Next week we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural Terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for the collection provides lay leadership, training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. Thank you for your generosity.

Three priests of the Diocese of Bridgeport have been honored by Pope Francis with the rank of Chaplain to His Holiness, carrying with it the title of Monsignor.

Monsignor Robert J. Crofut, Monsignor Donald A. Guglielmi, and Monsignor Robert M. Kinnally were notified of their new titles, effective January 6, 2023, by Bishop Frank J. Caggiano. The new Papal Honors are the first awarded to priests of the Diocese of Bridgeport since 2008, when the late Pope Benedict XVI recognized 14 priests. Their elevation to the honor of Chaplain to His Holiness will be celebrated during a Mass and investiture ceremony set for Sunday, April 16, 5:00 p.m. at St. Aloysius Church in New Canaan.

Health Tip.....

Post Lunch Slump

The post-lunch slump is a common experience. According to the National Sleep Foundation, the circadian rhythm drops significantly between 2 and 5 p.m., resulting in a period of decreased alertness called the post lunch dip effect. Digesting a heavy lunch can worsen the effect. A brief nap, a brisk walk outside or eating a low-carb breakfast or lunch can help you fight the afternoon crash.

Soup Kitchen Collection is Back!

Our twice monthly collections for the Manna House Soup Kitchen have resumed. If you have participated in the past, please watch for an e-mail from Marylee or Sharon to clarify your current assignment. Thank you to all who contribute! We are in need of additional donations, in the form of specific food items to be dropped off at the Parish Center as part of our 1st or 3rd Tuesday collections. If you would like to join us in making a monthly donation, please contact Sharon Steinberg at mcsharon100@optonline.net to discuss a suitable donation assignment.

Each of us has unique God-given gifts that we are called to share with others. Here are some tips for helping your children find and follow God's plan for their lives, and in so doing achieve true success:

1. With our young, tell them that God has a plan for their lives, & pray with them that they will discover this plan & live it.
2. Nurture a love for & knowledge of Sacred Scripture. Applying God's revelation in Scripture to our own personal circumstances can be one starting point for discerning His will in our lives.
3. Help your children stay connected with the Christian community (parish family events, religious education, youth groups), so there will be other people in their lives who will encourage & point the way to God's plan.
4. Invest in particular talents & interests shown by your child. Make sure he or she has the resources to bring a talent to its full potential, but be careful about pushing too far.
5. While you are nurturing your child's interest in a particular area, be sure to encourage them to engage in other activities & explore new things as well.
6. Brainstorm with your children about ways to use their talents & interests to "give back" to others. Talents are meant to be shared. Where there is strength, there is also an opportunity for giving. (from Our Sunday Visitor)

SHARING OUR FAITH

RCIA and Returning Catholics are two ministries within our parish which reach out to non-Catholic and inactive Catholics respectively. Non-Catholics who would like to learn more about our religion may call Kathleen Rooney to hear about the RCIA process and Catholics who have been inactive but want to "come home" may contact Father Reggie to talk about what has kept them away.

As you know, Parishes in the Diocese of Bridgeport depend on Offertory donations for on-going expenses related to ministry, maintenance, staff and other pressing needs. Those donations are collected either at Mass or online through our website and clicking on the online giving button. Our parish keeps Sunday and Monthly collections.

National Special Collections are Loaves & Fishes, Catholic Relief Services etc. are collected at the parish level and sent by the Diocese to the US Conference of Catholic Bishops in DC.

If you ever have any questions about any of these collections, please reach out to Fr. Reggie or the Parish Office. We thank you for your commitment to our Parish and our Diocese.

The Baptism of Jesus: A Marvelous EventReflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Whether by accident or overuse, the Toys of Christmas may be broken now or forgotten by children moving on to other distractions. But the Joys of Christmas remain for us as God's children. Yes, we must move on liturgically and spiritually. Today we begin our gospel journey in earnest with Christ and His adult ministry as it enfolds in a new calendar year.

To start, we come to what is now known also as the "First Mystery of Light" of the Holy Rosary as designated by Pope Saint John Paul II, namely "The Baptism of Jesus." What a marvelous event it is on many levels of perception!

First of all, we have the changeless and supreme Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, now en-fleshed as a mature Man, submitting Himself to a ceremony of cleansing that least applies to Him as divine. But He accepts this as one of the ways He can identify Himself with us. As saintly writers have described the effects, it was not the Jordan water that made Him holy, but He who made the water holy.

Secondly, we have this evidence that God's decision to create us involves His unique and deep love, with His concomitant desire to support us in our adventure of earthly life. Yes, God will reward the just and punish the unjust, but here at His baptism He definitely teaches that He will be involved in our struggles. He will not be an aloof Person dwelling among the pristine beauty of the stars. He will step into the soft river bottom of the Jordan and let His worthy cousin John the Baptist immerse Him in the water to begin His mission.

But there is for me an intriguing comment the Baptist makes about his observation of this scene. He says to the presumed crowd assembled on the riverbank that day: "I saw the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven and remain upon Him." Remain. That is, to abide. To "take root." To enable one to act according to the accepted rules. For Jesus, already a member of the Blessed Trinity, such abiding is of His nature.

But what does it mean—to abide—for us who are also baptized in the Holy Spirit? For one thing, it means that we have a given relationship with God's wisdom. His insight. His "take" on what exists around us. We have an internal "guidance system", if you will, that comes to us long before there was Google.

Above all, the One who abides is a Person, capable of love, so that we can trust the directions He gives us to be the very best, the straightest line between the two points of earthly life and eternal life. "To abide" implies permanence, so that the only way such goodness would be gone from us would be some reckless decision on our part to sin. The Bible has spoken. It is dangerously unhealthy to "toy around" with evil and lose the joy of knowing we are in partnership with our God.

Wilson Johnson, the founder of Holiday Inn motels, once said, "When I was forty years old I worked in a sawmill. One morning the boss told me I was fired. Depressed and discouraged, I felt like the world had caved in. When I told my wife what had happened, she asked me what I was going to do. I replied, 'I'm going to mortgage our little home and go into the building business.' My first venture was the construction of two small buildings. Within five years I was a multimillionaire! At the time it happened, I didn't understand why I was fired. Later, I saw that it was God's unerring and wondrous plan to get me into the way of His choosing."

Makes a GREAT gift!

SAINTS FUN FACTS

While visiting Rome with some fellow farmers, Saint Fabian decided to visit a papal election meeting. While standing in the background, observing the debates, a dove descended from the ceiling and landed on Fabian's head! Being reminded of the baptism of our Lord, the council elected Fabian Pope and he served for 16 persecution-free years!!
