Monster Masters, Dan Parsons & Michael Gordon, delivers their stark grey tone creature feature - Safia Mummy - in a single bloody brand new colored glorious issue!

The story originally serialized in American Mythology Monsters is told the way it was meant to be read, in a single horrifying sitting. Beautiful Egyptologist, Safiya Mahmoud discovers much more than even she bargained for when she and her fellow archeologists uncover a long forgotten sarcophagus buried deep in the heart of the desert. After extensive study and examination at Safiya's ultra-modern Cairo research facility, the truth begins to reveal itself about what they have found. What lies in the State-of-the-Art examination chamber is no ordinary mummified corpse, but "Mernheptan: The Plague Giver," the most evil, reviled pharaoh in Egyptian History. Despite the concerns of her friends and colleagues, Safiya's obsession with the ancient cadaver intensifies. She works day and night in the laboratory, never leaving the mummy's side until the strange supernatural attraction totally consumes her, with unimaginable and terrifying consequences!

Reggie ain't no superhero, he's just a guy dealt a bad hand by fate, and instead of folding, he comes out swinging. Armed with grit, scars, and a lifetime of bad decisions, Reggie works as a Hell-Tracer, hunting down renegade demons that have slipped through society's cracks. It's loud. It's brutal, and funny in a way only true horror fans will understand. Mixing the best of grindhouse and midnight movies, you won't find any monsters who sparkle here. Best of all, a portion of the proceeds of the book will go directly to supporting Reggie's current health care costs, so you're not only getting a kick ass story, but you're giving back to a horror industry icon.

Go to Hell – just don't get caught!

Recess Pieces: Reanimated

Bob Fingerman (w)(a)

Hardcover

$25.00

104 pages

8 x 10 1/2

"A fun romp through a gory grade school, where going through puberty is equated with becoming a zombie — an experience not dissimilar from my actual life!" — James Gunn

The kids of Ben Turpin K-8 have a problem: they're locked in a building where everyone from puberty on up has transformed into flesh-eating ghouls! Can they escape before they're today's lunch special?

Bob Fingerman's Recess Pieces originally was released in 2006. But Recess Pieces Reanimated, while built on that foundation, has been so heavily reworked it's practically a new book. The script: reworked. The ending: completely different. Bob has a habit of revising his older works whenever they get a new edition, but this isn't merely a retouching; it is a gut renovation. In Bob's patented OCD style, he has reworked, revised, rewritten, redrawn and "reanimated" this graphic novel. 26 all-new pages, a new finale, and about 40 pages reworked extensively.

It is because of this effort—the "Reanimated" edition was over two years in the making—that we at Cosmic Lion Productions feel this is a special occasion. Not to mention, it's pretty much a 20th Anniversary release (the first version having been created in 2005).

WRITTEN BY: JOSHUA ROSS

ART BY: JOSHUA ROSS

LETTERING BY: JOSHUA ROSS

This 365-page graphic novel is an engaging and heartfelt slice-of-life story about David, a 25-year-old aspiring comic book artist in the early 2000s who, thinking all the pieces of his life are coming together, is forced to consider how much he's willing to sacrifice - and change - in the hopes of making his dreams become a reality.

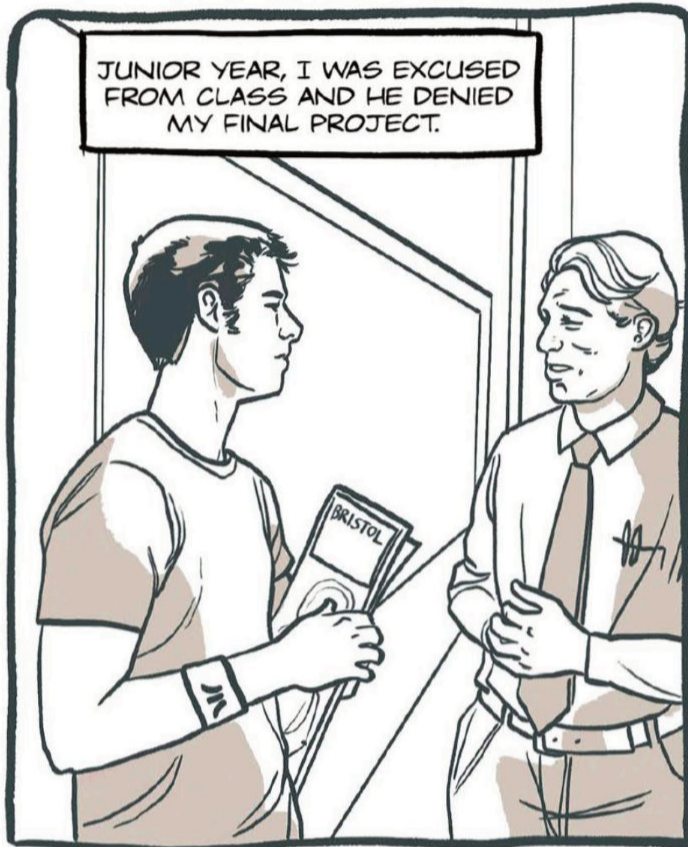

It's a story intended to inspire and entertain anyone interested in pursuing their dreams and creative endeavors, even in the face of adversity, with roadblocks both personal and professional. Left Turns is an emotionally engaging and visually stunning story about the experiences of love and loss, of heartache and random chance encounters, and the sacrifices that run parallel with the artistic desire to see and create a way to capture moments indefinitely.

