From the Desk of Fr. Reginald Wolford, OP

Dear friends,

I want to thank you for the warm welcome that I have already received as your pastor. Providentially, the daily mass readings this week give us some fitting food for reflection as St. Paul writes of his affection for the Thessalonians: "We were determined to share with you not only the Gospel of God, but our very selves as well." I have already gotten a sense of the great history here at St. Patrick St. Hedwig, and I look forward to getting to know you and sharing life and faith with you in the coming years. You may know that this is my first time being a pastor, so I count on your prayers and patience as we move forward in faith together, seeking to live out our faith, and to bring Jesus to our neighbors here in South Bend. Our new community of Dominican friars are excited to be here, and to see what the Lord will do in this parish, and we promise you our daily prayers.

God bless you all,

Fr. Reginald Wolford, OP

Catholic in Recovery

As we honor the dignity of work this Labor Day, we also reflect on the labor of recovery. Jesus says, "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest" (Mt 11:28). In recovery, we find true rest, not by escaping struggle, but by surrendering it to Christ. Catholic in Recovery offers hope and fellowship to those: • In recovery • Affected by addiction •

Seeking spiritual healing
