

Pentecost Vigil

Vigilia De Pentecostés

FROM THE PASTOR

I invite you and your family to participate at the Pentecost Vigil on June 7, from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm. This is a great opportunity to give thanks to God for his love “poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.” (Romans 5:5) My hope is that all the community of St Pius X, all the committed and active members from all ministries and groups in the parish will come together to celebrate this beautiful feast of our Catholic Church. Together we can be renewed as we confidently ask: “Come, Holy Spirit, and kindle in the hearts of all the faithful the fire of your love!” Father Miguel Angel

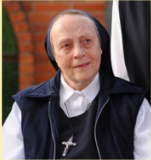

Te invito para que tú y tu familia participen en la Vigilia de Pentecostés el 7 de junio de 7:00 a 9:00 pm. Esta es una gran oportunidad para dar gracias a Dios por su “amor que ha derramado en nuestro corazón por medio del Espíritu Santo que nos a dado.” (Romanos 5:5.) Mi esperanza es que toda la comunidad de San Pio X, todos los miembros comprometidos y activos de todos los ministerios y grupos parroquiales se reúnan a celebrar esta gran fiesta de nuestra Iglesia Católica. Todos juntos podremos ser renovados al pedir con gran confianza y expectativa: “¡Ven, Espíritu Santo, y renueva en el corazón de tus fieles el fuego de tu amor!” Padre Miguel Angel

Vengan a mí todos ustedes que están cansados, y yo los aliviaré

Sunday Reflection

The second reading from Revelations gives us a picture of the new Jerusalem as a sign of the power and majesty of God. Yet the other two readings seem to describe a humble God who wishes “not to place on you any burden beyond . . . necessity” (Acts 15:28), and Jesus in the Gospel tells his disciples that “the Holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name . . . will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you” (John 14:26). This gentleness reminds me of an icon by the Russian monk Andrei Rublev that depicts the Trinity as three angels bowing in deference to each other. This humility may be what moved Jesus to say that “the Father is greater than I” (John 14:28). It is certainly a unique way of understanding God.

I used to think of free will as God’s way of testing our worthiness for the kingdom of heaven. But it is more likely part of that same humility, God not being forced on us. While we are given ways to know God, especially through the scriptures and the witness of those who went before us in faith, God leaves us free to believe or not, to love God or not.

So does this mean God leaves us on our own to get through life? No, he gives us the Holy Spirit to teach and remind us of all that Jesus said. That “reminding” is an important way the Spirit helps us today.

You may have spent years in religion classes or the RCIA process. When you need an answer to life’s questions, the Spirit may remind you of something you heard from a teacher or read in the scriptures. As you pray over that question, the Spirit may help you understand how the scripture applies to you. So the more you read the Bible, the more likely that the Spirit will have something of which to remind you.

La segunda lectura del Apocalipsis nos da una imagen de la nueva Jerusalén como signo del poder y la majestad de Dios. Sin embargo, las otras dos lecturas parecen describir a un Dios humilde que no quiere “imponerles más cargas que las estrictamente necesarias” (Hechos 15:28), y Jesús en el Evangelio dice a sus discípulos que “el Espíritu Santo que mi Padre les enviará en mi nombre, les enseñará todas las cosas y les recordará todo cuanto yo les he dicho” (Juan 14,26).

Esta gentileza me hace acordar de un icono del monje ruso Andrei Rublev que representa a la Trinidad como tres ángeles inclinándose en deferencia el uno al otro. Esta humildad puede ser lo que llevó a Jesús a decir que “el Padre es más que yo” (Juan 14,28). Sin duda, es una forma única de entender a Dios.

Antes pensaba en el libre albedrío como la forma que Dios prueba nuestro mérito para el reino de los cielos. Pero es más probable que sea parte de esa misma humildad, que Dios no se nos imponga. Aunque se nos dan maneras de conocer a Dios, especialmente a través de las Escrituras y el testimonio de quienes nos precedieron en la fe, Dios nos deja libres para creer o no, para amar a Dios o no.

¿Significa esto que Dios nos deja solos para que atravesemos la vida? No. Nos da el Espíritu Santo para enseñarnos y recordarnos todo lo que Jesús dijo. Ese “recordatorio” es una forma importante en que el Espíritu nos ayuda hoy. Es posible que hayas pasado años en clases de religión o en el proceso de RICA. Cuando necesites una respuesta a las preguntas de la vida, el Espíritu puede recordarte algo que hayas escuchado de un maestro o leído en las Escrituras. Al orar sobre esa pregunta, el Espíritu puede ayudarte a entender cómo se aplica esa escritura a tu caso. Así que, mientras más leas la Biblia, más probable será que el Espíritu tenga algo que recordarte

God of power and mercy, you destroy war and put down earthly pride. Banish violence from our midst and wipe away our tears, that we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters. Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely into your kingdom of justice and peace. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
