Sunday Reflection

Last week we saw how the disciples rejoiced to suffer for their faith. This week we see them turn away from their persecutors and begin preaching to the Gentiles. Even though they are thrown out of town, they still are filled with joy (Acts 13:50–52). What I find interesting is that the disciples’ joy comes from their failure to convert the Jewish leaders in Antioch. If those Jews had become believers and had not rejected Paul and Barnabas, the disciples probably would never have thought to preach to non-Jews about Jesus.

I think that failure to convert their own people allowed them to see how God’s power was working for them. That’s why their joy was so great. They were not just congratulating themselves on how well they were preaching. No, they saw how God was doing the real work. And that took the pressure off of them. They could stop worrying about every word of their preaching, or being afraid that someone might make fun of them. (“Isn’t that Saul, who used to persecute Jesus’ followers? He’s got a lot of nerve thinking he could now be one of them.”) None of that mattered, because they knew that the Spirit was leading them. They knew they were in God’s hands, as we heard in the Gospel (John 10:28).

Can we be like those disciples? Instead of getting angry at frustrations, can we see them as an opportunity to experience God’s grace?

Do we let our failures get us down, or do we let God bring us through them, teaching us to rely on the Lord? Of course, the disciples didn’t go around looking for ways to suffer. But they did look for ways to share their great news that Jesus is risen from the dead. Let us ask the Lord to send us the Spirit to show us how we can spread that same news.

La semana pasada vimos cómo los discípulos se regocijaron al sufrir por su fe. Esta semana los vemos alejarse de sus perseguidores y comenzar a predicar a los gentiles. Aunque fueron expulsados de la ciudad, todavía estaban llenos de alegría (Hechos 13,50-52). Lo que me parece interesante es que el gozo de los discípulos proviene de su fracaso en convertir a los líderes judíos en Antioquía. Si esos judíos se hubieran convertido en creyentes y no hubieran rechazado a Pablo y Bernabé, los discípulos probablemente nunca habrían pensado en predicar a los no judíos acerca de Jesús.

Creo que al fallar en convertir a su propia gente, les permitió ver cómo el poder de Dios estaba trabajando a favor de ellos. Es por eso que su gozo era tan grande. No estaban felicitándose a sí mismos por su buena predicación, sino que vieron cómo Dios estaba haciendo el verdadero trabajo. Y eso les quitó la presión de encima. Pudieron dejar de preocuparse por cada palabra de su predicación o de tener miedo de que alguien pudiera burlarse de ellos. (“¿Ese no es Saulo, el que perseguía a los seguidores de Jesús? ¡Qué descaro que ahora piensa que puede ser uno de ellos!”) Nada de eso importaba, porque ellos sabían que el Espíritu nos estaba guiando. Sabían que estaban en las manos de Dios, como escuchamos en el Evangelio (Juan 10,28).

¿Podemos ser como aquellos discípulos? En lugar de enojarnos por las frustraciones, ¿podemos verlas como una oportunidad para experimentar la gracia de Dios? ¿Dejamos que nuestros fracasos nos depriman, o dejamos que Dios nos ayude a superarlos, enseñándonos a confiar en el Señor? Por supuesto, los discípulos no anduvieron buscando formas de sufrir. Pero sí buscaron formas de compartir la gran noticia de que Jesús ha resucitado de entre los muertos. Pidamos al Señor que nos envíe el Espíritu para demostrarnos cómo podemos difundir esa misma noticia.
