SEPTEMBER FOR OUR LADY OF SORROWS

DID YOU KNOW?

Every September 14, we celebrate the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. This brought into September a particular meditation on the cross of Jesus Christ. By the 17th century, there developed a complementary Marian feast on September 15.

The celebration of Our Lady of Sorrows grew in popularity in the 12th century, although under various titles. Granted, some writings would place its roots in the 11th century, especially among the Benedictine monks. Its feast was inserted into the Roman calendar in 1814; and the permanent date of the Feast of the Seven Sorrows of the Blessed Virgin Mary (now simply called the Feast of Our Lady of Sorrows) was fixed to September 15.

Sunday Reflection

We may have any number of crosses throughout our lives. Some may be small, some may be big. Some may be heavy, some may be light. Some may be temporary, some may be long lasting. As Christians, we are called to bear those burdens, not begrudgingly but joyfully. Sometimes that seems downright impossible. How can I have joy in my life when every moment is filled with pain (whether that be physical or emotional)?

The answer is, it is not possible without a profound relationship with our Lord, that includes constant surrender to His will. In His great love for us, He often allows things to happen that we don't understand, but are for our good or for the good of others. Afterall, the goal for each of us is eternal salvation, not earthly comfort.

But whether we suffer rejection, loneliness, illness, pain, hunger, cold, or even torture and death, we know that He has experienced it all and knows exactly how it feels. We can ask Him to walk with us each step of the way and be our strength when our own fails. We may get to the point where we are able to rejoice in our sufferings like St. Paul, or endure them without complaint or remember to offer them up.

But above all, may our crosses be a constant reminder to us of today's powerful Gospel passage: "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life" (John 3:16).

A lo largo de nuestra vida, podemos enfrentar innumerables cruces. Algunas pequeñas, otras grandes. Algunas pesadas, otras ligeras. Algunas temporales, otras duraderas. Como cristianos, estamos llamados a llevar esas cargas, no renegando, sino con alegría. A veces, eso parece imposible. ¿Cómo puedo tener alegría cuando cada momento está lleno de dolor (ya sea físico o emocional)?

La respuesta es que no es posible sin una profunda relación con nuestro Señor, que incluye una entrega constante a su voluntad. En su gran amor por nosotros, a menudo permite que sucedan cosas que no entendemos, pero que son para nuestro bien o para el bien de los demás. Después de todo, la meta de cada uno de nosotros es la salvación eterna, no la comodidad terrenal.

Pero ya sea que suframos rechazo, soledad, enfermedad, dolor, hambre, frío o incluso tortura y muerte, sabemos que Él lo ha experimentado todo y sabe exactamente cómo se siente. Podemos pedirle que nos acompañe en cada paso del camino y que sea nuestra fortaleza cuando el nuestro no es suficiente.

Quizás lleguemos al punto de poder regocijarnos en nuestros sufrimientos como San Pablo, o soportarlos sin quejarnos o acordarnos de ofrecerlos. Pero sobre todo, que nuestras cruces nos recuerden constantemente del poderoso pasaje del Evangelio de hoy: "Porque tanto amó Dios al mundo, que le entregó a su Hijo único, para que todo el que crea en él no perezca, sino que tenga vida eterna" (Juan 3,16).

WHY EVERY CATHOLIC HOME NEEDS A CRUCIFIX

1. A SIGN OF CHRIST'S SACRIFICE
The crucifix reminds us of the greatest act of love in history—Jesus dying on the Cross for our salvation. Each time we look at it, we are drawn back to the heart of our faith: the mystery of the Cross that opened the gates of Heaven.

2. A SOURCE OF PROTECTION
Throughout Church tradition, the crucifix has been a powerful sacramental, bringing blessings and spiritual protection. Evil trembles before the sign of the Cross, and many saints have testified that a crucifix in the home keeps away spiritual harm.

3. A DAILY CALL TO PRAYER
When we see the crucifix in our home, we are reminded to pray, to forgive, and to live with faith. It inspires us to unite our sufferings with Christ's and to live with hope.

5. A MARK OF CATHOLIC IDENTITY
Having a crucifix in the home is a bold declaration of our faith. It tells anyone who enters that this family belongs to Christ and that this home is under His protection and guidance.

A home without a crucifix can feel empty of this sacred sign. By placing one in our living room, bedroom, or prayer corner, we proclaim that Jesus Christ is the center of our lives.

✝ Let the crucifix be the heartbeat of your home, a constant source of strength, love, and peace.
