Progress Campaign 2026. Please Select St. Pius X. Set up one time donation or monthly recurring donation.

One of the most comforting parts of the Passion story for me is the agony in the garden. If the Son of God had to tell himself and his Father, “not as I will, but as you will” (Matthew 26:39); I should be able to say the same. There are times when I would much rather have things always go my way, but that is not going to happen. So it’s comforting to know that Jesus did not take the easy way out, but accepted the Father’s will that he should suffer and die.

Whenever we say the Lord’s Prayer we pray, “Thy will be done.” But how often do we still take the easy way out? When I have a chance to help someone in need, do I tell myself it’s none of my business, or do I ask if there is anything I can do? When I am hurt by the death of a loved one, or am injured in an accident, do I get angry at God for letting this happen, or do I say with Jesus, “Not my will, but yours be done”?

Luke’s Gospel ends the temptation of Jesus in the desert with the phrase, “When the devil had finished every test, he left him until an opportune time” (Luke 4:13). That time came in the garden, and again Jesus had the last word, choosing to do his Father’s will. Even though we know God always does what is best for us when we would rather have what we think is best, at least remember to say, “Not my will, but yours be done.”

A veces, un profeta dice más de lo queUna de las partes más reconfortantes de la Pasión para mí es la agonía en el huerto. Si el Hijo de Dios tuvo que decirse a sí mismo y a su Padre: “que no se haga mi voluntad, sino la tuya” (Mateo 26,39), yo también debería poder decir lo mismo. Hay momentos en que preferiría que las cosas siempre salieran como yo quiero, pero eso no va a suceder. Por eso, es reconfortante saber que Jesús no tomó el camino fácil, sino que aceptó la voluntad del Padre de sufrir y morir.

Cuando rezamos el Padrenuestro, oramos: “hágase tu voluntad”. Pero, ¿con qué frecuencia seguimos tomando el camino fácil? Cuando tengo la oportunidad de ayudar a alguien necesitado, ¿me digo a mí mismo que no es asunto mío, o pregunto si hay algo que pueda hacer? Cuando me duele la muerte de un ser querido, o me lesiono en un accidente, ¿me enojo con Dios por permitir que esto suceda, o digo con Jesús: “que no se haga mi voluntad, sino la tuya”?

El Evangelio de Lucas concluye la tentación de Jesús en el desierto con la frase: “Después de haberle hecho todas las pruebas, el diablo lo dejó hasta el momento oportuno” (Lucas 4,13). Ese momento llegó en el huerto, y nuevamente Jesús tuvo la última palabra, eligiendo hacer la voluntad de su Padre. Aunque sabemos que Dios siempre hace lo que es mejor para nosotros cuando preferiríamos lo que creemos que es mejor, al menos recordemos decirle: “que no se haga mi voluntad, sino la tuya”.

“ CHRIST BECAME OBEDIENT TO THE POINT OF DEATH, EVEN DEATH ON A CROSS. BECAUSE OF THIS, GOD GREATLY EXALTED HIM AND BESTOWED ON HIM THE NAME WHICH IS ABOVE EVERY NAME.

Matthew 26:14-27:66

PERSONAL REFLECTION

- In moments of trial or suffering, am I able to recognize God’s presence with me, or do I close myself off and lose trust in His love and purpose?
- In what concrete ways can I imitate Jesus’ surrender, not only by saying “Thy will be done,” but through real decisions that involve sacrifice, humility, and love for others?
- En los momentos de prueba o sufrimiento, ¿soy capaz de reconocer la presencia de Dios acompañándome, o me cierro interiormente y pierdo la confianza en su amor y su propósito?
- ¿De qué manera concreta puedo imitar la entrega de Jesús, no solo en palabras al rezar “hágase tu voluntad”, sino en decisiones reales que impliquen sacrificio, humildad y amor hacia los demás?

