PARISH / COMMUNITY NEWSSUNDAY REFLECTION

Jesus' parable is a little different from the one in the first reading. Isaiah has the vineyard under good and faithful care, but still it produces wild grapes. In the Gospel, the vineyard presumably had a good harvest, but the workers refuse to give any of the grapes to the landowner. Where do I fit in? Do I ignore all that God does to help me be a good disciple? Am I too busy to take time to pray or read the Bible? Do I hold onto grudges instead of forgiving and releasing them? Do I decline the invitations to go on a retreat? If any of these are true, I might be like the vineyard in the first reading, producing no fruit despite all the opportunities God has given me. Or we may be the other side of the coin. We had our children baptized when they were babies. We gave them as good an example as we could, teaching them to love others and be generous with what they have. Yet they grew up and drifted away from the faith. Then we have to remember how patient God is with us, God's people who don't always produce the fruits of faith. The tenants in the parable refer to those who would have Jesus crucified. God is patient with them. Look what happened to Saul, who persecuted many Christians before he became one himself. In our second reading he tells us to follow his example as he follows Christ. Then, he says, the peace of God will be with us, too (Philippians 4:6-9).

One Journey. Together.

REAL CONVERSATIONS. REAL CONNECTIONS.

The Light From Jesus
Parents were invited to receive two candles — one for themselves and one for their teenager. A reminder of their child's Baptism and that Christ is still here. No matter the questions, the doubts, or the hard days...
We're still walking. Keep asking. Keep seeking. Keep knocking.

Real People. Real Conversations.
Parents and teens laughed, talked, reflected, prayed, and stepped outside their comfort zones together. There were good moments, hard questions, and honest conversations about faith, family, and life. Different perspectives. Different lives.
But tonight... one journey.

Amazing Music
Our music team filled our church with songs of praise and worship, creating a beautiful and prayerful atmosphere that helped everyone open their hearts.

Sister Mary
Our Parent Spiritual Guide, Sister Mary, brought exactly what our parents needed — sincerity, encouragement, prayer, and a reminder that they are not walking this journey alone.

If you have a teen or you as an adult would like to join the journey, text:
