HOW TO RECEIVE HOLY COMMUNION

You may have noticed that people receive Communion in different ways. Is there a right way? How exactly should we receive Holy Communion? First of all, it is important to notice that we receive Communion. Holy Communion is our greatest gift, a gift to be received through the generous love of Jesus. Holy Communion should never be taken by our own action. As The General Instruction of the Roman Missal states, “It is not permitted for the faithful to take the consecrated Bread or the sacred chalice by themselves and, still less, to hand them on from one to another among themselves. The norm established for the Dioceses of the United States of America is that Holy Communion is to be received standing.

The instruction makes clear that we are receiving the gift of Holy Communion and not taking this gift for ourselves, a truth we emphasize in the posture we observe as we receive the Sacred Host. For those receiving in the hand, we hold our hands steady with an open palm throne to receive Our Lord truly present. For those receiving on the tongue, we are still as we wait for the placement of the Sacred Host on the tongue.

“When receiving Holy Communion, the communicant bows his or her head before the Sacrament as a gesture of reverence and receives the Body of the Lord from the minister... When Holy Communion is received under both kinds, the sign of reverence is also made before receiving the Precious Blood” (GIRM, 160). As I have often shared when teaching children about postures of prayer and reverence, our sign of reverence actually provides an opportunity for our bodies to help remind our minds and hearts who we believe is before us. We believe that Jesus, Almighty God, Second Person of the Trinity, is there before us in the Holy Eucharist. Our bow helps us recall that he really is there and that we believe he really is there! Like so many parts of our lives that are repeated regularly, we may risk just going through the motions at this part of the Mass. However, if we do that, we would be overlooking Jesus truly there before us! The next time you are approaching Holy Communion,

Fr. Luke Spannagel

take the challenge of really bowing with reverence and recall Jesus is there. Perhaps pray to yourself those words of St. Thomas: “My Lord and My God” (John 20:28). “Even the procession toward Communion is a great ritual act, as we humbly approach the Lord Jesus. The Bishops of the United States have asked that we make a bow as a sign of reverence toward the Eucharist before receiving... It is an encounter as we receive him—Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity!”

How about some practical tips? Absolutely! As I mentioned above, one great way of being in the mode of “receiving” is to stay still as the minister brings the Host to you. As a practical note, I have often noticed that some people will lunge forward toward the Sacred Host, or at times those intending to receive on the tongue will even bite the host or lick upward. For those receiving in the hand, I have noticed that sometimes people will already be closing their hand before the Host is placed there. I presume these might be ways of trying to help the minister; however, it truly is easiest and perhaps the most prayerful if you remain still until Jesus in the Sacred Host comes to you.

For those receiving in the hand, St. Cyril offers instruction: “When you approach, do not come with palms of the hand spread flat, nor with fingers wide apart... Make him a throne with your left hand. In the hollow of your hand receive the Body of Christ and answer: Amen... Consume The Host and be careful that none of it be lost... Tell me, if you were given some grains of gold, would you not guard them with the greatest care so as not to lose any one of them and be the poorer? Should you not be even more careful not to let drop the least particle of what is more precious than gold or precious stones?”

One last practical tip might be to think about what you are saying when you say, “Amen.” I encourage you to make it a vigorous Amen, reminding yourself that word means, “Jesus, I believe you are really here.” This Amen is an important prayer of faith at the moment of receiving Holy Communion.

Sunday Reflection

The Gospel for this feast reminds me of what my aunt used to tell us when we would visit her and share a meal. Her favorite saying was, “If you don’t get enough to eat, it’s your own fault.” Perhaps Jesus would say the same as he feeds us with his Body and Blood.

Some say that the multiplication of loaves was not done by breaking the laws of physics. Instead, they say that Jesus, when he began to share the little bread that he had, touched the hearts of all those who had brought food with them. They followed his example by sharing their food also—so much that there were twelve baskets left over.

Jesus came to change people’s hearts, to show them God’s love and how to love one another. The miracle of changing bread and wine into his Body and Blood is not just so we can feel good about having Jesus so near to us. It is meant to strengthen us to do our best as his disciples. As food and drink help us to keep on working, his Body and Blood help us to keep on loving.

When the disciples told Jesus about the hungry crowd, he told them, “Give them some food yourselves” (Luke 9:13). And one day they would.

When they celebrated the Eucharist after Jesus’ resurrection, they gave that spiritual food to the new followers of Christ. We continue that today. With Jesus’ strength we can teach all people about the Father’s love for them and how they can love each other.

SOLEMNITY of The MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD of JESUS

While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, and said, “Take it; this is my body... This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many.”

El Evangelio de esta fiesta me recuerda lo que mi tía nos decía cuando la visitábamos y compartíamos una comida. Su dicho favorito era: “Si no comes lo suficiente, es tu propia culpa”. Tal vez Jesús diría lo mismo mientras nos alimenta con su Cuerpo y Sangre.

Jesús vino a cambiar los corazones de las personas, a mostrarles el amor de Dios y cómo amarnos unos a otros.

El milagro de la multiplicación de los panes nos muestra que Jesús puede alimentar a millones con su Cuerpo y Sangre en la Eucaristía. El milagro de convertir el pan y el vino en su Cuerpo y Sangre no es solo para que podamos sentirnos bien por tener a Jesús tan cerca de nosotros. Tiene el propósito de fortalecernos para hacer lo mejor que podamos como sus discípulos. Así como la comida y la bebida nos ayudan a seguir trabajando, su Cuerpo y Sangre nos ayudan a seguir amando.

Cuando los discípulos le contaron a Jesús sobre la multitud hambrienta, él les dijo: “Denles ustedes de comer” (Lucas 9,13). Y un día lo harían.

Cuando celebraron la Eucaristía después de la resurrección de Jesús, dieron ese alimento espiritual a los nuevos seguidores de Cristo. Nosotros continuamos haciéndolo hoy. Con la fuerza de Jesús podemos enseñar a todas las personas sobre el amor que el Padre les tiene y cómo pueden amarse los unos a los otros.
