Faithful Reflections

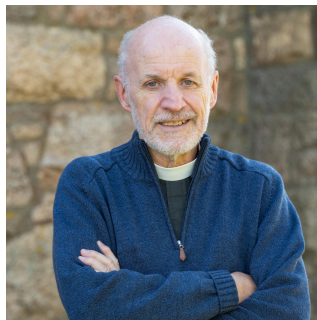

So much for any holiday fantasies about a kinder and gentler 2026. Global mayhem broke out before we could put away the Prince of Peace's manger. Our Sunday Forum will explore St Augustine's take on gratuitous violence in the context of 4th century gladiator games where the crowds roared with delight at human carnage. In words applicable to today, Augustine ruminated on "love of violence, revengeful cruelty, fierce and implacable enmity, wild resistance, and the lust for power." Elsewhere, he distinguishes between people bound by common loves (I hope it includes StB's) and those ruled by a lust for domination. As we breathe the air of a conflicted culture, how do we guard our souls?

One way to guard our souls can be found in deepened communal prayer. With Lent upon the distant horizon, the Rev Perry Perrine will facilitate a centering prayer group that deepens our connection with God and our spiritual intimacy with each other. In the next week, we will announce an organizational meeting to decide on structure, dates and times.

On Sunday, January 25, our annual meeting convenes in the Great Hall with 9:00 breakfast followed by combined worship, elections and table conversations. Note that there will be no worship in the church that day. Candidates for co-wardens are George Liles and Kate Kristenson. Vestry candidates include Karl Loos, Ted Gale and Phoebe Office. Candidates for diocesan convention include Anne Wood and Claudine Kos. Candidates for deanery representatives include Beth Bullock-McGrail and Irene Ledwith. Our table conversations will focus on five strategic priorities for the next chapter of life at St Barnabas's. Please ponder these scenarios as preparation for our meeting. See our draft agenda for the morning.

Next weekend, January 17-18, Rev. Canon Dr. Jean Baptiste Ntagengwa, Canon for Immigration & Multicultural Ministries of the Diocese of Massachusetts, will talk and lead a discussion on the immigration crisis, at an informal gathering on Saturday, January 17, 6-8pm. On Sunday, he will serve as our presider/preacher and Forum leader. If you plan to attend the pizza discussion, please email office@stbfalmouth.org so we can organize food.

SAINT BARNABAS'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH
WEDNESDAY STUDY GROUP

THE CATHOLIC AND PROTESTANT ROOTS OF ANGLICANISM

WEDNESDAYS, JANUARY 7 - MARCH 25
10AM - PARISH HOUSE

The 16th-century Protestant Reformation unleashed creative and destructive forces that changed the character of Europe and indelibly shaped the DNA of American identity. Human and divine agency, conformity and rebellion, the balance of sacraments and scripture in worship, and the role of church in society all were up for grabs. Amid this spiritual cauldron, Anglicanism took shape as a middle way amid warring factions with a positive embrace of human reason and conscience. We will explore the impact of the Reformation on our families of origin, Saint Barnabas's Church, and modern American culture.