EASTER TRIDUUM

Living the Sacred Triduum (Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil/Sunday) is essential for Catholics because it is the summit of the liturgical year, allowing faithful to enter into the Paschal Mystery—the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus. It is a profound, unified act of worship that moves from the Last Supper's service to the cross's sacrifice and finally to the joy of Resurrection.

Core Importance of the Triduum:

- The Heart of Salvation History: The Triduum is not just a commemoration but a reliving of the central mystery of our redemption. It brings light to the darkness of sin through the saving death and Resurrection of Jesus.
- Celebrating the Eucharist and Priesthood: Holy Thursday commemorates the Last Supper, marking the institution of the Eucharist and Holy Orders, calling us to a deeper appreciation of the Real Presence and a life of service (washing of feet).
- The Passion and Mercy: Good Friday focuses on the humiliation and crucifixion of Jesus, inviting us to encounter Divine Mercy and repent for our sins.
- The Resurrection Joy: The Easter Vigil, the "mother of all vigils," celebrates the Resurrection with the lighting of the Paschal Candle and renewal of baptismal promises, bringing us into the light of new life.
- Spiritual Transformation: By intentionally setting aside these days, Catholics allow themselves to be transformed, moving from the silence of waiting to the triumph of Easter.

Church Improvements

We are pleased to share that the gardens of our church have been improved. A company recently carried out the trimming and maintenance of the palm trees, and work will continue on the green areas as well as on repairing and improving the irrigation system.

Con gusto compartimos que los jardines de nuestra iglesia han sido mejorados. Una compañía realizó la poda y mantenimiento de las palmeras, y se continuará trabajando en las áreas verdes y en la compostura del sistema de riego.

We would like to inform you that the air conditioners are not functioning properly. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause. We are confident that, with the generosity and support of our community, we will soon be able to replace them with new units. Every contribution, no matter how small, brings us closer to this goal and strengthens our spirit of unity and collaboration. Thank you for your understanding, support, and enthusiasm in improving our shared space. Together, we will make our church a more comfortable and welcoming place for everyone!

Les informamos que los aires acondicionados no están funcionando correctamente. Lamentamos los inconvenientes que esto pueda causar y pedimos una disculpa. Estamos seguros de que, con la generosidad y el apoyo de nuestra comunidad, pronto podremos reemplazarlos por unidades nuevas. Cada aporte, por pequeño que sea, nos acerca a este objetivo y fortalece nuestro espíritu de unión y colaboración. Gracias por su comprensión, apoyo y entusiasmo para mejorar nuestro espacio común. ¡Juntos haremos que nuestra iglesia sea un lugar más cómodo y acogedor para todos!

LIVING IN COMMUNITY: "A Spiritual Calling"

As children of God, we are created for communion. Our faith reminds us that no one is meant to walk alone; we are called to live in community, sharing life, love, and faith with one another. In a true Christian community, every person matters, every voice is heard, and every act of kindness reflects the love of Christ.

"St. Paul reminds us in his letters that the body of Christ is made up of many members, each with unique gifts that contribute to the well-being of the whole"

1 Corinthians 12:12-27

Living in community is not just a social duty it is a spiritual vocation. When we care for our neighbors, offer our time, talents, and prayers, and act with compassion, we participate in God's work on Earth. Each small gesture, each moment of service, strengthens the bonds that unite us and bears witness to God's presence among us.

Communities rooted in prayer, charity, and mutual support become reflections of God's Kingdom on Earth. By embracing our role in this sacred work, we not only enrich the lives of others but also deepen our own relationship with God, discovering joy in service, humility in giving, and peace in unity.

Responsibility is central to this calling. Stewardship of our gifts—whether through helping the vulnerable, supporting parish activities, or simply encouraging those around us, is a way to live out our faith in tangible ways. As Jesus reminds us, we are "the light of the world" (Matthew 5:14); through our actions, His love shines in places of need, hope, and healing.

Let us therefore open our hearts, embrace our responsibilities, and work together in faith so that our communities may grow in holiness, love, and the light of Christ.
