PROGRESS
Annual Ministry Appeal - 2026

Progress Campaign 2026. Please Select St. Pius X. Set up one time donation or monthly recurring donation.

“Offering a Mass for someone, whether living or deceased, is considered the highest form of prayer in the Catholic faith, applying the infinite graces of Christ’s sacrifice for a specific need. It acts as a profound intercession for healing, comfort, special intentions, or the repose of a soul.”

Knowing that God keeps his promises is part of being a believer. And how do we know this? Because we see how he has kept them throughout history. Christ died for us while we were sinners, and that's why Saint Paul concludes that since we are saved from sin, we will also be saved from death.

Jesus shows us that God can do even more. When he saw the crowds in today's Gospel, he felt compassion for them because they were "like sheep without a shepherd." They seemed to need leaders, someone who could show them the way to God. So Jesus responds in two ways.

First, he teaches his disciples to pray for more leaders. Jesus is teaching us to pray for the leaders of the Church today. He also teaches us to pray for vocations to religious life.

The second thing Jesus does is act by sending the apostles. For us, taking action might mean offering our help to parish leaders, serving a term on the parish council, or encouraging our children to consider a religious vocation. God gives us these gifts at no cost. He simply asks us to spread the good news of salvation. That's what leadership within the Church is all about.

Saber que Dios cumple sus promesas es una parte de ser creyente. ¿Y cómo sabemos eso? Porque vemos cómo las ha cumplido a través de la historia. Cristo murió por nosotros siendo pecadores y por eso San Pablo concluye que siendo salvados del pecado, también seremos salvados de la muerte.

Jesús nos demuestra que Dios puede hacer aún más. Cuando vio a las multitudes en el evangelio de hoy, se compadeció de ellas porque eran "como ovejas sin pastor". Parecía que necesitaban líderes, alguien que pudiera mostrarles el camino a Dios. Así que Jesús responde de dos formas.

Primero, enseña a sus discípulos a rogar por más líderes. Jesús nos está enseñando a rezar por los líderes de la Iglesia hoy. También nos enseña a rogar por las vocaciones a la vida religiosa.

La segunda cosa que hace Jesús es actuar enviando a los apóstoles. Para nosotros, tomar acción puede significar ofrecer nuestra ayuda a los líderes parroquiales, cumplir un término en el consejo parroquial o animar a nuestros hijos a considerar una vocación religiosa. Dios nos regala estos dones sin costo. Simplemente nos pide que transmitamos esa buena nueva de la salvación. De eso se trata el liderazgo dentro de la Iglesia.

“THE KINGDOM OF GOD IS AT HAND. REPENT AND BELIEVE IN THE GOSPEL.”

Matthew 9:36-10:8

PERSONAL REFLECTION

- If Jesus looked upon my life today with the same compassion He had for the crowds who were "like sheep without a shepherd," would He find me willing to answer His call to serve, lead, and share the Good News with others, or am I waiting for someone else to do it?
- Si Jesús mirara hoy mi vida con la misma compasión con la que vio a las multitudes "como ovejas sin pastor", ¿me encontraría dispuesto a responder a su llamado para servir, guiar y compartir la Buena Nueva con los demás, o estoy esperando que alguien más lo haga por mí?

EUCCHARISTIC STEWARDSHIP...OUR GRATEFUL RESPONSE TO HIS GIFT.
CORRESPONSABILIDAD EUCARÍSTICA... NUESTRA RESPUESTA AGRADECIDA A SU DON.

FOUR PILLARS OF STEWARDSHIP / CUATRO PILARES DE CORRESPONSABILIDAD

- ✓ FORMATION / FORMACIÓN
- ✓ SERVICE / SERVICIO
- ✓ HOSPITALITY / HOSPITALIDAD
- ✓ PRAYER / ORACIÓN

Service is our loving response to the greatest gift we have received: Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. At every Mass, we encounter a God who gives Himself completely to us, and that encounter calls us to give of ourselves in return.

As disciples of Christ, we are called to serve with our time, our talents, and our treasure. Eucharistic stewardship reminds us that everything we have is a gift from God, entrusted to us to be used for His glory and the good of others. Our commitment to the Church goes beyond volunteering when help is needed; it also includes supporting the mission of our parish through faithful and generous financial stewardship.

Our financial support is an act of service and gratitude. Through the generosity of parishioners, the Church can continue proclaiming the Gospel, celebrating the sacraments, forming children and youth in the faith, caring for those in need, and maintaining our parish as a spiritual home for all.

When we share our resources with grateful hearts, we are doing more than making a donation—we are participating in Christ's mission. Every gift, no matter its size, becomes a blessing that helps build God's Kingdom and strengthens the life of our parish community.

May the Eucharist inspire us to serve with joy, generosity, and faith. Together, let us offer our time, talents, and treasure as a grateful response to God's many blessings, making Christ's love visible in our parish and in the world.

