STEWARSHIP REFLECTION22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time*"What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" - MATTHEW 16:26

St. Francis of Assisi said, "Remember, you are what you are in the eyes of God, and nothing else." We often forget this stewardship wisdom when we spend all of our time, talent and treasure to gain more of the world's riches. We need to set our priorities based on God's values and not the values of the material world.

REFLEXION DE MAYORDOMIADomingo 22º del Tiempo Ordinario*"Pues ¿qué provecho obtendrá un hombre si gana el mundo entero, pero pierde su alma?" - Mateo 16:26

San Francisco de Asís dijo, "Recuerda, tú eres lo que eres a los ojos de Dios, y nada más". A menudo olvidamos esta responsabilidad de sabiduría cuando gastamos todo nuestro tiempo, talento y tesoros para ganar riquezas de este mundo. Necesitamos establecer nuestras prioridades de acuerdo con los valores de Dios y no con los valores del mundo material.

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
The Eyes of a Child

I frequently see signs on churches inviting everyone to come. Often they advertise that they are a contemporary, casual church. One thing that concerns me is that they do not add "challenging" to that description. Some people try to teach that since Jesus is risen from the dead, we should also be able to live that way: Rejoicing, but never sorrowing. But if we preach resurrection without the cross, we are acting like Peter in the Gospel.

Peter had just proclaimed that Jesus was the Messiah, but he failed to understand that Jesus' mission was not to bring wealth and glory to Israel. Jesus knew that being messiah required him to give his life for all people. In a sense, Peter was tempting Jesus to avoid the painful death and use his divine power to bring prosperity. Like Satan's temptations in the desert, he wanted Jesus to take the easy way to glory.

Instead, Jesus challenges us to deny ourselves. Today this phrase is not very popular with those who say we should be free to satisfy all our desires, or with motivational speakers who say that everyone is able to achieve financial success and live a comfortable life. As long as we center our lives on our own pleasure and comfort, we are rejecting the cross. To deny oneself means to choose God's will over our own. It means to be willing to suffer for being honest. It means giving God the first place in our lives. It means we get more joy from serving others than serving ourselves. This is what Paul is talking about in the second reading when he says to offer ourselves as a "living sacrifice." Or as Jesus says, we lose our life for his sake, only to find it in loving and serving him.

That is one reason I like the image of God as father. Parents will lose much of their freedom—and much sleep—when they bring a child into the world. But they find a new joy in the eyes of that child. We are all called to lose our selfish lives and find the joy of living for Jesus.

Vigésimo Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
Los ojos de un niño

Con frecuencia veo letreros en las iglesias invitando a todos a venir. A menudo anuncian que son una iglesia contemporánea e informal. Una cosa que me preocupa es que no agregan "desafiante" a esa descripción. Algunas personas intentan enseñar que, dado que Jesús resucitó de entre los muertos, también deberíamos poder vivir de esa forma: gozándonos, pero nunca afligidos. Pero si predicamos la resurrección sin la cruz, estamos actuando como Pedro en el Evangelio.

Pedro acababa de proclamar que Jesús era el Mesías, pero no entendió que la misión de Jesús no era traer riqueza y gloria a Israel. Jesús sabía que ser mesías requería que diera la vida por todos. En cierto sentido, Pedro estaba tentando a Jesús para que evitara la dolorosa muerte y utilizara su poder divino para traer la prosperidad. Al igual que las tentaciones de Satanás en el desierto, quería que Jesús tomara el camino fácil hacia la gloria.

En cambio, Jesús nos pide negarnos a nosotros mismos. Hoy en día esta frase no es muy popular entre quienes dicen que debemos ser libres para satisfacer todos nuestros deseos, o entre los oradores motivadores que dicen que todo el mundo es capaz de alcanzar el éxito financiero y vivir una vida cómoda. Mientras centremos nuestras vidas en nuestro propio placer y comodidad, estamos rechazando la cruz. Negarse a sí mismo significa escoger la voluntad de Dios sobre la nuestra. Significa estar dispuesto a sufrir por ser honesto. Significa darle a Dios el primer lugar en nuestras vidas. Significa que obtengamos más alegría sirviendo a los demás que sirviéndonos a nosotros mismos. Pablo habla sobre esto en la segunda lectura cuando dice que nos ofrecemos como "sacrificio vivo". O como dice Jesús, perdemos nuestra vida por él, solo para encontrarla amándolo y sirviéndolo.

Es una de las razones por las cuales me gusta la imagen de Dios como padre. Los padres perderán gran parte de su libertad, y mucho sueño, cuando traen un hijo al mundo. Pero encuentran una nueva alegría en los ojos de ese niño. Todos estamos llamados a perder nuestras vidas egoísticas y encontrar la alegría de vivir para Jesús.

Presentation on Proclaiming the Splendor of the Truth with Love

A workshop for Catechists, DREs lay ministers and faithful people of God who would like to proclaim the good news of Chastity.

We hear so much in the news these days about same sex marriage and gay rights, but when a parent hears those words, it hits home in a very real -and often painful- way.

- How should a Catholic parent (teacher/Catechist/faithful Catholic) respond?
 - How do you strike that balance between condoning something that the Church teaches is wrong, and being supportive of the child you love who may have been struggling with these feelings for years?

"I am glad that we are talking about 'homosexual people' because before all else comes the individual person, in his wholeness and dignity. And people should not be defined only by their sexual tendencies: let us not forget that God loves all his creatures and we are destined to receive his infinite love." Presentación Proclamando el Esplendor de la Verdad con Amor

Taller para Sacerdotes, Catequistas, Directores de Educación Religiosa, Ministros Laicos y todos aquellos fieles que desean proclamar la Buena Nueva del Reino por medio de la Castidad.

Escuchamos mucho en estos días sobre la Homosexualidad y los derechos de las uniones del mismo sexo. Lastimosamente a veces lo que se dice no es lo que la iglesia enseña.

La Iglesia Católica como madre nunca abandona a sus hijos y acompaña a todos aquellos quienes desean caminar hacia Cristo en la verdad. No te sientas solo ni abandonado ni rechazado... eres Bienvenido, Dios te Ama...y la iglesia te acoge. Abracemos juntos la cruz.

"Me alegra que hablemos sobre las personas homosexuales porque antes que nada viene la persona individual en su totalidad y dignidad. Y la gente no debe ser definida solo por sus tendencias sexuales: no olvidemos que Dios ama a todas sus criaturas y que estamos destinados a recibir su amor infinito"
