Giclée Quality Archival Photographic Printing (Color or B&W): 2 to 5 days

Paper and Ink have an archival life of 100+ years. Most papers can be mounted. Please specify paper type with order. Prints should dry at least 24 hours before framing behind glass. Canvas option of an embellishment gel to look like brush strokes or texture available. See print pricing on next page.

There is a $16.00 minimum on all giclée print orders.

A 4"x18" test strip is available for $16.00. Write edited Giclée image to CD or other media device for $16.00 per image.

Stretched Canvas Prints and Gallery Wrapped Canvas Prints

Stretched canvas prints only go to the edge of the stretcher frame leaving a white border on the sides of the print. This is great for artwork and images that do not leave a lot of room for cropping. This comes ready to hang on the wall without any frame needed.

Gallery wrapped canvas prints wrap the image all the way around the stretcher frame. Please note that the parts of the image closest to the top, bottom and sides will wrap around. This comes ready to hang on the wall without any frame needed.

Embellishment of your canvas

We offer an embellishing gel application that can be added to any canvas print to give it a clear brush stroke effect like an oil painting would have. The cost is $20 for prints up to 12"x18" and $40 for larger prints. We brush the gel onto your print and create a brush stroke that adds a nice effect to any canvas print.

We offer two thicknesses of stretcher frames. The standard size is 1" thick and can be used with many standard sizes. We also offer a 5/8" thick stretcher frame that is used for custom and non standard canvas sizes.

Turn Around

All of our Stretched canvas and Gallery canvas wraps take an average of 3-4 business days. The print must dry for at least 24 hours, then it is coated with an ECO print shield coating to protect it. The coating must dry for at least 24 hours before the print can be given to our framer to be stretched or wrapped.

Helpful info: Files are saved as jpeg (.jpg) files unless requested otherwise by customer. If CD, DVD or media device is supplied by customer there is no change in cost ($6.00 minimum file transfer or email cost). Please note as an example: The actual jpg file, which is a compressed file, will be smaller than 4.6 mb. If a 4.6mb scanned jpg file is opened in Photoshop or other imaging program the file size will be approximately 4.6 mb. The file size is measured when open not as the compressed file. We use the least amount of compression when saving to jpg files. Please also note that images are NOT rotated and are saved horizontally. For an additional cost of $0.10 per image they can be rotated for proper viewing with a $10.00 minimum charge for rotation.

If your film is old, improperly processed or exposed, fogged, overlapped, ripped sprockets, torn or folded it may not be able to be scanned.

Minimum price is $10.00 for the above listed services.

DVD, Blu-ray or MP4 Slideshow $56.00 and up:

Slide, Print, Film or Digital files to Video DVD, Blu-ray or MP4 file 1-2 weeks PC: SLIDESHOW

Slideshows are videos that are watchable on your home DVD or Blu-ray player or computer. The average image duration is 5 seconds with a fade from image to image. If you would like a different duration please specify the time when placing your order. The durations can be altered to fit the length of a song. Shows can be made from prints, film, or digital media (media can contain picture and video files).

DVD slideshow cost is $56.00 (for up to approximately 500 images which lasts approximately 1 hour) plus scanning and conversion. See sample pricing below. If the 500 images exceeds the DVD length because of longer slide durations add $50.00 per extra DVD.

Blu-ray slideshow cost is $76.00 (for up to approximately 1000 images which lasts approximately 2 hours) plus scanning and conversion. See sample pricing below. If the 1000 images exceeds the Blu-ray length because of longer slide durations add $70.00 per extra Blu-ray. Blu-ray resolution is much higher than DVD. Your images should be at least 1920x1080 pixels for best quality.

MP4 slideshow cost is $56.00 (for up to 500 images which lasts approximately 1 hour) plus scanning and conversion. See sample pricing below. If there are more than 500 images there is an additional cost of $56.00 per hour. This type of slideshow can have up to 2000 images and could last for 4 hours. The number of images can vary depending on the amount of time they are being displayed. Sometimes it is better to have shorter slideshows made.

If you would like to have a slideshow made from your digital media supplied to us from you on CD, DVD, USB drive or memory device the cost is just $0.10 per image or video file plus $56.00.

Additional charges if required:

- Images to be put in certain order or from various types of media - $0.25 per image ($25.00 minimum)
- Music added - $7.00 per song (provided by customer as mp3).
- Titles added - 1 for $7.00, 2 or more for $5.00 each.
- Conversion - uncommon file format conversion, image cropping, rotation, color, brightness or contrast adjustment $.50 each image.
- A custom slideshow with more extravagant transitions from image to image and creative effects per image is also possible for you. There is an additional cost of $45.00 for slideshows up to 1 hour long.

Helpful Information: 1080p resolution (also called high definition) is what is possible on the Blu-ray Disc format. Compared with DVD's 480p resolution. To break it down further, you get 1920x1080 pixels on a Blu-ray. DVD delivers just 720x480. That means Blu-ray is almost exactly 6x the resolution of DVD.

Helpful information for movie film transfer.

A 3" movie reel = 50' which equals approximately 3 minutes of viewing time (5" reel = 200', 7" reel = 400'). When having 50' of movie film transferred to a digital MOV file (720p 960x720) it will be approximately 4.5gb in size. If it is saved as an AVI file it will be approximately 12gb in size. When having 50' of movie film transferred to a digital MOV file (1080p 1440x1080) it will be approximately 9gb in size. If it is saved as an AVI file it will be approximately 25gb in size. An AVI or MOV file can be edited on a PC. A MOV file might be better for a mac when editing video. A DVD can hold up to 57 minutes of converted footage.

Over 90% of the old movie film has colors that have shifted, exposure that is now lighter or darker, is grainy and scratched. They may also be moldy and dusty. These are natural side affects of the aging process. In addition, there may have been exposure, color or other types of issues that were originally exposed on the film to begin with. Try to be sure your film is in satisfactory condition before having it converted. It will not be around forever.

Helpful information for Video conversion transfer.

A one minute video file (720x480) would be approximately equal to a Mp4 file - 6mb, Mpg2 file - 39mb, Mpg1 file - 42mb, AVI file - 1.2gb, WMV file - 39mb. Example: a one hour AVI file would be approximately 72gb . Larger file size is generally better video quality and better for editing.

Please note: If media device (CD, DVD, USB drive etc.) is supplied by customer there is no change in the price of the transfer. Please see DVD or CD copies for additional copy pricing. Additional copies to separate media devices such as portable HD and USB drives at $10.00 each for every 32gb.

Color Space:

If you are using a point and shoot digital camera or cell phone, we suggest that you do not try to adjust the color or density of your images. We look at and correct each photo as we are printing them. If you are using a digital SLR camera, we ask that you shoot your images in the sRGB color space, as this is native to all digital cameras and is the color space in which our digital printers are calibrated. If you shoot raw files and convert them in Photoshop or any other program, we advise leaving them in sRGB instead of converting them to Adobe RGB or any other color space. Customers requesting prints with no corrections, do so at their own risk; redo's will be at an additional charge.
