Sunday Reflection

How much is good enough? How do we know when we have been generous enough or faithful enough to please the Lord? How do we know we have done enough to avoid sin?

Although I do not for one minute believe that God is sitting up in heaven next to a giant scoreboard keeping a tally of our good and bad deeds, we will be judged at the end of our lives. Today's second reading provokes self analysis in this regard: "In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood."

How do we react when we sin? Do we give into temptation so often that we don't even feel a ping to our conscience? Do we instantly regret what we have done and seek forgiveness from the person we have wronged? Do we look for the next available confession time? Do we let our sins pile up one upon the other and only seek the Sacrament when we can no longer stand it?

Our Lord revealed to St. Faustina just how much sin hurts His Sacred Heart. If we truly took that to heart, we would flee from sin so much more often. It would become repugnant to us. During the Divine Mercy Novena, we read "bring to me all mankind, especially sinners, and immerse them in the ocean of My mercy."

In this way you will console Me in the bitter grief into which the loss of souls plunges Me" (Diary of St. Maria Faustina Kowalska). let us turn away from sin and instead spread love and joy and truth. Let us set the earth on fire with the blazing love of God! (see today's Gospel)

¿Cuánto es suficiente? ¿Cómo sabemos cuándo hemos sido lo suficientemente generosos o fieles para agradar al Señor? ¿Cómo sabemos que hemos hecho lo suficiente para evitar el pecado? Aunque no creo ni por un instante que Dios esté sentado en el cielo junto a un marcador gigantesco que lleva la cuenta de nuestras buenas y malas acciones, es cierto que seremos juzgados al final de nuestras vidas.

La segunda lectura de hoy me invita a un autoanálisis al respecto: "todavía no han llegado a derramar su sangre en la lucha contra el pecado". ¿Cómo reaccionamos cuando pecamos? ¿Cedemos a la tentación tan a menudo que ni siquiera sentimos remordimiento? ¿Nos arrepentimos al instante de lo que hemos hecho y buscamos el perdón de la persona a la que hemos ofendido? ¿Buscamos la próxima oportunidad para ir a confesarnos? ¿Dejamos que nuestros pecados se amontonen y solo buscamos el Sacramento cuando ya no podemos soportarlo más?

Nuestro Señor le reveló a Santa Faustina cuánto hiere el pecado a su Sagrado Corazón. Si realmente tomáramos esto en serio, huiríamos del pecado con mucha más frecuencia. Se volvería repugnante para nosotros. Durante la Novena a la Divina Misericordia, leemos: «Trae a mí a toda la humanidad, especialmente a los pecadores, y sumérgelos en el océano de mi misericordia. Así me consolarás en el amargo dolor en que me sume la pérdida de las almas» (Diario de Santa María Faustina Kowalska). Así que, alejémonos del pecado y, en cambio, derramemos amor, alegría y verdad. ¡Encendemos la tierra con el amor ardiente de Dios! (ver el Evangelio de hoy)
