STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose.” - ROMANS 8:28

Do you really trust God? Do you really believe that God will provide all that you need? Faith is a challenge for everyone at times. Putting our trust in God, in everything we do, in good times and in bad, means that God's plan for our lives may be quite different than what we planned. When one door closes, another one opens. Trust in God, His plan is always better.

REFLEXION DE MAYORDOMIADomingo 17^o del Tiempo Ordinario

“Y sabemos que para los que aman a Dios, todas las cosas cooperan para bien, esto es, para los que son llamados conforme a su propósito.” - Romanos 8:28

¿Realmente confías en Dios? ¿Crees realmente que Dios te proveerá con todo lo que necesitas? A veces la fe es un reto para cada uno de nosotros. Poner nuestra confianza en Dios, en todo lo que hacemos, en los buenos y malos momentos, significa que el plan de Dios para nuestras vidas puede ser muy diferente de lo que hemos planificado. Cuando una puerta se cierra, otra se abre. Confía en Dios, su plan es siempre mejor.

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

What is your new life in Christ worth to you?

Do you love His words more than gold and silver, as we sing in today's Psalm? Would you, like the characters in the Gospel today, sell all that you have in order to possess the kingdom He promises to us? If God were to grant any wish, would you follow Solomon's example in today's First Reading—asking not for a long life or riches but for wisdom to know God's ways and to desire His will?

The background for today's Gospel, as it has been for the past several weeks, is the rejection of Jesus' preaching by Israel. The kingdom of heaven has come into their midst; yet, many cannot see that Jesus is the fulfillment of God's promises, a gift of divine compassion given so that they—and we—might live.

We, too, must ever discover the kingdom anew. We are called to find it as a treasure, a pearl of great price. By comparison with the kingdom, we must count all else as rubbish (see Philippians 3:8). And we must be willing to give up all that we have—all our priorities and plans—in order to gain it.

Jesus' Gospel discloses what Paul in today's Epistle calls the purpose of God's plan (see Ephesians 1:4): for Jesus be the firstborn of many brothers.

His words give understanding to the simple, the childlike. As Solomon does today, we must humble ourselves before God, giving ourselves to His service. Let our prayer be for an understanding heart, one that desires only to do His will.

We are called to love God, to delight in His law, and to forsake every false way. And we are to conform ourselves daily ever more closely to the image of His Son.

If we do this, we can approach His altar as a pleasing sacrifice, confident that all things work for the good—that we whom He has justified will also be glorified.

Decimoséptimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

¿Cuánto vale para ti tu nueva vida en Cristo?

¿Amas sus palabras más que el oro y la plata, como cantamos en el salmo de esta semana? ¿Venderías todo lo que tienes para poseer el reino que Él promete, como los personajes del Evangelio de este domingo?

¿Si Dios te concediera cualquier deseo, seguirías el ejemplo de Salomón en la primera lectura, quien no pidió una larga vida o riquezas, sino sabiduría para conocer los caminos de Dios y desear su voluntad?

El trasfondo del Evangelio de este domingo, como lo ha sido las semanas anteriores, es el rechazo de Israel a la predicación de Jesús. El reino del cielo ha llegado en medio de ellos. Sin embargo, muchos no pueden ver que Jesús es el cumplimiento de la promesa de Dios; que es un regalo de la compasión divina, dado para que ellos—y nosotros también—puedan vivir.

También nosotros debemos descubrir el reino nuevamente, para encontrarlo como un tesoro, como perla de gran valor. En comparación con el reino, necesitamos considerar basura todo lo demás (cf. Flp 3,8).

Y debemos estar dispuestos a dejar todo lo que tenemos—todas nuestras prioridades y planes—a fin de ganarlo. El Evangelio de Jesús revela lo que San Pablo, en la epístola de esta semana, llama el designio de Dios (cf. Ef 1,4). Ese designio es que Jesús sea el primogénito de muchos hermanos.

Sus palabras dan entendimiento a los sencillos, a los que son como niños. Como Salomón en la lectura de esta semana, debemos humillarnos ante Dios, entregándonos a su servicio. Pidamos en nuestra oración un corazón sabio, que desee solamente hacer su voluntad.

Estamos llamados a amar a Dios, a deleitarnos en su Ley y a abandonar todo camino falso. Y debemos conformarnos cada vez más a la imagen de Su Hijo.

Si hacemos esto, podemos acercarnos a Su altar como sacrificio agradable, confiados en que todo contribuye para bien; seguros de que los que hemos sido justificados por Él, seremos también glorificados un día.

Creating a Last Will and Testament is an important legal step that allows you to have control over how your assets and property will be distributed after your passing. It also allows you to make your wishes known about the management of your property and disposition of your remains. It's important to work with a qualified attorney who can guide you through the process of creating a legal document that reflects your wishes. At Caritas Legal Services, we specialize in helping individuals prepare Wills and other estate planning documents, such as Financial or Medical Powers of Attorney. Our team of attorneys is dedicated to providing you with the guidance and support you need to navigate this complex process with ease.

Attend our next Ask A Lawyer event to talk to our Caritas attorneys about your Will and Testament. Saturday, July 29, 2023, 9:00 AM - 12:00 PM, Church of the Good Shepherd 1065 E Live Oak Rd Schertz, Texas 78154.

CHOOSING A CATHOLIC SCHOOL MEANS YOUR CHILD WILL EXPERIENCE...

An education rooted in Catholic teachings and traditions.

A rigorous academic curriculum that nurtures college and career readiness.

A supportive, engaging, and welcoming community.

ACADEMIC VISION

Focused on our goals of college and heaven, our Catholic schools are committed to providing a rigorous academic curriculum that nurtures college and career readiness, prepares students for 21st-century challenges, and forms our students spiritually and socially. Standards are based on the TEKS (Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills) standards and integrate Catholic values and teachings across all subject areas. The Catholic schools in the Archdiocese of San Antonio exercise autonomy in discerning and selecting a course curriculum that best meets the needs of the school.

We are called to continue protecting life by our prayer, action, and service to vulnerable mothers and children.

There are many ways to respond to the call to uphold life and protect human dignity through parish ministry and service organizations in the Archdiocese of San Antonio.

Walking with Moms in Need aims to empower all our parishes and parishioners so they can recommend places and useful resources whenever they encounter a pregnant or parenting mother or father in need of help.

The Gabriel Project is a faith-based outreach program that repeats the same message of hope— be not afraid—to pregnant women in need today. The Gabriel Project is available in San Antonio and in New Braunfels.

Catholic Charities offers assistance and support to those who are pregnant or parenting and in need of help in a variety of capacities.

Care Referral is a webpage with referrals to support services and organizations for women experiencing unplanned pregnancies, those looking for reproductive health resources, post-abortion counseling, and further information regarding health decisions and care.
