Parish Mission Statement

In fidelity to Jesus Christ, in 1858 Irish and German immigrants founded St. Patrick Parish—the Mother Parish of South Bend—and in 1877 Polish immigrants founded St. Hedwig Parish—the Mother Parish of the Polish Community of South Bend. Saint Patrick Parish and Saint Hedwig Parish combined as one parish with two historic churches on August 22, 2024. The Parish sets to the western edge of Downtown South Bend in the West Washington National Historic District. As a faith community, we seek to bring the gifts of these two traditions together as one in the Roman Catholic Rite—to proclaim the Gospel and to celebrate the Eucharist in order to strengthen our resolve and to seek to live the Gospel message and so enrich our lives and the lives of others, our neighborhood, and our workplaces.

From the Desk of Fr. Reginald Wolford, OP

Dear Friends,

You may know that Fr. Aquinas, who has been in South Bend for a few years, has completed his time at Notre Dame and moved on. We will miss him, but we are also happy to welcome Fr. Jordan DeGuire to our community. A few words of introduction:

Fr. Jordan DeGuire, O.P., is a Dominican friar of the Province of St. Albert the Great, preparing to begin his first year as a Ph.D. student in the Notre Dame Department of Theology, with a concentration in Liturgical Studies. Fr. Jordan grew up in Brookfield, WI, a suburb of Milwaukee, and is the oldest of five children. He attended the University of Wisconsin-Madison, where he majored in mathematics and economics, with the goal of working for a Major League Baseball team. God had other plans, though, and it was during college that Fr. Jordan met the Order of Preachers. He taught high school math for a year before entering the Dominican novitiate in 2016. He professed first vows in 2017 and solemn vows in 2021, and he was ordained a priest in 2023. Before moving to South Bend, Fr. Jordan served as a chaplain at Aquinas College in Grand Rapids, MI. He enjoys baking, reading, pick-up sports (especially ultimate frisbee), and being outside.

God bless you,

Fr. Reginald OP
