Today, April 16th is Divine Mercy Sunday. Please join us at 3:00pm for an hour of prayer and devotions in the church. Divine Mercy Sunday is a relatively new addition to the Roman Catholic liturgical calendar. Celebrating the Divine Mercy of Jesus Christ, as revealed by Christ to St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, this feast was extended to the entire Catholic Church by Pope John Paul II on April 30, 2000, the day that he canonized Saint Faustina.

"The Bridge" Center for Entrepreneurship provides resources and mentorship to young adults for growth in their Catholic faith while making an impact on their local communities. It is aimed at welcoming, engaging and forming young adults in the life of the Church. "The Bridge" will provide college age young people and graduates mentoring opportunities with successful Catholic businesspersons who will assist them as they begin their professional careers. These mentoring relationships will also provide the tools by which interested young adults can work and address some of the local social problems that affect people throughout our Diocese. Thank you for making a gift to the Bishop's Appeal and supporting "The Bridge". For information about the ABA, contact the Dev. Office at (203) 416-1312. Thank you for your support of the Appeal.

Bloomin' 4 Good Program

Growing for Good Spring News

The Growing for Good garden ministry has been chosen by Stop & Shop as its April recipient of proceeds from its Bloomin' 4 Good program. For every specially marked bouquet purchased at the Wilton River Road Stop & Shop in April, Growing for Good will receive $1.00. As you consider purchasing flowers in the coming months, please help Stop & Shop to support this mission. Spring has sprung and gardening has begun! With your support we hope to help provide even more healthy, nutritious food to our neighbors in need. So buy flowers throughout April 2023 at:

Stop & Shop

5 River Road, Wilton CT

Winners of the EGG HUNT last weekend.

Thank you all who worked so hard to make this happen!

FAITH FORMATION

There are no Faith Formation classes on April 16. Mass and classes resume for grades 1-5 on April 23 and for grades 6-8 on April 30.

The Faith Formation Office is moving! We are now located in the Parish Office at 229 Danbury Road.

REMINDER to parents of First Communicants: Please send in a wallet –size picture of your child for the church bulletin board. You may mail it to the Faith Formation office at 229 Danbury Road (note new address) or bring it to the Parish Office.

ATTENTION EIGHTH GRADE CONFIRMATION CANDIDATES: A retreat will be held on Thursday, May 18, for all fall Confirmation candidates. We will begin in the OLF Gym at 6:00 and spend the last half hour (8:30-9:00 PM) in church. A retreat is required, so all candidates are expected to attend. Each candidate must have a sponsor or a parent accompany him/her. If the sponsor is not yet 18 years of age, then a parent must attend with the candidate.

Service hours were due on April 2 from eighth grade Confirmation candidates. If you have not yet submitted your service hour report, please do so this week.

Rehearsal for the 9:30 First Communion ceremony will be held in the church from 4:00 to 4:45. The 11:30 ceremony participants will practice from 4:45 to 5:30. Please make every effort to have your child attend so he/she will be comfortable on First Communion Day.

SHARING OUR FAITH

Any non-Catholic who would be interested in learning more about the Catholic faith may contact Kathleen Rooney (Krooney@olfwilton.org or 203-762-9080) to learn more about the RCIA process which is designed to explore the teachings and traditions of our Church with those who are inquiring. Please invite a non-Catholic you know to come and see what we are all about!

Any adult who has been inactive in the practice of our faith is always welcome to return to his or her spiritual family. Encourage that person in your life to call a priest to discuss re-joining fellow parishioners in our liturgical celebrations. We want our family of faith to be whole.

Chesterton's Simple Wisdom..... Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

During the telecast of the funeral of Queen Elizabeth II, one of the commentators mentioned how the sunlight caught the diamonds encrusted on the Imperial State Crown that was set atop the coffin. She remarked that those jewels emitted a powerful blue light for a few seconds as the cortege passed by.

Recalling that comment, I find that momentary glance at a beam of sunlight reflected by diamonds on a crown is a perfect metaphor for God's nature. Like the facets of a diamond, His nature as Light of the World has so many beautiful consequences. Take, for example, God's goodness. What a comfort it is amid the success of so many evils in our world. The same for God's other qualities like His love, His justice, or His omnipotence,

Today the Church invites us to pay attention in a special way to God's mercy. It is that consoling quality of His that we sinners depend on for our hope and trust. Specifically, the Church designates this day as "Divine Mercy Sunday." The feast was so named such by Pope St. John Paul II at the canonization of the nun Sr. Faustina Kowalska. The new saint had experienced a series of personal revelations from God.

