SUNDAY REFLECTION

To be able to follow him, Jesus asks his disciples for total dedication. As an example, he tells us that to be worthy, we must love him more than we love our parents or children. If we see someone in our family straying from the faith, we try to help them return through our prayers, example, and encouragement. Jesus then gives examples of three kinds of disciples. First come the prophets. These are people who have lived the faith and can teach others the wisdom they have learned. Second come the righteous, those who teach us by their example of a quiet life. Many good parents practice this kind of discipleship. Children may not listen to their parents' advice, but they still grow up with memories of how they lived. Finally come the "little ones." These people, like children, follow Jesus with great joy and love. They may be elderly or disabled. When we respect and value them, we can see Jesus in them. And every time we can experience Jesus through another person, it is a wonderful reward for a disciple.

*Happy 3rd
 Anniversary

 St. Henry!*

REFLEXION DEL DOMINGO

Para poder seguirlo Jesús pide a sus discípulos una dedicación total. Como ejemplo, nos dice que para ser dignos debemos amarlo más de lo que amamos a nuestros padres o hijos. Si vemos a alguien en nuestra familia desviarse de la fe, intentamos ayudarlo a regresar a través de nuestras oraciones, ejemplo y aliento. Jesús luego da ejemplos de tres clases de discípulos. Primero vienen los profetas. Son las personas que han vivido la fe y pueden enseñar a otros la sabiduría que han aprendido. Segundo vienen los justos, los que nos enseñan con su ejemplo de una vida tranquila. Muchos padres buenos practican este tipo de discipulado. Es posible que los niños no escuchen los consejos de sus padres, pero aun así crecen con recuerdos de cómo vivieron. Por último vienen los “pequeños”. Estas personas, como niños, siguen a Jesús con gran alegría y amor. Pueden ser ancianos o discapacitados. Cuando los respetamos y valoramos, podemos ver a Jesús en ellos. Y cada vez que podemos experimentar a Jesús a través de otra persona es una maravillosa recompensa para un discípulo.
