SUNDAY REFLECTION

Fourth Sunday of Easter

BY: TOM SCHMIDT

Peter, the apostle who had denied knowing Jesus before he died, now comes out and accuses the crowd of killing Jesus. Considering that he was outnumbered three thousand to one, it took a lot of nerve. So the Spirit gave him the courage to face that crowd. He asked them to repent, but not just profess a rejection of sin.

What we call repentance, in Peter's time meant a change of heart away from sin and toward a new way of acting or believing. We too can make a change of heart. We can turn away from selfishness and begin to love as Jesus did. We can relinquish anger and begin to forgive. We can put aside fear and boldly proclaim our faith.

Peter also shows us another gift of the Spirit—the ability to suffer for doing good. That also takes a lot of nerve. It's hard enough to suffer for our sins. Yet that is just what Jesus did for us. Following the example of Jesus on the cross, we accept the suffering that comes to us. It may be ridicule for expressing our faith, the pain of losing someone we love, or the eventual pain of dying ourselves.

We accept pain because we love the Lord and so love others enough to bear the pain of helping them. Let us ask the Holy Spirit to help us repent from selfishness to live a new life of love for God and our neighbor.

Pedro, el apóstol que había negado conocer a Jesús antes de su muerte, ahora se presenta y acusa a la multitud de haber matado a Jesús. Considerando que estaba en minoría, con tres mil personas en su contra, se requirió mucho valor. El Espíritu le dio el coraje para enfrentarse a esa multitud. Les pidió que se arrepintieran, pero no solo que profesaran un rechazo al pecado.

Lo que hoy llamamos arrepentimiento, en tiempos de Pedro significaba un cambio de corazón, alejándose del pecado y dirigiéndose hacia una nueva forma de actuar o creer. Nosotros también podemos experimentar un cambio de corazón. Podemos dejar atrás el egoísmo y comenzar a amar como Jesús. Podemos abandonar la ira y comenzar a perdonar. Podemos dejar de lado el miedo y proclamar la fe con valentía.

Pedro también nos muestra otro don del Espíritu: la capacidad de sufrir por hacer el bien. Eso también requiere mucho valor. Ya es bastante difícil sufrir por nuestros pecados. Sin embargo, eso fue precisamente lo que Jesús hizo por nosotros. Siguiendo el ejemplo de Jesús en la cruz, aceptamos el sufrimiento que nos llega. Puede ser el menosprecio por expresar la fe, el dolor de perder a un ser querido o el dolor final de nuestra propia muerte.

Aceptamos el dolor porque amamos al Señor y, por lo tanto, amamos a los demás lo suficiente como para soportar el dolor de ayudarlos. Pidamos al Espíritu Santo que nos ayude a arrepentirnos del egoísmo y a vivir una nueva vida de amor a Dios y al prójimo.

“ I AM THE GOOD SHEPHERD, SAYS THE LORD; I KNOW MY SHEEP, AND MINE KNOW ME...

John 10:1-10

PERSONAL REFLECTION

- If true repentance means a real change of heart and life, what specific attitudes—such as selfishness, anger, or fear—do I continue to justify in myself, and what concrete steps am I willing to take to transform them into love, forgiveness, and courage?
- Si el verdadero arrepentimiento implica un cambio real de corazón y de vida, ¿qué actitudes concretas como el egoísmo, la ira o el miedo sigo justificando en mí, y qué decisiones prácticas estoy dispuesto a tomar para transformarlas en amor, perdón y valentía?

Good Shepherd Sunday

On this Fourth Sunday of Easter, known as Good Shepherd Sunday, the Church invites us to reflect on Jesus as the One who guides, cares for, and lays down His life for His sheep. On this special day, we are also reminded of the importance of praying for those who are called to continue His mission: our priests.

Praying for our priests is not only an act of gratitude, but a true necessity. Like the Good Shepherd, they serve God's people by accompanying, teaching, forgiving, and strengthening the faith of the community. Yet they are also human; they experience fatigue, challenges, and moments of loneliness. That is why they need our constant prayer.

In a special way today, we lift up Father Miguel Angel and Father Angel. May the Lord strengthen them in their vocation, fill them with His love, and grant them the grace to be shepherds after the heart of Christ. May they never lack the joy of serving nor the peace that sustains them in times of trial.

As a community, may we support them not only with words, but with our closeness and prayers, recognizing in them a gift from God to His Church.

En este Cuarto Domingo de Pascua, conocido como el Día del Buen Pastor, la Iglesia nos invita a contemplar a Jesús como Aquel que guía, cuida y da la vida por sus ovejas. En este día tan especial, también se nos recuerda la importancia de orar por quienes han sido llamados a continuar su misión: nuestros sacerdotes.

Pedir por nuestros sacerdotes no es solo un acto de gratitud, sino una necesidad. Ellos, como el Buen Pastor, están al servicio del pueblo de Dios, acompañando, enseñando, perdonando y sosteniendo la fe de la comunidad. Sin embargo, también son humanos, enfrentan cansancio, dificultades y momentos de soledad. Por eso necesitan de nuestra oración constante.

De manera especial hoy, elevamos nuestras súplicas por el Padre Miguel Angel y el Padre Angel. Que el Señor los fortalezca en su vocación, los llene de su amor y les conceda la gracia de ser pastores según el corazón de Cristo. Que nunca les falte la alegría de servir ni la paz en medio de las pruebas.

Que como comunidad sepamos apoyarlos no solo con palabras, sino con nuestra cercanía y oración, reconociendo en ellos un regalo de Dios para su Iglesia.

En este Día del Buen Pastor, pidamos con fe: Señor, cuida a nuestros sacerdotes, protégelos y hazlos fieles reflejos de tu amor. Amén.

WHAT IS FAITH FORMATION CLASSES?

Faith formation classes are Catholic educational programs designed to help individuals of all ages develop a deeper relationship with God through study, prayer, and community. They provide instruction in church teachings, scripture, and sacraments.

AT WHAT AGE DO CHILDREN START CATECHISM?

Catechism classes for children start around 7 (second grade), as this aligns with the "age of reason" required to prepare for First Holy Communion. Formal two-year sacramental preparation programs.

Older Children/Teens: Catechism is also available for older children who haven't received sacraments, and adults (OCIA).

Youth confirmation classes are commonly two-year programs for teens (often starting in 9th grade, ages 14+) that prepare them for the Sacrament of Confirmation, involving weekly classes, retreats, and service projects.

Registration begins in June

"Religious formation classes provide a crucial foundation for children by nurturing their spiritual, moral, and emotional growth, teaching values like compassion and empathy, and reducing anxiety through faith-based, structured environments."
