Parish Mission Statement

In fidelity to Jesus Christ, in 1858 Irish and German immigrants founded St. Patrick Parish—the Mother Parish of South Bend—and in 1877 Polish immigrants founded St. Hedwig Parish—the Mother Parish of the Polish Community of South Bend. Saint Patrick Parish and Saint Hedwig Parish combined as one parish with two historic churches on August 22, 2024. The Parish sets to the western edge of Downtown South Bend in the West Washington National Historic District. As a faith community, we seek to bring the gifts of these two traditions together as one in the Roman Catholic Rite—to proclaim the Gospel and to celebrate the Eucharist in order to strengthen our resolve and to seek to live the Gospel message and so enrich our lives and the lives of others, our neighborhood, and our workplaces.

From the Desk of Fr. Reginald Wolford, OP

Dear friends,

As you know, the Baptism of the Lord marks our transition into the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. After contemplating the great mysteries of Christmas and Epiphany, it is time to follow Jesus as He begins His public ministry - as he gathers His disciples, preaches, and heals - little by little revealing more about His identity and mission. "Follow me" as He says to those Galilean fishermen, can be considered the theme of Ordinary Time. We seek to follow Him and listen to Him, realizing that His presence is not limited to ancient history, but that He can be active in our lives today if we pay attention to Him.

I would like to share a method of prayer that helps me pay attention to the Lord's activity in my life. It is called the Ignatian Examen because it was taught by St. Ignatius of Loyola, though the roots of it go all the way back to the Gospels. You can find different versions of it but the main elements are as follows:

An introductory prayer to place yourself in the presence of God. I say a Creed, Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be.

A review of the previous day. I briefly go through the previous day, hour by hour, remembering what I was doing and asking the Lord to show me how He was present in those moments.

Repentance. I beg His mercy for all the ways I have failed, making an act of humility and resolving to correct my faults.

Intercessions. I see where my mind goes, praying over whatever may be troubling me and asking for insight, and praying for others.

Preview of the coming day. I think about the things that I have to do that day, whether big or small, nice or annoying, asking the Lord to be with me through it all and that His will may be done.

Conclusion. I finish with a few more Hail Mary's.

I spend about fifteen minutes of my daily Holy Hour making this Examen. It is an attempt to remember that Jesus's activity does not stop with what we read in the Gospels, but that, through His Spirit, He wants to continue to be active in our lives today. As we enter into Ordinary Time and a new year, let us listen to Him and follow wherever He leads us.

God bless you,

Fr. Reginald OP
