ADDENDUM 2 - The following questions were proposed by a bidder and the responses are below:

1. Before we invest time assembling a response, could you confirm whether a proposer may serve as the prime/coordinating vendor while using disclosed qualified independent specialists or subcontractors for portions of the scope (for example graphic design, copywriting, photography/video, or campaign production), provided the prime remains fully responsible for performance and all RFP requirements?

Yes, As stated in the RFP, proposers may use subcontractors or independent specialists for portions of the scope. Proposers must identify proposed subcontractors and their roles, and the prime Contractor remains fully responsible for subcontractor performance and compliance with applicable RFP requirements. Please refer to Sections 6 and 9.4 of the RFP for additional details.
