FAITH FORMATION

We welcome back grades 1-5 Faith Formation students on April 23 and hope everyone had a Happy Easter and a joyful spring break. Next week on April 30, grades 6-8 will return to 4:30 Mass and class.

Parents of First Communicants, if you have not yet brought in a picture of your child for the First Communion bulletin board in church, you may do so this week. The Faith Formation office is now located in the Parish Office (across from the church). You may also mail it to 229 Danbury Road, Wilton, CT 06897.

The Faith Formation children's Easter drawings were brought to the Notre Dame Convalescent Home in Norwalk. We hope they brought joy to the residents on Easter Sunday!

SHARING OUR FAITH

Is there a non-Catholic man or woman who often comes to Mass with you and perhaps attends parish activities? If so, have you ever asked him or her to consider learning more about our religion? Why not invite your non-Catholic friend or family member to call Kathleen Rooney (203-762-9080) to talk about RCIA, a process through which inquirers explore the teachings of the Catholic Church? Think about this as a way to share our beautiful faith.

Do you know someone who may be longing to be reunited with his or her parish family and join with them in the Eucharistic celebration? If so, please share with this person that any priest would feel blessed to help one who has been "away" from active practice of our faith return and feel spiritually alive once again through reception of the sacraments. Don't hesitate to call on Father Reggie here at Our Lady of Fatima or any Catholic priest. The Easter season is a time of renewal and hope!

We welcome the newly Baptized into the family of Our Lady of Fatima Parish:

*Walter Harris Mohn
and Sophia Christine Strelzyk*

Congratulations to their parents, family, and friends.

Doctor St. Luke and Emmaus..... Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

This gem of a story has been “unpacked” by scholars of renown for all that Luke intended when he wrote it down. For a lesser light like myself I see in its structure the influence of Luke’s medical background. First of all, he presents a problem. Then comes an answer, or medicine. Finally there is a follow through and a recuperation of the patient. Allow me to illustrate.

First, the problem. Call it deep disappointment, or letdown. The two companions had witnessed Good Friday, and it left them more than melancholy. Their hopes seemed dashed for good. Their trust and aspirations vanished by Roman cruelty. So they are headed away from the scene, with an urgency to “get out of town.” Do we experience at least some portion of this experience when God seemingly lets us down?

Then comes the cure. And what a cure it is! Suddenly, so typical of Our Lord’s post resurrection appearances, He joins them on the road. When the men explain their long faces, He gives them a complete rationale for everything Jesus did, from Bethlehem to Calvary. Don’t you wish, as I do, that we could have heard all that from the God Man Himself? Anyhow, in our context, it was strong medicine rightly applied.

Finally, the recuperation. It began at that simple table at the roadside inn when Jesus broke the bread with them. Beautifully does Luke tell us how “their eyes were opened” and they recognized Him precisely in “the breaking of the bread.” In other words, the very holy Eucharist first celebrated Holy Thursday night and ever since then, in places high and humble ever since.

Note how the two travelers reverse course, or “make a U turn” as we might put it? With a certain spring in their steps they went right back to the huddled disciples to make their report. They were bursting with newfound faith and revived hope. Cured of confusion. Pledged to pursue a gospel-focused life.

We need this story right now. Unfortunately a lapse of faith has trampled all over the belief of so many of our fellow travelers. You see it in the empty pews on weekends. You hear it in their casual opinions about the place of Mass in their weekly agenda. You feel it in the loss of unity among families that used to gather at church on a Sunday morning.

Right at hand for easy blame is Covid. The shutdown of our churches during the pandemic and the ease of watching Mass on TV. An obvious happenstance I believe orchestrated by none less than Satan just like the clergy abuse scandal is. He hates the Eucharist because he hates God. And cleverly he goes about tearing down our faith and love of the good Lord who keeps giving it to us.

Even the devil knows that the Eucharist by nature is a communal affair. Our Lord’s chosen way of instituting this amazing gift was with a group of people around the table. Like any important celebration, there is nothing like being there. Our job as loyal followers is to wake others from their lethargy. To see Our Lord’s words “Do this in memory of Me” as the cure for so much that weighs them down. The counterfeit comfort that their chosen distractions offer. How sorely we need the Emmaus story. Thank you, Doctor St. Luke for giving it to us!

God love you and give you His Easter peace.

Reading I: Acts 2: 14, 22-33

St. Peter’s Pentecost sermon appears earlier than the calendar celebration but nevertheless includes the Jesus “kerygma,” or summary of His works and the entire Paschal Mystery.

Reading II: I Peter 1: 17-21

The fact is that we have been delivered from the powers of sin through the shedding of Christ’s Precious Blood.

The Gospel: Luke 24: 13-35

This wonderful story Luke has saved for the end of his gospel. It is uniquely his. Its themes include those of the journey; of faith as seeing; and of hospitality.

Bishop: Memorial Garden 'a great gift'

August 15, 2020 marked two years since Bishop Frank Caggiano came to Our Lady of Fatima parish to bless and dedicate our Philip Tai Lauria Memorial/Prayer Garden. It is inspiring to see people come by to remember in prayer family members and friends whose names have been inscribed on the granite plaques and pavers placed on and around the cruciform structure.

In his comments that day, the Bishop described the memorial as "a garden of dedication and remembrance," calling it "a great gift" to the parish.

The garden is a spiritual oasis in the midst of a busy community. Benches on either side of the structure provide comfort to those who use the space as a place to reflect and pray.

Close to 50 plaques are in place. More are available. Information on how to purchase a space is available at the Parish Office: (203) 762-3928; noconnell@olfwilton.org.

SAINTS FUN FACTS

by John Sheppard

St. Peter Chanel was born in 1803 in France. After ordination to the priesthood, he desired to become a missionary. He was assigned to his hometown. Finally in 1836, he led a small group of missionaries to the New Hebrides in the South Pacific. After a few years of converting the natives, the jealous island king had Peter killed. However, within 5 months of his death, the entire island had been converted to Christianity.
