From the Desk of Fr. Reginald Wolford, OP

Dear friends, Dear friends,

As I begin to settle in as your pastor, I have read through much of a little book of the parish history of St. Patrick's that was produced in 2008. In it we are given a stirring account of the building of the original church. Just imagine what it was like for those German and Irish immigrants, who after a long day working on the railroad, by the light of lanterns held by their children, worked far into the night to dig the foundation of the church. What a labor of love! These people who faced poverty, hard work, and anti-Catholic as well as anti-immigrant discrimination, found the desire and the energy to glorify God by building him a place to dwell with his people. What a fitting expression of how our belief in the Incarnation of our Lord can inspire us to do beautiful things in the world! As we continue in this new chapter in the life of St. Patrick St. Hedwig parish, let us remember those pioneers, and strive to work for the Lord's glory with that same dedication.

God bless you all,

Fr. Reginald, OP

Announcement from the Diocese

Courage:

Courage members are men and women who experience same-sex attractions (SSA) and who have made a commitment to strive for chastity and holiness. Through our apostolate, people who experience SSA receive pastoral support in the form of spiritual guidance, community prayer, support and fellowship. For more information go to diocesefwsb.org/courage or Contact Deacon Andy Oross at deaconandy@sbctk.com

Encourage

Encourage members are parents, spouses, siblings and friends of people who identify as LGBTQ. They are looking for help to keep the faith and keep their family bonds intact. Encourage members work together to understand the experiences of their loved ones, and to respond to them with compassion. They know that it is possible to express love for someone even if we can not support all of their choices or actions. They find spiritual guidance to grow in their relationship with Christ, and community support from other members that helps them remember that they are not alone on this journey. For more information go to Diocesefwsb.org/courage or to join, contact Deacon Andy Oross at deaconandy@sbctk.com

Remember these following people in your daily prayers. We will offer Mass and pray for them.
