Thursday, May 14 is the Ascension of the Lord and a Holy Day of Obligation.

We know from the Acts of the Apostles that, after the Resurrection, Jesus spent forty days instructing his followers: "To them he presented himself alive after his passion by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days, and speaking of the kingdom of God". Since Easter is always on a Sunday, and May has thirty one days, forty days later is always a Thursday. "This Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven." The Mass schedule is Wednesday, 5:30 p.m. (Vigil) and Thursday 9 a.m. and 12:15.

The Feast of Our Lady of Fatima is Wednesday, May 13. After the 5:30 evening Mass, we are inviting you to join us in saying the rosary outdoors by Our Lady of Fatima statue. It will be a living rosary outdoors in the circle.

What a beautiful tribute it would be to our beloved mother. What better way to express her loving message of peace, sacrifice and prayer. Let's form a circle around our circle and conclude with light refreshments.

*To all our Mothers, Grandmothers, Stepmothers,
 Aunts, Sisters, Daughters, Daughters In Law & Friends*

Happy Mother's Day

And to all who have gone before us, eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord!

SOUP KITCHEN/ FOOD PANTRY MINISTRY The Open Doors Soup Kitchen serves hundreds of meals a day to the less fortunate in South Norwalk. OLF parishioners assist by providing food and volunteers. The OLF Soup Kitchen/ Food Pantry Ministry is looking for help in the following ways:

Food donations - Donors provide assigned food items, such as bags of salad and a few pounds of ground beef, on a monthly basis. Food items are dropped off at the Parish Center in the days just prior to the Tuesday morning collections.

Drivers - We are currently in need of substitute drivers. For more information about this rewarding ministry, please contact Sharon Steinberg at mcsharon100@optonline.net.

FAITH FORMATION

Registration for fall Faith Formation classes will look different this year. Please watch this bulletin and wait for your emails which will announce the date registration will open.

We remind our Faith Formation students that they should be attending Mass every Sunday (or Saturday evening) throughout the summer. We look forward to seeing you in church and praying together.

Bishop Caggiano will be here to celebrate Confirmation with our candidates and their family, sponsors, and friends on Tuesday, May 12. Please keep our candidates in your prayers as they take another step on their journey of faith.

SHARING OUR FAITH

Many non-practicing Catholics may be wondering what steps they need to take to return to the Church. They should know that our loving Lord always welcomes back with open arms those who have been "away." The first step would be to go to confession at any Catholic Church, or make an appointment with a priest. There you can discuss what has kept you away and what concerns still linger. Then start attending Mass again. Read the Bible and reflect on the message. Most importantly, remember that you are not alone. Your local parish community is here to help you and our heavenly Father will guide you.

Do you know someone who has asked questions about our religion and has expressed an interest in exploring the teachings and traditions of the Catholic faith? If so, please invite that non-Catholic man or woman to learn about becoming a member of our Catholic community. Call (203-762-9080) or email (krooney@olfwilton.org) Kathleen Rooney to discuss the steps to begin the process. All are welcome!

Stories

Stories help carry on family traditions and teach the value of remembering the past. Storytelling allows family members to develop vivid images of events, even if they were not personally present. Stories that include a child or family member's journey of faith can provide examples of how everyone's relationship with Christ can be ever-growing and lifelong.

Baptism Stories

Children who were baptized as infants or at a very young age will have no recollection of the Sacramental event. Parents, grandparents, godparents, and even older siblings can share details about the very special day with the younger child. Who was there, how and why were the godparents chosen, what did the child wear, and how significant was the day for the family?

Our Charge: Match Works with Words

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Occasionally, it is good for us to take the time to analyze why we do what we do. Inevitably we conclude that we humans often have a way of complicating things that are actually simple. At Christmas time I often think of loving parents compelled to set up some toy or game in the wee hours of Christmas morning with a maze of instructions and diagrams not easily followed even when they are wide awake. Or I remember a time when I had to assemble a piece of IKEA furniture using a set of their tedious instructions.

Religious beliefs and practices often suffer from the same circumstances. Granted, we have a digest of the faith in the Nicene Creed we recite every Sunday at Mass. This is helpful. But then we look at the Catechism given to us by the Church and see a book with hundreds of teachings filling its pages.

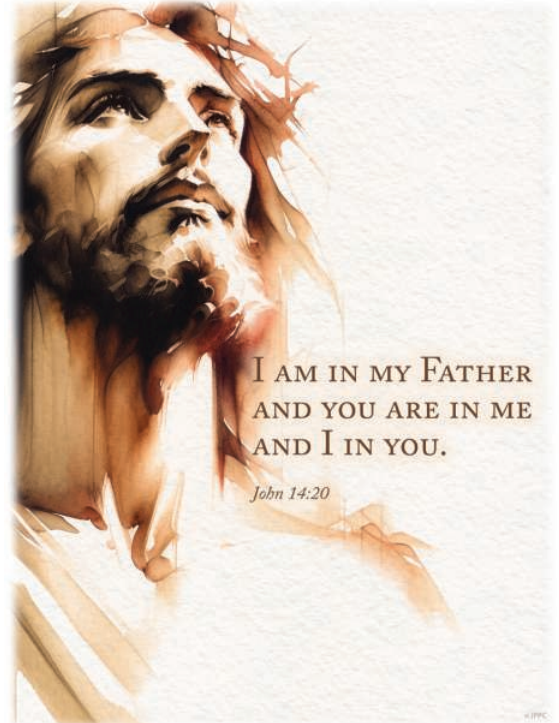

It is true that life itself can sometimes be complicated, especially in our computer-driven world. But the elements of true religion, especially our own, come down to simple basics easily found in the Scriptures we hear each Sunday or more. Today we have one of them clearly stated in the Readings chosen. In the Acts reading, we find Philip preaching successfully to the Samaritans, which leads to many baptisms. Then Peter and John are invited to bless and confirm this new idea of welcoming Gentiles.

St. Peter in his Letter urges us to know what we are talking about when we present the Faith to others, and to do so calmly when people raise questions.

Finally, the Gospel reminds us that the Holy Spirit dwells in the Church as our guide to the truth. Most importantly, our commitment to Christ is proven by works and not merely by words. Words are often cheap enough. Works are always precious, even if they are sometimes simple. The mission you and I inherit through Baptism requires that our words and our works match. Simple enough. It is difficult sometimes to live out.

I like the following quote about faith. "Every tomorrow has two handles: we can take hold of it by the handle of anxiety or by the handle of faith."

God love you and give you Easter peace.

Come Visit This Spring

It's five years since Bishop Frank Caggiano came to Our Lady of Fatima parish on Aug. 15, 2020 to bless and dedicate our Philip Tai Lauria Memorial/Prayer Garden. It is inspiring to see people come by to remember in prayer family members and friends whose names have been inscribed on the granite plaques and pavers placed on and around the cruciform structure.

In his comments that day, the Bishop described the memorial as "a garden of dedication and remembrance," calling it "a great gift" to the parish.

The garden is a spiritual oasis in the midst of a busy community. Benches on either side of the structure provide comfort to those who use the space as a place to reflect and pray.

Close to 75 plaques are in place. More are available. Information on how to purchase a space is available at the Parish Office: (203) 762-3928; bookkeeper@olfwilton.org.
