PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

June 25	12:30 p.m.	Duplicate Bridge
---------	------------	------------------

Peter's Pence Collection is taken up next weekend, June 28-June 29. Through this collection, we help Pope Leo XIV reach out in love to those in need.

The purpose of the Peter's Pence Collection is to provide the Holy Father with the financial means to respond to those who are suffering as a result of war, oppression, natural disaster, and disease. Pope Leo XIV encourages us to "open our eyes and see the misery of the world, the wounds of our brothers and sisters who are denied their dignity, and let us recognize that we are compelled to heed their cry for help!"

Especially in these times, your generosity allows the Pope to respond to our suffering brothers and sisters. Please give generously and know that in doing so, you become a witness to the love of Christ and support the charitable work of Pope Leo XIV all around the world.

Please, please try to get your Appeal pledge into the Diocese! Did you know that if we make our goal by June 30, anything over the goal is given back to the parish?

The Diocese of Bridgeport's campus ministry, under the name of Fairfield County Catholic Student Union (FCCSU), serves the needs of college students located within the diocese at the universities and community colleges located within its boundaries. Within campus ministry, following the roadmap laid out in "The One", we strive to create and uplift the communities at each college, fostering a relationship amongst the students with the Lord. With an emphasis on spiritual formation, evangelizing (and teaching others how to evangelize), and learning to live a life of faith transfigured in truth, beauty, and goodness, the campus ministry efforts in the diocese are an ongoing effort to reach young adults at a critical point in their lives, where they begin to form habits for the rest of their lives. - Robert Pascale, Director of Campus and Young Adult Ministry, Diocese of Bridgeport. Thank you for your support of young adults across our Diocese through the Bishop's Appeal. To learn more please visit: www.2025BishopsAppeal.org.

Our Lady of Fatima, Wilton raised 194 gifts worth $114,925 from 169 donors bringing the parish to 82.09% of its $140,000 goal.

To make a gift, or for more information, please visit us at 2025BishopsAppeal.org, call (203) 416-1470. Thank you!

Famous Meals in the Bible

Several meals in the Bible carry deep spiritual meaning and highlight the importance of gathering in faith. One of the most significant is the Last Supper, the final meal Jesus shared with His disciples before His crucifixion, during which He instituted the Sacrament of the Eucharist. Another well-known account appears in all four Gospels: the miraculous feeding of the five thousand, where Jesus multiplied five loaves and two fish to feed the crowd. At the wedding at Cana, Jesus performed His first public miracle by turning water into wine, revealing His divine nature and blessing the celebration. These biblical meals remind us of the sacredness of sharing a table in Christ. They become moments of encounter, nourishment, and spiritual growth.

SHARING OUR FAITH

OCIA (formerly RCIA) is a process through which adults and children of catechetical age are prepared to become fully initiated into the Catholic Church. Its purpose is to provide instruction in Catholic teachings, encourage private reflection and prayer, as well as guidance to deepen faith and integrate into the parish community. OCIA is for those who have never been baptized and want to receive Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist in the Catholic Church, those who have been baptized in another Christian tradition and wish to be received into the full communion of the Catholic Church through reception of Confirmation and Eucharist, and baptized Catholics who have not been fully initiated. Please contact Kathleen Rooney (krooney@olfwilton.org) if you know someone who may be interested in becoming a part of OCIA.

Do you have a neighbor, friend, family member or co-worker who has been away from active practice of the Catholic Faith? Encourage that person to contact any priest to begin the way back to Mass and the sacraments. We are not whole without him or her.

The tragic murder of Minnesota State Representative Melissa Hortman and her husband, along with the wounding of State Senator John Hoffman and his wife, has sent shockwaves across the nation—and particularly through people of faith. As Catholics, we are called not only to mourn but also to seek truth, justice, and healing.

Catholics may find themselves asking, where is God in such horror? Our faith teaches that even in the darkest moments, God's light shines. The Church's witness has always been strongest in times of persecution and pain. As followers of Christ, we are called to pray for the dead, comfort the wounded, and work toward a society where such violence is unthinkable.

This event reminds us of our duty to uphold the dignity of life and the sanctity of peace in public discourse. While a motive remains unclear, what is evident is the real threat violence poses to democratic life and the safety of those called to public service. The recovered target list included not only Hoffman and Hortman, but also Minnesota Governor Tim Walz, U.S. Rep. Ilhan Omar, and U.S. Sen. Tina Smith (ABC News).

