

In Honor of Our Mothers

ST. PIUS X CATHOLIC CHURCH IGLESIA DE SAN PIO X

A Community with Mission - Una Comunidad con Misión

God took the fragrance of a flower...
The majesty of a tree...
The gentleness of morning dew...
The calm of a quiet sea...
The beauty
of the twilight hour...
The soul
of a starry night...
The laughter of a rippling brook...
The grace of a bird
in flight...
Then God fashioned from these things
A creation like no other,
And when his masterpiece was through
He called it simply - Mother.

SUNDAY REFLECTION

Sixth Sunday of Easter

BY: TOM SCHMIDT

This Sunday is two weeks before Pentecost, but already the readings prepare us for that feast. The first reading from Acts shows us the conversion of the Samaritans, thanks to Philip's preaching and curing the sick. He did this through the power of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit makes Jesus present today, not just in the sacraments, but through us, his disciples.

Jesus knew that after his Resurrection appearances, he would not be visible as a man. Instead, he would live in all of his followers through the power of the Holy Spirit. That's why he tells the disciples that the Spirit will be with them and in them. So the Sacrament of Confirmation, the laying on of hands (Acts 8:17), reminds us that when God lives in us, we share in the power of the Holy Spirit.

In the second reading, Peter gives us practical advice. First, he tells us to be ready to explain our hope in the Lord. That hope comes from our faith in the Resurrection. When you hear that people saw and talked to Jesus after he rose from the dead, then hear that anyone who follows Jesus will share in that resurrection, you begin to have real hope. Next, Peter tells us to avoid sin, not because we won't be forgiven again, but to show that we can live a life free from sin, selfishness, and hatred. Freedom from sin allows us to give a good example of how to live. Abandoning selfishness allows us to love others without counting the cost. When we are free from hatred, we are able to forgive others as we have been forgiven. As we live in Jesus and he in us, our happiness will attract people to God.

Este domingo estamos a dos semanas de Pentecostés, pero las lecturas ya nos preparan para esa fiesta. La primera lectura de los Hechos de los Apóstoles nos muestra la conversión de los samaritanos, gracias a la predicación y a la curación de los enfermos de Felipe. Él hizo esto por el poder del Espíritu Santo. El Espíritu hace presente a Jesús hoy, no solo en los sacramentos, sino también a través de nosotros, sus discípulos.

Jesús sabía que después de sus apariciones tras la Resurrección, no sería visible como hombre. En cambio, viviría en todos sus seguidores por el poder del Espíritu Santo. Por eso les dice a los discípulos que el Espíritu estará con ellos y en ellos. Así que el Sacramento de la Confirmación, la imposición de las manos (Hechos 8,17), nos recuerda que cuando Dios vive en nosotros, participamos del poder del Espíritu Santo.

En la segunda lectura, Pedro nos da consejos prácticos. Primero, nos dice que estemos preparados para explicar nuestra esperanza en el Señor. Esa esperanza proviene de nuestra fe en la Resurrección. Cuando escuchamos que la gente vio y habló con Jesús después de que resucitó de entre los muertos, y luego escuchamos que cualquiera que siga a Jesús participará de esa resurrección, comenzamos a tener una esperanza verdadera. Luego, Pedro nos dice que evitemos el pecado, no porque no seamos perdonados de nuevo, sino para demostrar que podemos vivir una vida libre de pecado, egoísmo y odio. La libertad del pecado nos permite dar un buen ejemplo de cómo vivir. Abandonar el egoísmo nos permite amar a los demás sin importar el costo. Cuando estamos libres del odio, podemos perdonar a los demás como hemos sido perdonados. Al vivir en Jesús y él en nosotros, nuestra felicidad atraerá a las personas hacia Dios.

“ I WHOEVER LOVES ME WILL KEEP MY WORD, SAYS THE LORD, AND MY FATHER WILL LOVE HIM AND WE WILL COME TO HIM.
 John 14:15-21

PERSONAL REFLECTION

- When I look honestly at my life, do I reflect an inner freedom born from God's love one that allows me to forgive, give of myself, and love without limits or am I still held back by fear, pride, or self-attachment?
- Al mirar mi vida con sinceridad, ¿reflejo una libertad interior que nace del amor de Dios capaz de perdonar, entregarme y amar sin medida o sigo condicionado por el miedo, el orgullo o el apego a mí mismo?

The Sanctuary Lamp

Pagar por una vela o veladora del Santísimo Sacramento es un acto de devoción católica, a menudo llamado "vela votiva", que simboliza una intención especial, oración o agradecimiento ante la presencia real de Cristo.

Representa dejar el corazón unido a Dios, ofreciendo luz, fe y esperanza por una necesidad particular.

La vela encendida ante el Santísimo representa la luz de Cristo y es un signo visible de la oración de los fieles que permanece ante El, incluso cuando la persona se retira. Se encienden para pedir favores, en agradecimiento por oraciones contestadas, o como señal de solidaridad y amor hacia alguien.

Más allá del costo material, es una ofrenda espiritual que simboliza la fe, la esperanza y el deseo de quemar el egoísmo o dificultades personales.

Es una forma de extender la oración y mantener la presencia espiritual en momentos de dificultad o gratitud.

Paying for a votive candle before the Blessed Sacrament is an act of Catholic devotion, often called a "votive candle," that symbolizes a special intention, prayer, or expression of gratitude before the Real Presence of Christ.
