Parish Mission Statement

In fidelity to Jesus Christ, in 1858 Irish and German immigrants founded St. Patrick Parish—the Mother Parish of South Bend—and in 1877 Polish immigrants founded St. Hedwig Parish—the Mother Parish of the Polish Community of South Bend. Saint Patrick Parish and Saint Hedwig Parish combined as one parish with two historic churches on August 22, 2024. The Parish sets to the western edge of Downtown South Bend in the West Washington National Historic District. As a faith community, we seek to bring the gifts of these two traditions together as one in the Roman Catholic Rite—to proclaim the Gospel and to celebrate the Eucharist in order to strengthen our resolve and to seek to live the Gospel message and so enrich our lives and the lives of others, our neighborhood, and our workplaces.

"Non nisi te, Domine!"

Dear friends,

As you read this, this past Wednesday (January 28th) was the feast day of St. Thomas Aquinas, the great Dominican priest, professor, and theologian. We are blessed to have a beautiful painting of St. Thomas in the sanctuary of St. Patrick church with two prominent attributes (i.e. visual aids that help us recognize who the saint is). First, there is the sun on his chest to show that he illuminated the Church with his teaching. Second, he is holding a book, which must be his Summa Theologiae - his 3000 page summary(!) of theology, incorporating all known learning of his day into one great system. St. Thomas's Summa remains one of the most important works in the history of Christianity.

For all his intellectuality, St. Thomas did not just live a simple, undisturbed life as an academic. He had to overcome the opposition of his family in joining this up-start Order of Preachers; he had to face the opposition of rival academics; and he traveled around Europe on foot, advising popes, kings, and Church councils.

Among the many extraordinary things that happened in this holy man's life, one story stands out: after Thomas had spent long hours writing his deep theology of the Eucharist, he was praying before the crucifix. Our Lord appeared to him and said, "You have written well of me Thomas. What reward would you have?" Thomas's reply shows what his life of learning and teaching and writing was all about. He said, "Non nisi te, Domine! - Nothing but you, Lord!"

First Friday Devotion

The Great Promise Our Lord made regarding the Nine First Fridays and what we must do to earn it:

"On Friday during Holy Communion, He said these words to His unworthy slave, if I mistake not: 'I promise you in the excessive mercy of My Heart that Its all-powerful love will grant to all those who receive Holy Communion on nine first Fridays of consecutive months the grace of final repentance; they will not die under My displeasure or without receiving their sacraments, My divine Heart making Itself their assured refuge at the last moment.'"

First Friday Requirements: To meet the requirements for the First Friday Devotion a person must, on each First Friday for nine consecutive months:

1. Attend Holy Mass
2. Receive Communion
3. Go to Confession*
