Growing for Good - Early Greens, Pollinator Pathways, and the Three Sisters

The Growing for Good garden is off to a wonderful start with an abundant early harvest of leafy greens, ready in time for the planting of all the summer crops. The pollinator pathway of wild-flowers surrounding the enclosure are creating a beautiful and rich environment for so many beneficial insects, and this year we have something new: 2 plots in which we are planting the three sisters - corn, beans, and pumpkins. We hope to create a small replica of this traditional planting method as a cultural tribute to those who originally farmed our region. IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO GET INVOLVED, PLEASE EMAIL : Kathy Rooney at toons90@optonline.net. No gardening expertise required!

FAITH FORMATION

Online registration for 2023-24 Faith Formation classes is open. Please register as soon as possible so we can plan for the number of catechists needed, books to order, and supplies for our students. The link for registration can be found in the email that was sent to families on June 1 and on our webpage.

Today, June 11, is the final day for middle school Faith Formation class. Thank you to parents, students and catechists for a good year. May we all continue to grow in our faith as we enjoy the summer months. We look forward to seeing our students and families in the fall. Blessings to our eighth graders as they move on to high school.

Jesus told the apostles, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few." We have many children in our Faith Formation program, but not enough catechists. Are you being called to help our parish children grow in the love and knowledge of our great God and inspire them to be faithful followers of Jesus? Think about how you will answer! If you would like to explore the possibility of becoming a catechist, please call or email Kathleen Rooney or Alison Lombardi. We will be glad to sit down and talk with you!

A very special thank you to Alison Lombardi who joined the Faith Formation team last summer. Since that time, she has enhanced the program with her organizational skills, her joyful spirit, and her kind and loving manner. Alison is truly a gift to all of us. We are blessed to have her with us as we prepare for another school year.

SHARING OUR FAITH

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) welcomes non-Catholic men and women to come and see what the Catholic Church is all about.

Please call Kathleen Rooney (203-762-9080) or email (KRooney@olfwilton.org) to learn the time and date of our next inquiry gathering. Bring your questions and comments. No strings attached!

Please encourage that inactive Catholic whom you know to reach out to a priest to talk about the issues that have kept him or her away from Mass and the sacraments. There are no judgments made, only a heartfelt "Welcome back!"

WE'RE CONNECTING YOUNG ADULTS

A Corpus Christi Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Call on your imagination for this scene: a well-armed robber has invaded your home; ransacked it for valuables; demands all your money. Oddly enough, in these tense moments, he suddenly gives you an option. Speaking from behind his mask, he demands at gunpoint that you answer his question: "What do you value the most?"

Trembling, your mind presents pictures of all sorts of things flashing by your internal vision. Suddenly you recall your last time at Mass and you blurt out "Jesus in the Eucharist." The robber is stunned a bit, pauses a few minutes that seem like hours and suddenly flees out your back door.

Far-fetched case? Certainly. Unexpected answer? Maybe. But even if the Eucharist didn't spring to our minds right away in such a nerve-wracking situation, it would be at the top of our values in the calm ordinary time of our Catholic lives.

Someone recently gave me a beautiful reflection of St. Vincent de Paul on the Holy Eucharist in his "Exhortation to a Dying Brother," written in 1647. It fits today's great feast so beautifully.

"Since love is inventive to infinity, after being affixed to the infamous stake of the cross to win the hearts and souls of those by whom He wishes to be loved...foreseeing that His absence could cause some forgetfulness or cooling off in our hearts, He wanted to avoid this danger by instituting the Most August Sacrament, in which He is as truly and substantially present as He is in heaven above."

Furthermore, however, seeing that, if He wanted to humble and empty Himself even more than He had done in His Incarnation and could make Himself in some way more like us—or at least make us more like Him—He caused this venerable Sacrament to serve us as food and drink, intending by this means that the same union and resemblance that exist between nature and substance should occur spiritually in each person.

...From this you see how, by every means imaginable, He has striven to win us over to love Him, and, with this in view, you must stir up your heart to pay this just and pleasant tribute to love of a God who has been the object of all His plans for you and for which to obtain it He did all that He has done for you. You must believe that the greatest present you could offer Him is your heart; He asks nothing else of you."

We are formed by environment and grace, by politics and prayer, by church and conscience. All God's creatures conspire to teach us as well. We stumble. We stutter. We rise. We are lifted.

- ◆ St Anthony of Padua (1195-1231), Priest,
- ◆ Feast Day June 13

Reading I: Deuteronomy 8: 2-3, 14b-16a

Moses reminds the people of their 40-year sojourn in the desert, where they were not only tested but also provided for via the manna. This they should never forget.

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 10: 16-17

By sharing the one cup and the one loaf, the diversity within the community blends into the unity brought about by being one body in Christ.

The Gospel: John 6: 51-58

Jesus asserts Himself as the "living bread that came down from heaven." Infinitely superior to the Old Testament manna, this bread and wine become for them and us, His Body and Blood.
