the enormous grace of Eucharistic Adoration, we would spend entire days on our knees before the altar.

To adore the Blessed Sacrament is to accompany Jesus Himself in the moment of His sacrifice for humanity. He taught us so, through Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque (with whom this devotion started): “Every night, between Thursday and Friday, I will make you a partaker of that sorrow unto death which it was My will to suffer in the Garden of Olives.”

Every Thursday from 6-7pm

Sunday Reflection

Mental healthcare professionals will tell you that constantly looking back on the past leads to depression and constantly looking toward the future causes anxiety. God’s grace is not in the future. God’s grace is not in the past. “Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery, today is a gift of God, which is why we call it the present” (Bill Keane).

What moment do we find ourselves in right now? We are on the cusp of the holy season on Lent. We are standing on the edge of the precipice, looking at the spiritual disciplines that lie before us, getting ready to sink or swim.

Our second reading says: “When this which is corruptible clothes itself with incorruptibility and this which is mortal clothes itself with immortality, then the word that is written shall come about: Death is swallowed up in victory.” What exactly does that mean? We must allow ourselves to be changed, to be transformed. We who were once corruptible, must now flee from sinfulness. We who were once dead in our sins can be brought to everlasting life in Christ’s forgiveness.

And who is the victor over death? It is Christ who swallows it up through His death. Of course God could simply say the word and we would all be saved, but He chose to send His Son and He chose to require our cooperation.

“No disciple is superior to the teacher; but when fully trained, every disciple will be like his teacher.” And so it was that God Almighty sent the most unfathomable present to us here and now, our very own Teacher. His grace is with us in this moment, leading, guiding and loving. Let us receive this gift and open our hearts to all the lessons and graces He has in store for us today.

What moment do we find ourselves in right now?

Los profesionales de la salud mental dirán que mirar constantemente al pasado conduce a la depresión y mirar constantemente al futuro causa ansiedad. La gracia de Dios no está en el futuro. La gracia de Dios no está en el pasado. “El ayer es historia, el mañana es un misterio, el hoy es un don de Dios, por eso lo llamamos presente” (Bill Keane). ¿En qué momento nos encontramos ahora mismo? Estamos en la cúspide de la temporada santa de Cuaresma. Estamos parados al borde del precipicio, mirando las disciplinas espirituales que se encuentran ante nosotros, preparándonos para hundimos o sobrevivir nadando.

La segunda lectura dice: “Cuando nuestro ser corruptible y mortal se revista de incorruptibilidad e inmortalidad, entonces se cumplirá la palabra de la Escritura: La muerte ha sido aniquilada por la victoria”. ¿Qué significa eso exactamente? Debemos permitimos ser cambiados, ser transformados. Nosotros que una vez éramos corruptibles, ahora debemos huir del pecado. Nosotros que una vez estuvimos muertos en el pecado podemos ser llevados a la vida eterna en el perdón de Cristo.

¿Y quién es el vencedor de la muerte? Es Cristo, quien la devora con su muerte. Por supuesto, Dios podría simplemente decir la palabra y todos seríamos salvos, pero eligió enviar a su Hijo y eligió exigir nuestra cooperación. “El discípulo no es superior a su maestro; pero cuando termine su aprendizaje, será como su maestro”.

Y así fue como Dios Todopoderoso envió el regalo más insondable al momento presente, nuestro propio Maestro. Su gracia está con nosotros en este momento, guiándonos, dirigiéndonos y amándonos. Recibamos este regalo y abramos nuestros corazones a todas las lecciones y gracias que Él tiene para nosotros hoy.

Do you usually give up chocolate during Lent?

How about foregoing sin instead?

This Lent, put a twist to traditional Lenten fasting by focusing on the seven deadly sins and their corresponding virtues. Each week, try to avoid these sinful behaviors and replace them with virtuous ones.

Week 1: Give up Sloth and Confusion
Embrace the virtues of Diligence and Understanding

Week 2: Give up Pride and Abandonment
Embrace the virtues of Humility and Connectedness

Week 3: Give up Envy and Shame
Embrace the virtues of Kindness and Worthiness

Week 4: Give up Greed and Hopelessness
Embrace the virtues of Liberality and Hope

Week 5: Give up Gluttony and Fear
Embrace the virtues of Abstinence and Safety/Security

Week 6: Give up Anger and Rejection
Embrace the virtues of Patience and Acceptance

Week 7: Give up Lust and Powerlessness
Embrace the virtues of Chastity and Empowerment
