Future priests of the Diocese of Bridgeport receive comprehensive formation in theology, pastoral ministry, personal growth, and, most importantly, the spiritual life at seminaries chosen by the Bishop to best suit the needs of the seminarian and of the diocese. Preparation for the Priesthood takes anywhere from six to eight years, depending on the age and educational background of the man when he enters. All of our seminarians receive graduate degrees in theology prior to their ordination. Through your generous gift to the Bishop's Appeal, the Diocese will be better able to support men who are discerning priesthood and may respond generously and courageously to that call. Thank you for your gift. To make a gift, or for more information, please visit us at 2023BishopsAppeal.org, call (203) 416-1470 or scan with your phone.

Parents of First Communicants: Don't forget the meeting on Wednesday, February 8, at 6:00 in the church. This is your chance to learn everything you always wanted to know about your child's First Communion! Father Reggie, Ali, and Kathleen will be there to answer your questions. and bring you up-to-date on the details. There will also be some handouts, so please join us for this final meeting before May 6.

SHARING OUR FAITH

It is said that a major reason why many adults do not belong to a church is that they have never been invited. Let us reach out to those we know who are not affiliated with a church to join us for an activity sponsored by the parish. We can also include those who may belong to a non-Catholic congregation and have expressed an interest in what Catholics believe. We are called to "Go and make disciples of all nations." Let's begin right here at Our Lady of Fatima.

If someone you know has been feeling spiritually empty because of not actively participating in Mass and the sacraments, please encourage him or her to call Father Reggie to talk about returning to the "family" of faith. The door is always open for those who want to come home.

"Peace on earth will come to stay, when we live Christmas every day." – Helen Steiner Rice

What Do ‘Salt and Light’ Mean?: .Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

May I ask you: “How do you take a compliment?” I specify one delivered to you in person, and not electronically via email or text. It may take a minute to fashion a reply because, at least for the majority of us, compliments received are rare.

I remember a conversation I had with a good Church worker back around Christmastime. After recalling an episode or two from his unwritten record, he said, “Know, Father, people are always ready to complain about something, but never to praise or even thank you for your work.” Enough said.

An old-fashioned reaction to praise comes right out of the script of an old Western movie, when a pretty lady compliments the hero. It went something like this: “Aw shucks, ma’am, tweren’t nuthin.” In other words, denying that whatever we did or said was good and deeply appreciated. It’s false humility to deny the truth. A simple but humble “thank you” is always best to respond, unless one wants to add praise to God.

In today’s Gospel passage, coming early in St. Matthew’s account of the Sermon on the Mount, we find Jesus complimenting His hearers. Using references to two well-known entities of the time, He told them they were both “salt and light.” An explanation of terms is needed here.

First, regarding salt. In those ancient days, long before refrigeration was even an idea, salt was a principal preservative for foods. It still is these days. Note the sodium percentage on the labels. Foods are often designated “low salt” for the sake of people with health issues. Certain foods are prized for having “no preservatives.” But back in biblical times, salt was precious. So prized that a Roman soldier would receive a portion of his pay in salt. Hence the Latin derivative turned into our modern English word “salary.”

In considering “light” as a compliment, think of an ordinary one room Palestinian home in those days. It existed in a world “lit only by fire.” A burning oil lamp made ordinary life possible after dark. So, to be called a “light” in such a world was indeed a high compliment. Of course, Our Lord was referring to spiritual darkness above all. How to shed that kind of light is clearly offered in today’s passage from Isaiah, which Matthew knew so well. He provides half a dozen ways to do so.

These often dull and dreary February days lend themselves to some healthy introspection. How consistent has our fidelity to Jesus and His Way been? Stripped of excuses, we can honestly take inventory. We can measure our progress on the path to Heaven.

In the end, I think the greatest compliment we can hope for will hopefully be given us by a smiling Jesus standing at Heaven’s Gate. He will call us by name and say “Welcome home!” Meanwhile, here below, it is helpful to believe this closing thought about where else God dwells. “God has two dwelling places: one in heaven and the other in a meek and thankful heart.”

God love you and give you His peace.

Bishop: Memorial Garden 'a great gift'

August 15, 2020 marked two years since Bishop Frank Caggiano came to Our Lady of Fatima parish to bless and dedicate our Philip Tai Lauria Memorial/Prayer Garden. It is inspiring to see people come by to remember in prayer family members and friends whose names have been inscribed on the granite plaques and pavers placed on and around the cruciform structure.

In his comments that day, the Bishop described the memorial as "a garden of dedication and remembrance," calling it "a great gift" to the parish.

The garden is a spiritual oasis in the midst of a busy community. Benches on either side of the structure provide comfort to those who use the space as a place to reflect and pray.

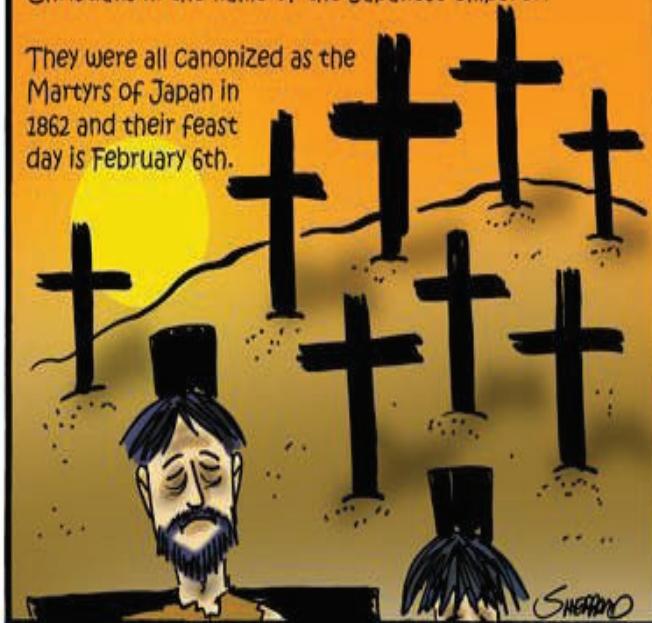

Close to 50 plaques are in place. More are available. Information on how to purchase a space is available at the Parish Office: (203) 762-3928; noconnell@olfwilton.org.
