ALL ABOUT ANGELS
BY
MARY SILVERNAIL,
PSYCHIC ASTROLOGER:

Since the age of four I have been in daily communication with the Angels. This column is here for you in order to help some of you who have not had the previous understanding of Angels to realize that they are just waiting in the wings to come to your aid in every area of your life. All the Angels have different special qualities that can help you.

Q: I am having trouble sleeping. Can the Angels help?

A: When you get in your bed at night, just simply ask that Guardian Angels be at each of downfall is indecisiveness. Libra's gems are watermelon tourmaline and hematite.

October 3 – Venus Retrograde in Scorpio until November 13, moving back into Libra October 25 – Giving a chance to review relationships and finances. Look closely at a current project or commitment during this period of time to know whether your heart is really in it or not.

October 10 – New Moon in Libra – brings a new beginning – starting anew!
This is a time to take charge of your relationships by giving them your proper attention. Also, a great time to work on your negotiation and partnering skills to resolve conflicts and to bring harmony. This New Moon is in a great aspect to lucky Jupiter to bring cooperation and peace.

October 15 – Pluto Stations & Turns Direct – after retrograde since May 6 creating an intense feeling of ambition and the need to feel empowered. The power to make profound changes in your life will be externalized, direct and insistent. Now is the time to take things into your own hands and make the necessary changes that are right for you.

October 24 to November 13 – Mercury Retrograde in Scorpio – you are sensitive and your emotional radar is extremely strong! This is not the time to read or listen to too much negativity. Something that is hidden can come to light that may make you look at something in a brand new way. As always with Mercury Retrograde there can be delays or backtracking during this period.

October 26 – Taurus Full Moon – the Sun is aligning with retrograde Venus forming a square to Pluto. Also, it's part of an arrow yod formation, and past connections, loves and complex feelings can figure in strongly. It's a time to embrace our needs for comfort and predictability, and to connect with issues your doors and windows to guard and protect you all night long. Visualize yourself, your loved ones and your home surrounded with a beautiful white light of protection that nothing of harm can enter. Then imagine Archangel Raphael covering you up with a blanket of emerald green healing light and energy and feel your entire body completely relax. Soon you will drift off to sleep and have the most pleasant dreams.

Q: My friend calls me almost daily with her problems. I want to be a good friend, but it is starting to wear on me and make me feel down in the dumps, too. What can I do to help her?

A: Call upon Archangel Chamuel to come and bring joy and love to the situation or person that makes you feel negative in anyway. Then surround yourself with a pink shield of light and love that nothing can permeate except love. When you do this you can usually notice a shift in the energy almost immediately.

With these difficult times that are being experienced by most, you will probably find yourself listening to others troubles and woes more so than ever before. It is good to be a listener and friend to a certain extent, but if it starts wearing down your own energies, it may be time to shorten the periods of time that you spend around such negativity.

However, you can always ask the Angels to go and help lighten your friend or loved one's load without you having to be on the receiving end of a barrage of negativity.

in our lives surrounding money, personal income, valuables, and self-worth while boosting your self-awareness and reconnecting to who you truly are! This is the perfect time to connect with nature, especially the Moon and the stars by drawing down the energy of the Moon to your heart and your soul. The veil is very thin at this time. A perfect time for Magic and empowerment to happen.

To quote Edward Teller: "When you get to the end of the light, you know it's time to step into the darkness of the unknown. Faith is knowing that one of two things shall happen: either you will be given something solid to stand on, or you will be taught how to fly."

Q: My wife left this earth peacefully two months ago. I miss her so desperately. Can you offer any suggests as to how the Angels can help with my grief?

A: Archangel Azrael is there to help you through this painful time. The meaning of his name is "Whom God helps". He is the Angel who surrounds family and friends at the time of a loved one's transition. He is the Angel who assists in healing grief. Azrael is there to support and comfort you. Just say, "Archangel Azrael, please comfort me now and bring the healing that I need. Please watch over me and bring me the strength that I need now."

It is my purpose in life to assist others in need with the knowledge and Divine Blessings bestowed upon me through the help of the Angels. Allow the Angels to enter through the pathway of your heart and they will always be there to assist you.

Many Divine Blessings of Love & Light.

LOVE

by Kirsten Sciallo

This is the most incredible part of the year. The breeze is gentle and the leaves begin to change into magnificent colors of fall foliage. Please take this time to center with nature to walk in the forest and connect with all of the animals and trees. It is so important to pause from the hustle and bustle and the mundane day to day to embrace all that life has to offer. You can of course use this month to ground yourself and set some intentions on the future that you so desire to create. Remember that we are not our past or our future and all we have is each moment to create and embrace something special. Let's not forget that Halloween is abound and getting in touch with this playful day can really unleash the child in all of us. As you walk outside and smell this season of pumpkin spice and literally everything nice don't forget to channel moments of inner joy. You so deserve the best that life has to offer and intentions of gratitude and thanks can surely bring the same back to you in return.
