Meaning of Samhain

The end of the harvest season and the mark of the Celtic New Year. Signaled by the 1st of November it was celebrated by a festival of the ancient Celts to indicate the beginning of winter. The beginning of winter was associated with death. This time is when the veil is thinnest for the worlds of the dead and the spirits to interact with the living. Samhain was not a recognized deity, the festival was associated with deities i.e., the Crone aspect of the goddess, the Morrigan, and the God who was dying at the same time to be reborn at the Yule.

Libra is the seventh sign of the zodiac with Venus as its ruler. Cream is the color associated with the sign of Libra. Libras are thoughtful, cooperative, friendly people who value friendship. Partnership is essential to a Libra. They are peace-loving people and appreciate the arts. Their major downfall is indecisiveness. Libra's gems are watermelon tourmaline and hematite.

ALL ABOUT ANGELS BY MARY SILVERNAIL, PSYCHIC ASTROLOGER:

Since the age of four I have been in daily communication with the Angels. This column is here for you in order to help some of you who have not had the previous understanding of Angels to realize that they are just waiting in the wings to come to your aid in every area of your life. All the Angels have different special qualities that can help you.

Q: I am having trouble sleeping. Can the Angels help?

A: When you get in your bed at night, just simply ask that Guardian Angels be at each of your doors and windows to guard and protect you all night long. Visualize yourself, your loved ones and your home surrounded with a beautiful white light of protection that nothing of harm can enter. Then imagine Archangel Raphael covering you up with a blanket of emerald green healing light and energy and feel your entire body completely relax. Soon you will drift off to sleep that one of two things shall happen: either you will be given something solid to stand on, or you will be taught how to fly.”

FAITH THIS MONTH IS THE MAGIC KEY

and have the most pleasant dreams.

Q: My friend calls me almost daily with her problems. I want to be a good friend, but it is starting to wear on me and make me feel down in the dumps, too. What can I do to help her?

A: Call upon Archangel Chamuel to come and bring joy and love to the situation or person that makes you feel negative in anyway. Then surround yourself with a pink shield of light and love that nothing can permeate except love. When you do this you can usually notice a shift in the energy almost immediately.

With these difficult times that are being experienced by most, you will probably find yourself listening to others troubles and woes more so than ever before. It is good to be a listener and friend to a certain extent, but if it starts wearing down your own energies, it may be time to shorten the periods of time that you spend around such negativity.

However, you can always ask the Angels to go and help lighten your friend or loved one's load without you having to be on the receiving end of a barrage of negativity.

Q: My wife left this earth peacefully two months ago. I miss her so desperately. Can you offer any suggests as to how the Angels can help with my grief?

A: Archangel Azrael is there to help you through this painful time. The meaning of his name is “Whom God helps”. He is the Angel who surrounds family and friends at the time of a loved one's transition. He is the Angel who assists in healing grief. Azrael is there to support and comfort you. Just say, “Archangel Azrael, please comfort me now and bring the healing that I need. Please watch over me and bring me the strength that I need now.”

It is my purpose in life to assist others in need with the knowledge and Divine Blessings bestowed upon me through the help of the Angels. Allow the Angels to enter through the pathway of your heart and they will always be there to assist you.

LOVE

by Kirsten Sciallo

What a marvelous time of year! All things spooky and pumpkin are about. No matter what you choose to do this month, make sure to get out in the brisk cool October air and enjoy every minute of it! Whether you are breaking out your flannels or pumpkin spice coffee of taking a hike and admiring all of the beautiful leaves changing, you are certainly bound for excitement. I believe now is the best time to get a mobility routine in place before the weather starts to get colder, so perhaps consider joining a walking club or registering for a group class. Yoga and stretching can be a relaxing yet beneficial way to bring gentle movement into your life. It is very important to treat your body as your temple so you can enjoy activities pain free for years to come. Set some intentions for goals you would like to work towards in the coming months and remember to put one-foot in front of the other. Life is not a race, it is simply a journey that you can live at your own pace. Happy Halloween everyone and I'm wishing you many exciting fall moments to explore.

Light and Love,
Kirsten
