STEWARSHIP REFLECTION23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel..." - EZEKIEL 33:7

Many of us are generous with our gifts. However, many of us are not generous in proportion to the gifts we have been given. How often do we give at the minimum level required? Remember, the Lord calls us to nurture and develop our gifts and to give back with increase. He calls us to be generous with all the gifts, especially the one that means the most to us.

Domingo 23º del Tiempo Ordinario

"Pues a ti, hijo del hombre, yo te he puesto como centinela del pueblo de Israel. Tú deberás recibir mis mensajes y comunicarles mis advertencias..." - Ezequiel 33:7

Muchos de nosotros somos generosos con nuestros dones. Sin embargo, muchos de nosotros no somos generosos en proporción a los dones que hemos recibido. ¿Qué tan a menudo damos el mínimo nivel requerido? Recuerda, el Señor nos llama a cuidar y desarrollar nuestros dones y a devolverlos con ganancia. Él nos llama a ser generosos con todos los dones que hemos recibido, especialmente con el que es más importante para nosotros.

"For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

police. We see television stories of children starving in poor countries and say, "Not my problem." The readings for this Sunday challenge this attitude.

In the Gospel, Jesus' words teach us something about our duty to the sinner. First, he tells us that sin is our problem, and when we see it we need to take the initiative to stop it. Second, he tells us we need not feel alone in this duty. When the sinner refuses to listen, we bring in help. In fact, this command is meant for the whole church. Third, he tells us to be persistent; don't give up on someone too easily.

So what about that line about treating the sinner who refuses to listen as a Gentile or tax collector? On the one hand, the sinner would be excluded from the church, excommunicated, if he doesn't repent. On the other hand, Jesus never rejected tax collectors (like Matthew himself, who wrote this Gospel) or Gentiles. He said he came to call sinners, to save them. He loves sinners. And that is the reason we are to confront them—not to punish them, but to love them. For God never forces a person to repent. God invites with love, especially the love Jesus showed by dying on the cross. May we all learn to fight evil with love!

Vigésimo Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario No es mi problema

¿Alguna vez has notado cómo a la gente de hoy le gusta ignorar el mal en el mundo? La gente puede presenciar un asalto y ni toma el tiempo de llamar a la policía. Vemos historias en la televisión de niños que se mueren de hambre en países pobres y decimos: "No es mi problema". Las lecturas de este domingo hablan en contra de esta actitud.

En el Evangelio, las palabras de Jesús nos enseñan algo sobre nuestro deber hacia el pecador. Primero, nos dice que el pecado es nuestro problema, y cuando lo vemos debemos tomar la iniciativa de pararlo. Segundo, nos dice que no debemos sentirnos solos en este deber. Cuando el pecador no quiere hacer caso, traemos a otras personas que nos ayuden. De hecho, este mandato es para toda la Iglesia. Tercero, nos dice que seamos persistentes; no te rindas con alguien tan fácilmente.

Entonces, ¿qué significa esa línea sobre tratar al pecador que no quiere hacer caso como un gentil o un recaudador de impuestos? Por un lado, el pecador sería excluido de la Iglesia, excomulgado, si no se arrepiente. Por otro lado, Jesús nunca rechazó a los recaudadores de impuestos (como el mismo Mateo quien escribió este Evangelio) ni a los gentiles. Dijo que vino a llamar a los pecadores, a salvarlos. Ama a los pecadores. Y por eso debemos enfrentarlos, no para castigarlos, sino para amarlos. Porque Dios nunca obliga a una persona a arrepentirse. Dios invita con amor, especialmente el amor que mostró Jesús al morir en la cruz. ¡Que todos aprendamos a combatir el mal con el amor!