This week marks the conclusion of our reflection on the Four Pillars of Eucharistic Stewardship: Hospitality, Prayer, Service, and Formation. Yet, while this series comes to an end, the call of the Eucharist continues.

In the Eucharist, we encounter Jesus Christ, who gives Himself completely for us. From that encounter flows our response of gratitude. Hospitality opens our hearts to welcome others as Christ welcomes us. Prayer deepens our communion with Him and transforms our hearts. Service allows us to become His hands and feet in the world. Formation helps us grow as faithful disciples who seek to know, love, and follow Him more closely.

The Eucharist is not simply something we receive; it is a mystery that shapes who we are. As we leave this reflection behind, may these four pillars remain firmly rooted in our daily lives. Strengthened by Christ's presence and nourished by His Body and Blood, may we joyfully embrace our vocation as stewards of His gifts, living each day in gratitude, generosity, and love.

May the Lord continue to form us into a Eucharistic people whose lives proclaim what we celebrate at the altar.

El servicio es una respuesta de amor y gratitud al regalo más grande que hemos recibido: Jesucristo presente en la Eucaristía. En cada Misa contemplamos a un Dios que se entrega completamente por nosotros, y ese encuentro nos impulsa a hacer lo mismo con nuestras vidas.

Como discípulos de Cristo, estamos llamados a servir con nuestros talentos, nuestro tiempo y también con nuestros recursos. La corresponsabilidad eucarística nos recuerda que todo lo que tenemos proviene de Dios y que somos administradores de sus bendiciones. Por eso, nuestra participación en la vida de la parroquia no se limita a ofrecer ayuda cuando se necesita; también incluye el compromiso de sostener la misión de la Iglesia mediante nuestras contribuciones económicas.

Nuestro apoyo financiero es una forma concreta de servicio. Gracias a la generosidad de la comunidad, la Iglesia puede continuar anunciando el Evangelio, celebrando los sacramentos, formando a nuestros niños y jóvenes en la fe, ayudando a quienes más lo necesitan y manteniendo nuestra parroquia como un hogar espiritual para todos.

Cuando ofrecemos nuestros recursos con un corazón agradecido, no estamos simplemente haciendo una donación; estamos participando activamente en la obra de Cristo y ayudando a que su amor llegue a más personas.

Que la Eucaristía transforme nuestros corazones para que respondamos con generosidad, sirviendo con alegría, compartiendo nuestros dones y apoyando fielmente la misión de nuestra parroquia. Así, nuestra gratitud se convierte en acción y nuestro amor por Cristo se hace visible en el servicio a los demás.

Esta semana concluimos nuestra reflexión sobre los Cuatro Pilares de la Corresponsabilidad Eucarística: Hospitalidad, Oración, Servicio y Formación. Sin embargo, aunque esta serie llega a su fin, el llamado de la Eucaristía continúa en nuestra vida diaria.

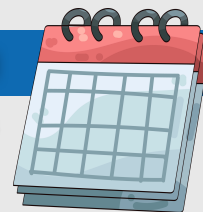

En la Eucaristía encontramos a Jesucristo, quien se entrega completamente por nosotros. De ese encuentro nace nuestra respuesta de gratitud. La hospitalidad abre nuestro corazón para acoger a los demás como Cristo nos acoge. La oración profundiza nuestra comunión con Él y transforma nuestro corazón. El servicio nos permite ser las manos y los pies de Cristo en el mundo. La formación nos ayuda a crecer como discípulos fieles que desean conocerlo, amarlo y seguirlo cada vez más.

La Eucaristía no es solamente algo que recibimos; es un misterio que transforma nuestra vida. Al concluir esta reflexión, que estos cuatro pilares permanezcan firmemente arraigados en nuestro caminar de fe. Fortalecidos por la presencia de Cristo y alimentados con su Cuerpo y su Sangre, respondamos con alegría al llamado de vivir como corresponsables de los dones que Dios nos ha confiado.

Que el Señor continúe formándonos como un pueblo eucarístico, cuya vida refleje y proclame aquello que celebramos en el altar: el amor que se entrega, sirve y transforma.

A PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

Keep them, I pray Thee dearest Lord,
Keep them for they are Thine –
Thy priests whose lives burn out before
The consecrated shrine.

Keep them for they are in the world,
Though from the world apart;
When earthly pleasures tempt, allure, –
Shelter them in Thy heart.

Keep them, and comfort them in hours
Of loneliness and pain,
When all their life of sacrifice
For souls seems but in vain.

Keep them, and O remember, Lord,
They have no one but Thee,
Yet they have only human hearts,
With human frailty.

Keep them as spotless as the Host
That daily they caress;
Their every thought and word and deed,
Design, dearest Lord, to bless. Amen.

Say our Our Father and one Hail Mary.
