OUR STORY

Born in the Outback. Made to share it.

Our story began with a simple idea:

Why shouldn't world-class spirits come from Outback Queensland?

In 2021, founders Will Fellowes and Michael McLaughlin set out to establish the region's first craft distillery. Western Queensland Spirit was born from a belief that where something is made should matter - that the landscape, climate, ingredients and people of Western Queensland could give our spirits a character of their own.

From our home in Roma, we began creating spirits inspired by native botanicals, local stories and the unique conditions of the Outback.

Over time, our ambition grew. We saw an opportunity not just to make spirits in the Outback, but to build a distinctly Australian spirits house of the Outback. That idea became The Outback Distilling Co.

Today, our distillery is home to two complementary brands: Outback Distilling Co., created to take the spirit of this place to a wider audience, and Western Queensland Spirit, which remains closely connected to our region, our cellar door and where our story began.

One distillery. Two expressions. One unmistakably Outback origin.

Where our story began.

Western Queensland Spirit is our original brand and a celebration of the place we call home.

Born from our ambition to establish Outback Queensland's first craft distillery, WQS continues to explore the flavours, ingredients and stories of our region through distinctive gins, liqueurs and small-batch releases.

Where Outback Distilling Co. looks outward, Western Queensland Spirit stays proudly local - closely connected to our cellar door, our community and life in Western Queensland.

THE OUTBACK DISTILLING CO

How we take our spirit to the world - distilling the 'unseen Outback spirit'.

The Outback is rugged and expansive, but look closer and you'll find unexpected beauty, shifting colour and quiet detail.

The Outback Distilling Co. was created to capture both sides of this place - the bold and the refined.

Made with precision and intention, our spirits draw inspiration from the landscape, botanicals and extraordinary climate surrounding our Roma distillery.

A premium Australian spirits brand born in Western Queensland, created to share an authentic expression of the Outback with drinkers near and far.
