BY: TOM SCHMIDT

You may notice that Acts of the Apostles is the source of the first reading during the Easter season. This book describes how Christianity grew from a handful of disciples to a major religion. Today's reading about an ideal Christian community is meant to show ordinary believers how to be extraordinary, using three examples I call power, property, and prayer.

Power means the "signs and wonders" (Acts 2:43) performed by the disciples through the power of the Holy Spirit. This should be named last because it takes a lot of faith to heal the sick. If you had the same faith as the apostles, you just might be able to cure the sick. Or you might study to become a doctor and cure them with medical skills. As long as you acknowledge that God gave you the brains and the talent to become a doctor, you are doing God's work.

By property, I mean sharing what you have with those in need. Many disciples were moved to sell their goods and share them with the poor, and word of that must have spread. If you are not called to sell all your goods and become a monk or a nun, you can still tithe to your church or the poor, tutor disadvantaged kids, or help build or repair houses in poor areas. The point is that followers of Christ are not just individual do-gooders. They are a community of believers who care about each other and also care about the non-believers who need help of any kind.

So where did these first disciples get the faith to cure the sick and the love to help the needy? The answer is the third example—prayer. In the first reading we hear how "they devoted themselves . . . to the breaking of the bread" (Acts 2:42, 46)—their name for the Eucharist. They also went to the temple to pray, because at that time most disciples were Jewish Christians. As they heard the Hebrew scriptures, they saw how God's promises were fulfilled in Christ. All of these practices helped unite them to Christ and to each other.

Quizás te has dado cuenta que el libro de los Hechos de los Apóstoles es la fuente de las primeras lecturas durante la temporada de Pascua. Este libro describe cómo el cristianismo creció de un pequeño grupo de discípulos a una gran religión. La lectura de hoy, sobre una comunidad cristiana ideal, tiene como objetivo mostrar a los creyentes comunes cómo ser extraordinarios, utilizando tres ejemplos que llamo poder, propiedad y oración.

El poder se refiere a "los milagros y prodigios" (Hechos 2,43) realizados por los discípulos mediante el poder del Espíritu Santo. Esto debería mencionarse al final, ya que se necesita mucha fe para sanar a los enfermos. Si tuvieras la misma fe que los apóstoles, quizás podrías curar a los enfermos. O podrías estudiar para ser médico y curarlos con tus conocimientos médicos. Siempre que reconozcas que Dios te dio la inteligencia y el talento para ser médico, estarás haciendo la obra de Dios.

Por propiedad, me refiero a compartir lo que tienes con los necesitados. Muchos discípulos se sintieron impulsados a vender sus posesiones y compartirlas con los pobres, y la noticia de esto debió haberse difundido. Si no te sientes llamado a vender todas sus posesiones y convertirte en monje o monja, aún puedes dar el diezmo a tu iglesia o a los pobres, dar clases particulares a niños desfavorecidos o ayudar a construir o reparar casas en zonas pobres. La cuestión es que los seguidores de Cristo no son solo personas que hacen el bien individualmente. Son una comunidad de creyentes que se preocupan unos por otros y también por los no creyentes que necesitan ayuda de cualquier tipo.

Entonces, ¿de dónde obtuvieron estos primeros discípulos la fe para curar a los enfermos y el amor para ayudar a los necesitados? La respuesta es el tercer ejemplo: la oración. En la primera lectura escuchamos "eran constantes... en la fracción del pan y las oraciones". La fracción del pan era su nombre para la Eucaristía. También iban al templo a orar, porque en ese momento la mayoría de los discípulos eran judeocristianos. Al escuchar las Escrituras hebreas, vieron cómo las promesas de Dios se cumplían en Cristo. Todas estas prácticas los ayudaron a unirse a Cristo y entre sí.

“THE STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS REJECTED HAS BECOME THE CORNERSTONE. BY THE LORD HAS THIS BEEN DONE; IT IS WONDERFUL IN OUR EYES.
1 Peter 1:3-9

PERSONAL REFLECTION

- How open is my faith to the action of the Holy Spirit in my life, and what fears or doubts prevent me from fully surrendering to God's "power"?
- In my relationship with prayer, do I truly seek a transforming union with Christ that leads me to love and serve like the first disciples, or do I remain at a superficial level?
- ¿Qué tan abierta está mi fe a la acción del Espíritu Santo en mi vida, y qué miedos o dudas me impiden abandonarme plenamente al "poder" de Dios?
- En mi relación con la oración, ¿realmente busco una unión transformadora con Cristo que me lleve a amar y servir como los primeros discípulos, o me quedo en una práctica superficial?

Why is there Holy Water at the entrance of a Catholic Church?

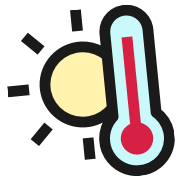

The Holy Water placed near the entrance of every Catholic church is not just decoration—it is a reminder of our Baptism.

- 🕯️ Recall that we were cleansed from sin and became children of God.
- 🕯️ Prepare our hearts for prayer and worship.
- 🕯️ Ask for God's protection and grace before entering
His holy presence.

Every drop is a sign of God's blessing, cleansing our minds and hearts as we step into His house.

Prayer: "Lord, as I bless myself with the Holy Water, renew in me the grace of my Baptism. Purify my heart, strengthen my faith, and guide my steps toward Your holy will. Amen."

We apologize for the inconvenience

We would like to inform you that the air conditioners are not functioning properly. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause.

We are confident that, with the generosity and support of our community, we will soon be able to replace them with new units. Every contribution, no matter how small, brings us closer to this goal and strengthens our spirit of unity and collaboration.

Thank you for your understanding, support, and enthusiasm in improving our shared space. Together, we will make our church a more comfortable and welcoming place for everyone!

Les informamos que los aires acondicionados no están funcionando correctamente. Lamentamos los inconvenientes que esto pueda causar y pedimos una disculpa.

Estamos seguros de que, con la generosidad y el apoyo de nuestra comunidad, pronto podremos reemplazarlos por unidades nuevas. Cada aporte, por pequeño que sea, nos acerca a este objetivo y fortalece nuestro espíritu de unión y colaboración.

Gracias por su comprensión, apoyo y entusiasmo para mejorar nuestro espacio común. ¡juntos haremos que nuestra iglesia sea un lugar más cómodo y acogedor para todos!

WHAT DOES IHS MEAN?

- ✓ Saint Bernardino of Siena advocated it as a symbol of peace.
- ✓ Sigma (S) was added in the Second century.
- ✓ Often Christograms were used to secretly mark early Christian tombs.
- ✓ The Greek letters iota (I) and eta (H) are the first two letters in Jesus.