From 1940–1950, printer Everett M. "Busy" Arnold reprinted Spirit stories under his Quality Comics banner, first individually from 1940–1947 as one of the features in 92 issues of Police Comics and from 1944–1950 as 22 issues of The Spirit. The Spirit is a fictional masked crime fighter created by cartoonist Will Eisner, who fights crime with the blessing of the city's police commissioner Dolan, an old friend. Despite the Spirit's origin as detective/criminologist Denny Colt, his real identity was rarely referred to after his first appearance, and for all intents and purposes he was simply "The Spirit". The stories are presented in a wide variety of styles, from straight forward crime drama and noir to lighthearted adventure, from mystery and horror to comedy and love stories, often with hybrid elements that twisted genre and reader expectations. Comic book stories from the 1940s and 1950s may depict some ethnic and racial prejudices that were once common place in American culture. Such depictions were wrong then and are wrong today. While not representing the publisher's view of today's society, these stories are printed as they were originally created, because to do otherwise would be the same as claiming these prejudices never existed.

GOLDEN AGE CLASSICS THE SPIRIT HC VOLUME 4 Quality Comics was an American comic book publishing company that operated from 1937 to 1956 and was largely influential in creating the 'Golden Age' of comic books. From 1940–1950, printer Everett M. "Busy" Arnold reprinted Spirit stories under his Quality Comics banner, first individually from 1940–1947 as one of the features in 92 issues of Police Comics and from 1944–1950 as 22 issues of The Spirit. The Spirit is a fictional masked crime fighter created by cartoonist Will Eisner, who fights crime with the blessing of the city's police commissioner Dolan, an old friend. Despite the Spirit's origin as detective/criminologist Denny Colt, his real identity was rarely referred to after his first appearance, and for all intents and purposes he was simply "The Spirit". The stories are presented in a wide variety of styles, from straight forward crime drama and noir to lighthearted adventure, from mystery and horror to comedy and love stories, often with hybrid elements that twisted genre and reader expectations. Comic book stories from the 1940s and 1950s may depict some ethnic and racial prejudices that were once common place in American culture. Such depictions were wrong then and are wrong today. While not representing the publisher's view of today's society, these stories are printed as they were originally created, because to do otherwise would be the same as claiming these prejudices never existed.

PRE CODE CLASSICS WHITE PRINCESS OF THE JUNGLE HC SLIPCASE EDITION VOL 1

Simmons and his wife came to Kraal of the Tauruti tribe in Africa, with a baby girl, they called Taanda – whose hair was as red as the sunset. They lived with the Tauruti tribe for a long time, until exploring a ruined temple, they were attacked and killed by a tribe called the Jhibuti – whose chief Upatani took the girl Taanda and raised her as his own! She grew up protecting the people and animals from poachers, monsters and witch doctors using her powers and abilities – she was as fast as any beast and as strong as a man. And could swing through the tree like a monkey and often rode a zebra over long distances. She was skilled with a bow, spear and knife.

Robert Britton, known to friend and foe alike as "Battler", is a RAF Wing Commander assigned to work alongside an American fight squadron, but the US pilots are not at all keen on submitting to British command, and when orders arrive to begin operations from a new base deep behind enemy lines – directly under the Germans' noses – Battler is not at all sure the two units can cooperate successfully. When allies fail to fight as one, only their opponents win – and the Nazi fighters, forever hovering in the blazing desert sun, are quick to scent an opportunity. The Treasury of British Comics presents one of British comics' most fondly remembered characters in a brand new adventure, as deadly dogfights erupt mere feet above the earth, bullets rip through fuel tanks and airframes, and men's destinies are decided in the blink of an eye: Battler Britton flies again.

Spider-Ham: A Pig in Time

TP

The Spectacular Spider-Ham is back and just in TIME to save the past, present, and future in this original graphic novel for younger readers! It's just a normal day in the life of Peter Porker, your friendly neighborhood Spider-Ham! Keeping New York City safe from dastardly villains is no easy feat, especially when the Green Gobbler from the year 2099 travels back in time to team up with his present-day counterpart. Talk about a pair of rotten eggs! What's worse, Spider-Ham gets flung into the future, making it impossible to stop the duo's evil plot. He'll have to team up with heroes from all across time if he wants to make it back and save the day. But what is New York City to do without its greatest defender? Luckily for everyone, Mary Jane Waterbuffalo and Black Catfish are here to pick up the slack while Peter Porker is messing around in the time stream. Can the two hold out long enough for Spider-Ham to return, or will the Green Gobbler finally claim his spot at the top of the roost?