As Catholics, let us respond with prayer and action—asking God to heal the wounded, welcome the departed, and convert hearts consumed by hatred. As St. John Paul II said, "Do not be afraid. Open wide the doors for Christ." Even now, especially now, we must be witnesses to hope.

Jesus Is Not an Aloof Figure

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Just to satisfy my curiosity in preparing this piece, I browsed the web to find out how many commercial products carried the word "miracle" in their label. I stopped at 12, which I thought fit well with the number of our first bishops, the Apostles. There is Miracle Whip, a kind of salad dressing; Miracle-Gro, a plant and garden fertilizer; then Miracle Rice, Noodles, Fruit Berries, Moo, a milk supplement; Oil, Elixir, Honey, Curls (for hair), Organics, and Prostate pills. Enough is enough.

My point is that we must be careful in how we toss around certain words like "miracle" because we can cheapen, or even lose, the use of the word in a religious context. Today's feast of "Corpus Christi" has the pleasant-sounding Latin name for the Most Holy Body and Blood of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Before coming to reflect on this ultimate miracle, there are a few general comments. Miracles are a certification of holiness present, as when something like a cure is attributed to a person slated for canonization. They are proofs not only of God's existence but also of His power. Above all, they manifest His goodness and love.

The Holy Eucharist that we celebrate today is certainly in that last category. Jesus knew quite well that it certainly is not our "fault" that we have been born and raised 2,000 years plus from the holy days that He walked on this planet. How could He project His presence to benefit all those who believe in Him? How could He guarantee that "all those who are weary and heavily burdened" experience His comforting presence?

He answered those needs in the context of the Jewish Passover meal of His people. St. Paul describes it in today's Second Reading from first Corinthians, the oldest account of the event, preceding the Gospels.

When Jesus added the instruction to the astonished men with Him around the table: "Do this in memory of Me," He created His first priests. Their successors live among us even now. Through them, the Mass is with us even daily, until time comes to an end.

So, as we gather and "proclaim Christ's death until He comes again" we celebrate this priceless gift. Among its many good effects is the fact that He wants to be close to us, and not to be thought of as an aloof figure living beyond the cosmos. Dare we not reciprocate?

Allow me to quote St. Maximilian Kolbe, the Franciscan priest who was executed at Auschwitz prison camp: "If angels could be jealous of men, they would be so for one reason: Holy Communion."

God love you and give you His peace.

Eucharistic Citizenship

"The Eucharist ... spurs us on our journey through history and plants a seed of living hope in our daily commitment to the work before us. Certainly the Christian vision leads to the expectation of "new heavens" and "a new earth" (Rev 21:1), but this increases, rather than lessens, our sense of responsibility for the world today. I wish to reaffirm this forcefully at the beginning of the new millennium, so that Christians will feel more obliged than ever not to neglect their duties as citizens in this world. Theirs is the task of contributing with the light of the Gospel to the building of a more human world, a world fully in harmony with God's plan."

-- Pope John Paul II, Ecclesia de Eucharistia, 2003

COME AND VISIT OUR PRAYER GARDEN

It's almost five years since Bishop Frank Caggiano came to Our Lady of Fatima parish on Aug. 15, 2020 to bless and dedicate our Philip Tai Lauria Memorial/Prayer Garden. It is inspiring to see people come by to remember in prayer family members and friends whose names have been inscribed on the granite plaques and pavers placed on and around the cruciform structure.

In his comments that day, the Bishop described the memorial as "a garden of dedication and remembrance," calling it "a great gift" to the parish.

The garden is a spiritual oasis in the midst of a busy community. Benches on either side of the structure provide comfort to those who use the space as a place to reflect and pray.

Close to 70 plaques are in place. More are available. Information on how to purchase a space is available at the Parish Office: (203) 762-3928; bookkeeper@olfwilton.org.

SAINTS FUN FACTS

by John Sheppard

When he was 30 years old he began preaching on the banks of the Jordan river against the evils of the time. He attracted very large crowds.

He called men to penance and baptism for the "kingdom of Heaven" was close at hand.

It is I who should be baptized by You.
