MINISTRY

We welcome the newly Baptized into the family of Our Lady of Fatima Parish:

Owen Matthew Brown
Owen Molloy

Congratulations to their parents, family, and friends.

Membership in the Knights of Columbus is open to all men 18 years of age or older who are practicing Catholics. Meetings are monthly in the Parish Center at 7:30 PM for one hour. The Knights are a very active volunteer group that help out the Parish in many ways. Male Parishioners interested in becoming a Knight may attend any meeting or request further info from Mike Healy, Grand Knight at: Wilton-KnightsOfColumbus@gmail.com. Next meeting is June 15.

The Columbiettes are a Catholic women's organization dedicated to Faith, Hope, and Charity, members work to promote spiritual, social, and charitable welfare, supporting churches, and community projects. Open to Catholic women 18 years or older. Next meeting June 17.

SOUP KITCHEN/ FOOD PANTRY MINISTRY

The Open Doors Soup Kitchen serves hundreds of meals a day to the less fortunate in South Norwalk. The OLF Soup Kitchen/ Food Pantry Ministry is looking for help in the following ways:

- Food donations - Donors provide assigned food items, such as bags of salad and a few pounds of ground beef, on a monthly basis. Food items are dropped off at the Parish Center in the days just prior to the Tuesday morning collections.

- Drivers - OLF volunteers regularly transport rescued food donations (mostly produce and baked goods) from the Village Market and the Wilton Stop and Shop to the Open Doors Food Pantry and Person to Person, both in South Norwalk. Pick-up time is after 9:00 AM, with deliveries within the morning hours. We are currently in need of drivers to make regular Thursday pick-ups (one to three times a month), as well as all-important substitute drivers.

For more information about this rewarding ministry, please contact Sharon Steinberg at mcsharon100@optonline.net.

FAITH FORMATION

Registration for Faith Formation classes will soon be open. Families will receive notification through email. If you are new to the Faith Formation program, please contact the office at 203-762-9080 and we will add you to our email list. It is best to register early, as once classes are filled, students will be placed in homeschool.

Reminder to parents: If your child will be receiving Confirmation in the next 2-3 years, you may want to take advantage of the summertime to accumulate some service hours which are required for reception of the sacrament. Please keep track of the service and the hours. A signature of a supervisor is required, so be sure to ask for that!

SHARING OUR FAITH

If you know Catholic people who have been away from Church and the sacraments, please assure them that the Church wants them back. Catholic roots are deep and many of those who have been inactive want to receive Holy Communion again. Encourage them to take another look at the Church and tell them that Jesus loves them and will welcome them back with open arms. An appointment with a priest is the first step. Any priest will welcome your call.

Are you or anyone you know interested in exploring the Catholic Church as your church home? Have you been sitting in the pew next to your Catholic spouse or other family member for years wondering what you have to do to become Catholic? This is a challenge to all of you who might know someone who fits one of the above descriptions: Invite that person to accompany you to Mass or a parish event. Be a welcoming example of our Catholic community. Suggest joining a small group of inquirers with no strings attached. Contact Kathleen Rooney (krooney@olfwilton.org) for more information.

Sacred Steps

Sacred Steps, a resource of the First Witnesses initiative, provides age-specific guidance to help parents raise faith-filled children, focusing on key developmental stages when children naturally learn the language and practices of faith. Organized around the three formational themes of The Institute for Catholic Formation, the resource offers practical ways to nurture faith in Generation Alpha and help children integrate belief into daily life.

Recognizing that many young families may have limited faith formation themselves, Sacred Steps emphasizes the importance of beginning faith formation earlier than ever and engaging the entire faith community in supporting children. Central to this mission is discipleship, helping children learn to live their faith through the example of caring adults who model prayer, service, respect, and concern for others, especially those in need.

Through this accompaniment, children gradually grow into disciples who can one day guide others in faith. For additional suggestions, parents can visit Sacred Steps at FirstWitnesses.com.

Dare to Be Exactly What God Wants You to Be

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

The popularity of TV game shows is proof positive that a lot of us like watching other people deal with both opportunity and choice. No matter which option they choose, there are always consequences. It is the nature of the game and the fun it provides.

Our lives, however they may be demeaned by some as a "game," are so much more. Certainly, more than TV shows. True, they involve both opportunity and choice, but the consequences are much more significant and lasting than prize money or some game show reward.

Robert Frost's poem celebrates people who take "the road less traveled by." The poet celebrates exceptional souls unafraid to be different. I believe we can confidently count the Twelve men Jesus chose as His Apostles to be just such special people.

Granted that the initial choice of them was all the Lord's, yet each man responded positively to the call according to his unique nature. For all their acknowledged limitations, each man knew from the start that following this most charismatic a Leader as Jesus of Nazareth surely was the right decision and the only choice that mattered.

It did not take long for each of the Twelve to realize that there were consequences attached to the Lord's choice. True, they may have enjoyed some of the acclaim Jesus received in His short public life in their days as preachers. But for sure they suffered for their loyalty and dedication to Him.

Sadly, we know that one of them experienced enough disillusion to become a traitor. All but one of them fled their positions at Christ's side on the very day it mattered most. Only the youngest out of the Eleven stayed with Him at the foot of the cross. Yet all but John died as martyrs.

We can all learn from their stories. To start, there is their very ordinariness that offers us encouragement if we are willing to admit that is us as well. None of them, for example, excelled as business leaders. No high scholarly degrees or academic honors came their way; they were none of them stars in the worlds of Arts and Literature. But oh, how they turned out to be models of faith, hope, and charity! Of loyalty and love of God. Champions of that rare human achievement of being exactly what God wanted them to be, and of doing His holy will to the best of their ability.

The following worthwhile opinion is attributed to Theodore Roosevelt:

It is not the critic who counts, not the one who points out how the strong man stumbles or how the doer of deeds might have done better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred with sweat and dust and blood, who strives valiantly, who errs and comes short again and again; who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions, and spends himself in a worthy cause; who, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly. That his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat.

God love you and give you His peace.

SAVE THE DATE

Most Reverend Frank Caggiano will celebrate the Annual Diocesan Wedding Jubilee Mass on Saturday, October 3, 2026 at 11 AM at the Cathedral of St. Augustine in Bridgeport.

Couples celebrating their 25th, 40th, 50th, and more years of marriage are eligible to attend. All couples are recognized at the Mass and will receive a commemorative certificate in recognition of this important milestone in their married life in addition to pictures with the Bishop. To register: Sharon.Colihan@diobpt.org or call 203.416.1454.

Come Visit Our Spiritual Oasis

It's almost six years since Bishop Frank Caggiano came to Our Lady of Fatima parish on Aug. 15, 2020 to bless and dedicate our Philip Tai Lauria Memorial/Prayer Garden. It is inspiring to see people come by to remember in prayer family members and friends whose names have been inscribed on the granite plaques and pavers placed on and around the cruciform structure.

In his comments that day, the Bishop described the memorial as "a garden of dedication and remembrance," calling it "a great gift" to the parish.

The garden is a spiritual oasis in the midst of a busy community. Benches on either side of the structure provide comfort to those who use the space as a place to reflect and pray.

Close to 75 plaques are in place. More are available. Information on how to purchase a space is available at the Parish Office: (203) 762-3928; bookkeeper@olfwilton.org.