Spider-Ham: Hollywood May-Ham TP

Peter Porker, the Spectacular Spider-Ham hits the PIG time... in Hollywood!

Legendary director Alfred Peacock has acquired the rights to bring Spider-Ham's spectacular story to the silver screen. There's only one, it'sy-bitsy problem: Spider-Ham didn't sell those rights, and Peacock is getting the origin all wrong—making our hero out to be a monstrous menace! Once he catches wind of the perilous production, Peter Porker uses his Daily Beagle connections to secure on-set credentials, where he not so subtly tries to improve the film's depiction of his alter ego and fix all the “continuity errors” in the movie.

Behind the scenes, Porker soon discovers that some very shady characters are bankrolling the entire operation, in a bid to convince the residents of New York City that their porcine protector is a threat who must be eliminated. Now, Spider-Ham must face down an army of ninja production assistants and some truly shoddy CGI to prevent this box-office bomb from blowing up his reputation! Will everyone's favorite pig clear his name? Or is this porky protector headed for the cutting room floor?

Yeah that's right, you read it properly. Kristen Kreuk of Smallville and Murder in a Small Town fame is writing a comic. And even better, Black Star is an absolutely gorgeous gothic noir horror with stunning art by Joe Bocardo. We also celebrate 5 years of Gun Honey with an OVERSIZED special of the original issue that started it all with some bonus extras that match Joanna Tan's exploits. There's some top secret Doctor Who stuff going on. So top secret we can just tell you it's happening and not much else. To cap it all off, Solomon Kane's back with a brand new series.

Alongside all of this, we've got the series finales of Dead By Daylight: The Hillbilly and Diablo: Dawn of Hatred, plus the latest Blade Runner: Tokyo Nexus.

Titan are always keen to work on exclusive store covers, so please get in touch if you are interested. I can be contacted at: bryce.walker@titanemail.com

“Black Star was born while Peter, Eric, and I were filming Burden of Truth in Winnipeg. We were inspired by the city’s lore and, because we worked so well together, began spending our spare time on set (and then, for years afterwards) developing our own take on the history and magic we imagined pulsing beneath its surface, shaping the rhythms of the city and the battles raging just beyond our view.” Kristin Kreuk

AH!

GUN HONEY CREATOR CHARLES ARDAI ON GUN HONEY'S 5TH ANNIVERSARY!

Titan's Direct Market Coordinator Bryce Walker spoke to Charles Arđai about the milestone anniversary.

BW: CHARLES, IT'S BEEN 5 YEARS SINCE JOANNA TAN FIRST BURST ONTO THE SCENE. HOW DO YOU FEEL LOOKING BACK ON EVERYTHING THAT'S HAPPENED IN THE GUN HONEY UNIVERSE ACROSS THOSE 5 YEARS?

Charles: It's been amazing. We've done 7 series in 5 years (including the HEAT SEEKER spinoff books); Joanna has infiltrated the Kremlin, foiled an assassination attempt at the Paris Olympics, fought alongside topless warriors at a monastery in the Gobi Desert, impersonated a showgirl at a Monaco theatre, survived gunfights and explosions and leaps from helicopters onto moving RVs – all the adventures I ever imagined as a kid watching James Bond movies, I've gotten to bring to life in the pages of these comics. And fans have been incredibly supportive.

BW: THIS OVERSIZED SPECIAL FEATURES A SUPER-SIZED COVER GALLERY, AND THE COVERS ARE SUCH AN INTEGRAL PART OF GUN HONEY. HOW DOES IT FEEL TO HAVE SO MANY INCREDIBLE ARTISTS WORKING ON COVERS FOR YOUR TITLE?

Charles: If you'd told me that Adam Hughes and Bill Sienkiewicz and Artgerm and even the late, great Robert McGinnis (who painted the original James Bond movie posters in the 1960s!) would eventually illustrate the adventures of a heroine I created, I'd have said you were mad. And yet it has happened, and I'm deeply grateful. And there are so many other artists, seasoned veterans and blazing new talent and gorgeous cosplay models. I feel insanely fortunate to have the stories I dream up brought to life by them.

BW: WHERE DO YOU THINK THE GUN HONEY UNIVERSE WILL BE IN 5 YEARS? JOANNA OF COURSE IS FAR TOO YOUNG TO RETIRE BUT WHERE DO YOU HOPE HER EXPLOITS WILL TAKE HER?

Charles: There are lots of places she hasn't been yet – I was just talking with the artist who draws the series, Ang Hor Kheng, about what locales he'd enjoy drawing, and we thought of Germany and Hungary – the Danube River! – and volcanoes and pyramids; we haven't been to Bali or Bangladesh or Belize, Cyprus or Cameroon, Poland or Peru. And that's barely halfway through the alphabet! As long as there's a globe to trot, you can bet Joanna will be carrying out her criminal exploits all across it, for many years to come.
