The Catholic Academy of Bridgeport is one school on four campuses in the inner city of Bridgeport -- St. Andrew, St. Ann, St. Augustine and St. Raphael -- and is accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC). Its mission is to provide a Christ-centered, academically rigorous learning environment where cultural diversity is welcomed, Catholic values taught and all faiths celebrated. Students are nurtured, encouraged and challenged in preparation for a successful life of leadership and service. This year the Academy will serve over 900 children. Despite tuition being only $5,200 a year, 93% of families cannot afford this so the school must award more than $2.3 million annually in financial assistance. One hundred percent of students graduate from high school, 99% go on to attend college or post-secondary school -- outcomes that far exceed Bridgeport charter and public schools. Donations to the Bishop's Appeal enable inner-city youth to become faith-filled, industrious, responsible and well-educated adults. Our world and the Church need these young students to excel academically and to develop a strong and active faith in God.

Ask Your Pastor A Question?

Did you ever have a question about your Catholic faith that you really wanted to ask someone but not feel embarrassed? Well now's your chance. There are two boxes available for you to drop your question in and Fr. Reggie will answer in the bulletin each week. No names needed! A box will be at the school (for our Faith Formation students) and one at the Church!

We welcome the newly Baptized into the family of

Our Lady of Fatima Parish:

Lorenzo Octavio Gutierrez
Carmine Alvera Gutierrez

Congratulations to their parents, family, and friends.

Let us welcome into the Our Lady of Fatima Parish Family

Coffee and DONUTS

The Knights of Columbus Council #12698 is hosting Coffee and Donuts after Masses on June 4 in the Parish Center.

And as an added bonus—The Diocese Cemetery Family Advisors would like to share information about burial options available to you and answer questions that you might have.

Interested in becoming a certified VIRTUS facilitator of the Protecting God's Children program? Please contact Safe Environment Office at (203) 416-1407

Each year on or around May 13, the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima, the Our Lady of Fatima Award recognizes members of our parish community who give outstanding service to the parish, a tradition begun by Fr. Reggie in 2017. The names of the 2023 honorees Deacon Tony Conti (left) Erasmio Signore (right), Louis Furlo (not pictured), were announced at the conclusion of the 11 a.m. Mass on May 14th.

"We are grateful for their goodness and kindness to our parish," Fr. Reggie said, adding the "we thank you and bless you for all your hard work."

The new honorees join individuals selected in prior years, including Elaine and Phil Lauria 2017, John Kalamarides 2018, Paula Steinberg 2019, Jeannie Rubsum and Tim Dineen 2020, Marylee and John Danaher and Frank DeRosa 2021, and Ali Lombardi 2022.

"More than 20 parish ministries (see pg.5) are nourished by the generosity of volunteers who offer their time and talent in service to our parish community," Fr. Reggie said. "We are always eager to add new volunteers to their rolls."

FAITH FORMATION

Believe it or not, we are close to the last Faith Formation class for the 2022-23 school year! Next week, on June 4, grades 1-5 students will meet for the final time until the fall. On June 11, middle school students will have their final class. Thank you to all---Father Reggie, parents, students, catechists, aides, and nurses for helping to make our new schedule work this year. A special thank you to Nancy O'Connell for assisting us as we transition to the Parish Office.

Registration for fall classes will be held in June. Families will be notified as soon as our website is ready. Please register early as it will help us with planning.

Joe Paprocki, National Consultant for Loyola Press, composed a list of ten reasons to become a catechist. Among the reasons are: You will be putting your faith into action, Children, teens, and adults more than ever need good role models of faith, You will grow in your own faith, learn the teachings of the Church, and deepen your relationship with Jesus. His number one reason is: It's the right thing to do! Please reflect on these reasons and ask yourself if God is calling you to this ministry. Kathleen Rooney and/or Alison Lombardi will be happy to answer your questions and address any concerns. (203-762-9080).

SHARING OUR FAITH

Do you know that we have a process here at Our Lady of Fatima through which a non-Catholic adult may explore the teachings of our Church and, after a period of instruction, prayer, and discernment, decide to become a Catholic? It is the RCIA, and since 1985, many men and women have joined our family of faith through this process. Reach out to a non-Catholic person you know who may want to become familiar with the Catholic religion. Maybe he or she is just waiting to be asked! Call or email Kathleen Rooney for more information (203-762-9080 or krooney@olfwilton.org).

