

APRIL 13

Palm Sunday

As we enter Holy Week, Jesus, our humble and merciful King, goes before us. His way is our way to life eternal; his passion is a remedy for sin. He lay down his life for us, that we might share in the glory of the divine life. Carrying our cross and placing all our trust in him, let us follow him with joy, faith, and eagerness to enter the paschal mystery.

Al entrar en la Semana Santa, Jesús, nuestro humilde y misericordioso Rey, va delante de nosotros. Su camino es nuestro camino a la vida eterna; Su pasión es un remedio para el pecado. El dió su vida por nosotros, para que pudiéramos compartir la gloria de la vida divina. Cargando nuestra cruz y poniendo toda nuestra confianza en El, sigámoslo con alegría, fe y afán de entrar en el misterio pascual.

Let us keep our Teens ACTS in our prayers during this time of formation in preparation for the next Teens Retreat in English which will take place on June 19-22 of this year.

If you are interested in attending the Retreat please contact the office.

Sunday Reflection

The book of Joshua tells of the Israelites coming into the Promised Land, where they no longer needed to be fed with manna as in the desert. They had been wandering much longer than expected because of their unfaithfulness.

But now they are forgiven, and so celebrate the Passover with food from the land. Then we hear the Gospel parable about another feast. This one is also a celebration of forgiveness, for the prodigal son has returned to his father, and the father's forgiveness shows us how willing God is to forgive us.

That's where we end the parable, right? Wrong. The parable continues with the older son's complaint about a feast for his brother. That son cannot forgive his brother and is angry at the father for welcoming the prodigal back.

This is where we come in. Most of us have no trouble asking God's forgiveness. But we may have trouble forgiving others. We are so used to thinking in terms of justice that we are not satisfied with forgiveness. When I have been hurt, I feel like hitting back.

So we have to ask ourselves whose idea of justice we live by. Is it the human expectation of an eye for an eye? Or is it God's justice, which is mercy and forgiveness?

When someone cuts you off in traffic, do you feel like firing the photon torpedoes, or offering forgiveness? The Golden Rule could be “Forgive others as you would be forgiven.” Jesus gave his life for the sins of the world. Do we have the right to ask for more?

El libro de Josué habla de la llegada de los israelitas a la Tierra Prometida, donde ya no necesitaban ser alimentados con maná como en el desierto. Habían estado vagando mucho más tiempo de lo esperado debido a su infidelidad.

Pero ahora están perdonados, y por eso celebran la Pascua con alimentos de la tierra. Luego en el Evangelio escuchamos una parábola sobre otra fiesta.

También es una celebración del perdón, porque el hijo pródigo ha vuelto a su padre, y el perdón del padre nos muestra qué tan dispuesto está Dios a perdonarnos a nosotros también, ¿verdad?

No. La parábola continúa con la queja del hijo mayor sobre una fiesta para su hermano. Ese hijo no puede perdonar a su hermano y está enojado con el padre por haberle dado la bienvenida al pródigo.

Aquí es donde entramos nosotros. La mayoría de nosotros no tenemos problema pedirle perdón a Dios. Pero podemos tener problema perdonar a los demás. Estamos tan acostumbrados a pensar en términos de justicia que no estamos satisfechos con el perdón. Cuando me han hecho daño, siento ganas de devolver el golpe. Así que tenemos que preguntarnos de dónde viene la idea de justicia que vivimos. ¿Es la expectativa humana de ojo por ojo? ¿O es la justicia de Dios, que es misericordia y perdón?

Cuando alguien te cierra el paso en el tráfico, ¿te dan ganas de disparar torpedos de fotones u ofrecer perdón? La regla de oro podría ser: “Perdona a los demás como te gustaría a ti ser perdonado”. Jesús dio su vida por los pecados del mundo. ¿Tenemos derecho a pedir más?
