Please, please try to get you Appeal pledge into the Diocese! Did you know that if we make our goal by June 30, anything over the goal is given back to the parish?

Rosimar came to the new Catholic Charities' Thomas Merton Family Center in search of a meal for her and her family, but she discovered so much more. In need of additional services, including case management, immigration legal assistance, and groceries, Rosimar and her husband worked with the dedicated staff to help secure the basic needs that we all take for granted. It was hard work, but under Catholic Charities' new family center model, Rosimar and her family were able to utilize these services and had access to even more vital programs in one convenient location. Now Rosimar is a Thomas Merton Family Center Ambassador, volunteering her free time and paying it forward to help others in need. Gifts to the Appeal support Catholic Charities of Fairfield County and help guest like Rosimar and their families when they need it most. Your gift is more than just money. It provides hope and a chance for a better tomorrow. You can help Catholic Charities expand its family center model throughout the Diocese so guests can access the services they need in one location with dignity and respect. Supporting the Bishop's Appeal unites us as "One in Christ" to help the needy and most vulnerable, providing supportive services that enable families to rise out of poverty, overcome barriers and achieve self-sufficiency and independence. To learn more please visit: www.2025BishopsAppeal.org. Thank you for your support.

Our Lady of Fatima, Wilton raised 194 gifts worth $114,925 from 169 donors bringing the parish to 82.09% of its $140,000 goal.

To make a gift, or for more information, please visit us at 2025BishopsAppeal.org, call (203) 416-1470. Thank you!

FAITH FORMATION

Congratulations to Chan Hoang who received Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist last weekend. We wish him God's blessings as we welcome him to our family of faith here at Our Lady of Fatima.

Reminder: Parents, it is time to register your first through eighth grade students in the Faith Formation program. We have already received several registrations, and children are placed in a class on a first come-first served basis. Priority is given to parishioners. When classes are filled, the remaining children will be placed in homeschool. We are excited about our plans for the 2025-26 school year, and we pray that parents, teachers, students, and staff will have a faith filled experience.

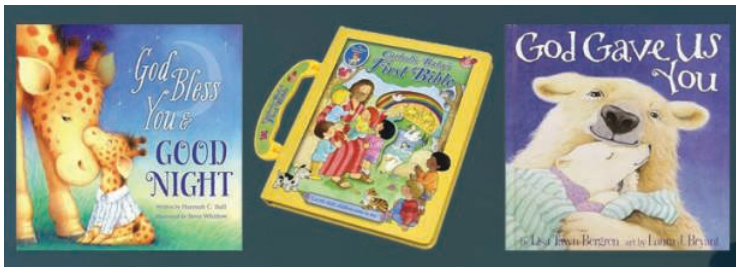

SHARING OUR FAITH

People wander from the church for a variety of reasons. How can we reach out to inactive Catholics and help them return to their family of faith? Invite them to contact a priest to discuss the issues that have kept them away and assure them that they will be welcomed unconditionally. Offer to accompany them to Mass. Encourage them to pray---and pray with them. Many have mentioned that they wanted to become active in their faith once again but did not know how to begin the process. Be their guide.

Is there a non-Catholic member of your family, friends, co-workers, or other acquaintances who have expressed an interest in knowing more about the Catholic Church? If so, please tell them that the OCIA process is made for them. There are gatherings with two parishioners at a time that is mutually convenient. At these gatherings, topics of Church teachings are discussed/explained. Scripture readings are explored and connections with our lives are made. There is time for questions and clarifications. If you know someone who may want to "come and see," please contact Kathleen Rooney (krooney@olfwilton.org).

Faith Books for Kids

Early childhood books introduce the faith in fun and engaging ways. Board books (0-2 yrs.) are sturdy and durable. Examples include "God Bless You and Good Night" by Hannah Hall and "Catholic Baby's First Bible" by Judith Bauer. A great picture book (3-5 yrs.) with engaging illustrations is "God Gave Us You" by Lisa Tawn Bergren.