If there are people in your family or circle of friends who have not been to Mass or practiced our faith for a time, please invite them to call a priest to talk about why they have been inactive. Maybe it was that their spiritual needs were not met, or dissatisfaction with the clergy, or unhappy with moral teachings. Whatever the reason, it is never too late to talk it through and pray for direction from the Holy Spirit. Encourage them to come back to where they belong. Jesus is waiting with open arms to welcome all who have left.

Welcome home all our college kids and congratulations to those who have graduated. May God continue to guide you and may you continue to have Him in your life.

Today Is the Birthday of the Church..... Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

The pope visits a distant outpost of the Church, far from the marbled halls of the Vatican. A female celebrity makes an appearance at an event wearing an overly revealing evening gown. A guerrilla fighter poses in the jungle holding aloft his powerful machine gun wearing a snarling face. These three are examples of how our actions make a statement.

In a certain way, the Pentecost event also “makes a statement.” It is clear, certain and captivating. God had done things like this before, as the Bible recounts. Recall the dramatic signs that accompanied the freed Israelites. The Red Sea parts in two, providing them an escape route from Pharaoh and his charioteer warriors. A daytime cloud later guides them, with a fiery pillar doing the same at night. A statement is made over and over.

In the New Testament, we read of a virgin birth, springing from the teen-aged Mary’s consent. God presents the world with its Savior nine months later. The baby is heralded by choirs of angels and a star that shines over the little town of Bethlehem. That Child grew to be a powerful but usually mild-mannered Messiah who worked miracles of healing and life-restoring. But He could turn justifiably angry when people chose to disrespect His Father’s house, or ignore the poor among them. His many healings made an unmistakable statement. Not to omit the several times He restored life to the already dead. At His resurrection, He made the greatest statement ever made, both about His Father’s power and promises.

The story continues today with the events of the first Pentecost. God the Holy Spirit comes among the prayerfully gathered Apostles, with Mary His Mother in the midst, with sound and fury to reassure the chosen Apostles before they left that room and walked outside to tell their life-changing story. Language barriers fell down in an amazing way. Later, the new community saw that day as the Birthday of the Church, which doesn’t just have a mission but is one, now and until the end of time.

Friends, here we are, some 21 centuries later, mere moments in God’s reckoning of time. We really are capable of “making a statement” of our own to the world about Christ. Somehow we know that the statement we make is the very “stuff” also of our final judgment. But it behooves us to become listeners of the Word first, in order to speak about it with authenticity. Here is the poet on that very subject:

*“His thoughts were slow,
His words were few and never formed to glisten.
But he was a joy to all his friends,
You should have heard him listen!”*

God love you and give you His Pentecost peace.

Reading I: Acts 2: 1-11

The vivid Pentecost scene describes a very special visitation of the Holy Spirit into the human story, and with it, the Church is born.

Reading II: I Corinthians 12: 3b-7, 12-13

Paul fights against any elitism in the community by declaring that everyone receives the same Holy Spirit. This despite the fact that each person has his/her individual gifts and talents that benefit the group.

The Gospel: John 20: 19-23

Jesus makes His promised return to the disciples, showing them His now glorified body, complete with the scars of His crucifixion. He then wishes them peace and sends them out on mission.

MEMORIAL GARDEN
 We are grateful to the people who have purchased plaques and pavers. It's a nice way to remember your family either way, living or deceased.

If you would like to purchase either a plaque or paver, please stop in or call the office. We have forms in the office and at the Church doors & will gladly assist you in preparing this honor.

- Pavers along the edge are 8 x 13. You can have up to 3 lines and 30 characters per line including space and symbols. The cost is $500 per paver. Space is limited.
- Granite Plaques along the wall and the 3 foot high cross are 12 x 12 and include up to 4 lines with 30 characters including space and symbols. The cost is $800 per plaque. Space is limited.

There is privacy and benches ARE within the structure. We hope this will be a prayerful place where we can all reflect.