The most comprehensive revelation can be found in Sister Faustina's diary, where Our Lord said, in part: "My daughter, tell the world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and a shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners."

The Easter Octave (8th Day) has always been centered on the theme of Divine Mercy and forgiveness. Jesus announces peace to His startled disciples. No upbraiding or scolding of them over their Good Friday desertion. He makes the case that behind the whole mystery of what He had suffered and His resurrection was all part of a plan for their redemption and ours as well.

God's mercy is just one facet of the great "diamond" which is His nature. But what a consolation that is to us when we have sinned! It is sad that so many of our fellow Catholics seem to absolve themselves these days so to speak. They are missing out on this sacramental channel of God's authentic mercy in the confessional and walking around with hurting souls and risking sacrilege by approaching the Eucharist in their condition.

In the 1930s, a correspondent for the "London Times," researching on many of the problems we now have, ended every article with this statement: "What's wrong with the world?" Gilbert Keith Chesterton, the great English writer, philosopher and Christian apologist, wrote a famous reply. "Dear editor: What's wrong with the world? I am. Faithfully yours, G.K. Chesterton." I freely admit that I would have to write the same response. What about you? "Kyrie eleison" (Lord, have mercy.)

God love you and give you His peace.

Reading I: Acts 2: 42-47

St. Luke presents an idealized picture of the early Church. The Holy Spirit wants us to have a goal worth our striving as we live as members of the present Church.

Reading II: I Peter 1: 3-7

Our salvation derives from an initiative of God the Father, through the life of His Son Jesus, and revealed to us by the Holy Spirit.

The Gospel: John 20: 19-31

Jesus appears to His disciples in His glorified body and hears Mary Magdalene's question to the "gardener": "Where have they put Him?" The joy of Jesus' response to her intensifies with the Thomas story. Thomas proclaims the central message of the entire gospel: Jesus is Lord and God.

Bishop: Memorial Garden 'a great gift'

August 15, 2020 marked two years since Bishop Frank Caggiano came to Our Lady of Fatima parish to bless and dedicate our Philip Tai Lauria Memorial/Prayer Garden. It is inspiring to see people come by to remember in prayer family members and friends whose names have been inscribed on the granite plaques and pavers placed on and around the cruciform structure.

In his comments that day, the Bishop described the memorial as "a garden of dedication and remembrance," calling it "a great gift" to the parish.

The garden is a spiritual oasis in the midst of a busy community. Benches on either side of the structure provide comfort to those who use the space as a place to reflect and pray.

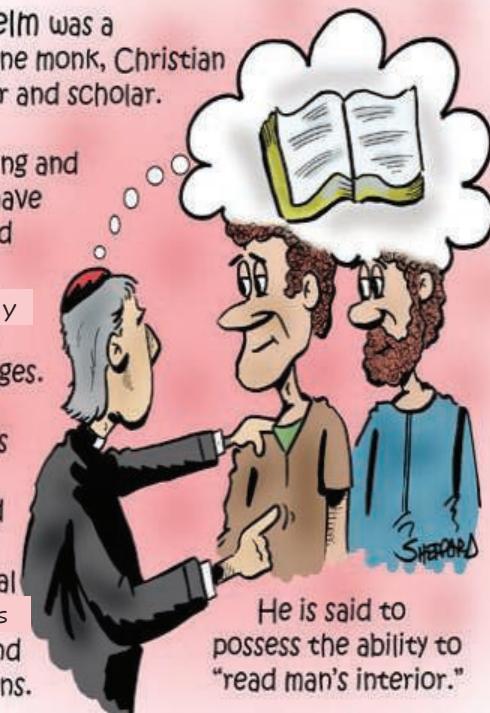

Close to 50 plaques are in place. More are available. Information on how to purchase a space is available at the Parish Office: (203) 762-3928; noconnell@olfwilton.org.

SAINTS FUN FACTS

St. Anselm was a Benedictine monk, Christian philosopher and scholar.

His thinking and writings have influenced Church hierarchy since the Middle Ages.

During his life he composed several theological treatises prayers and meditations.

He is said to possess the ability to "read man's interior."