Knowing the Truth about God

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

A genuine gift and quiet joy comes into our lives with all true friendship and any other form of love between ourselves and another person. Both are bound up by the self-revelation of one to the other. Priceless. The true "Spice of Life."

The Gospels reveal that one of Our Lord's "jobs" was to teach us as much about God as our tiny minds could handle. To get His message we must put aside the popular picture given to us by artists over the centuries that can be a drawback to grasping the truth of the matter. You know the one I mean. God the Father is portrayed as an old man with a white beard, somewhat resembling the writer, Mark Twain; Jesus is a handsome young man in His prime; and the Holy Spirit is a bird with a neutral expression, and all Three surrounded by rays of light. A harmless depiction at its root but not always helpful. Who, for example, wants to pray to a bird?

The reality we celebrate on this feast of the Most Holy Trinity is not just the fact of their reality, but also of its implications for our lives. Three distinct Persons existing in love as one God is beyond our understanding. Despite St. Patrick's shamrock example, there really is nothing in creation for accurate comparison. We will never understand it. Still, God wants us to know the truth of Himself.

The implications of that truth are several. First, that God wants us to know Him as He is to the best of our ability so that we will love Him. Second, that we are created to share ourselves fully with Him in reciprocal love. Third, that the bond between us and God ushers into our hearts the assurance that we are never alone as we walk the road of this earthly passage of ours.

It doesn't take long in living life to know dark times. They are a test of our love for sure, on a purely human level as well as the divine. But knowing the Holy Trinity cares for us energizes our faith and trust. The pain of those inevitable bouts of loneliness can never strangle our hearts because the grace of God is all powerful, a warm "hug" of consolation like no other. It surpasses even that of our earthly father, whom we honor this calendar day.

No wonder then that we should always be ready to give "Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and forever! Amen."

God love you.

Praise the Holy Trinity

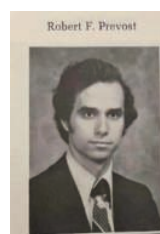

Some truths, like the very existence of God, can be known by human reason alone. Other truths, like the fact that God is One in Three Persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – can only be known if God reveals them to us. We could never conclude on our own that God is a Trinity. Today's Feast is not only an opportunity for thanking God for telling us more about himself. It is an occasion to take courage as we strive for deeper unity within the human family. God reveals himself to us in order to make us more like himself – not just as individuals, but as families, nations, and an international community. We grow in unity as we give ourselves away to one another, just as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit give themselves to each other completely.

Pope Leo likes to play Wordle!

In a light moment before stepping into one of the most sacred decisions in the Church, Pope Leo was playing Wordle! According to his brother, the soon-to-be pontiff squeezed in a quick puzzle session right before the Conclave—proof that even popes enjoy a little brain game before making history.

He has a Bachelor's degree in Mathematics.

Our new pope graduated with his Bachelor of Science in Mathematics from Villanova University in Pennsylvania in 1977. This is a unique academic path for a man who would one day become pope!

COME AND VISIT OUR PRAYER GARDEN

It's almost five years since Bishop Frank Caggiano came to Our Lady of Fatima parish on Aug. 15, 2020 to bless and dedicate our Philip Tai Lauria Memorial/Prayer Garden. It is inspiring to see people come by to remember in prayer family members and friends whose names have been inscribed on the granite plaques and pavers placed on and around the cruciform structure.

In his comments that day, the Bishop described the memorial as "a garden of dedication and remembrance," calling it "a great gift" to the parish.

The garden is a spiritual oasis in the midst of a busy community. Benches on either side of the structure provide comfort to those who use the space as a place to reflect and pray.

Close to 70 plaques are in place. More are available. Information on how to purchase a space is available at the Parish Office: (203) 762-3928; bookkeeper@olfwilton.org.
