SHARING OUR FAITH

If you know Catholic people who have been away from Mass and the sacraments, please assure them that the Church wants them back. Catholic roots are deep and many of those who have been inactive want to receive the sacraments again. Encourage them to take another look at the Church and tell them that Jesus loves them and will welcome them back with open arms. A call to any priest is the first step.

Do you know anyone who is interested in exploring the Catholic Church as your church home? Invite that person to attend Mass with you or accompany you to a parish event. Be a welcoming example of our Catholic community. You may want to suggest joining a small group of inquirers with no strings attached. Contact Kathleen Rooney (krooney@olfcatholic.org) for more information.

Sunday Family Rosary

Join every Sunday night at 7:30 pm to pray the Rosary together. All are welcome and families of all shapes and sizes are encouraged to take turns leading us in prayer. The Rosary will also be live-streamed on YouTube each week. The link <https://formationreimagined.org/sundayfamilyrosary/>

Annual Diocesan Jubilee Mass is on Saturday, October 4 at 11 am at the Cathedral of Saint Augustine in Bridgeport. Couples celebrating their 25th, 40th, 45th, 50th and more years of marriage are eligible to attend. All couples who are recognized at the Mass will receive a commemorative certificate in recognition of the important milestone in their married life.

'A Bargain' or 'To Bargain'?

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Nouns and verbs are the playthings of grammarians. You might better call them "tools" for their teaching. The word "bargain" can be both noun and verb. It is also a theme running through our First and Third Readings.

As a noun, "bargain" can be that bright shiny object in the Home Depot, or Macy's or Amazon.com catalog that suddenly appears with a lower price tag than a former one you saw. "Bargain" as a verb is that clever, if not sometime deceptive type of plea process whereby one person wants a different decision from another person and uses an appealing item of enticement to get it.

In our First Reading from the Book of Genesis, Moses is depicted as the master bargainer with no less a personage than God Himself.

He keeps lowering the number of good men needed to stay the Lord's hand from destroying Sodom. A patient, lenient God eventually "gives in."

I hardly believe the ancient author of the book is recommending that method of prayer to God. Rather let it be his intent to underscore the appeal that good people have to the God who made us. They atone, as it were, for the rest of us, who so often squander our use of free will.

The Gospel gives us The Lord's Prayer, as its formal title implies. The prayer brings forth the idea of "bargain" as both noun and verb. As a noun, we could certainly agree to what a "bargain" this prayer is! It gives us the perfect pattern for all our other prayers, especially private ones. We should then begin with adoration and praise of God and only then add in our petition(s). Do you see the rudeness in jumping right in to asking for what we want from the Lord?

"Bargain" as a verb is implied in the Lord's Prayer. It comes with our plea to be forgiven. We offer God our promise to forgive those who have "trespassed against us" before we ever ask for our own forgiveness. Humility marks this perfect prayer. It has the right words for any occasion.

Speaking of the right words, we have a comment on that from our American author Mark Twain, the man who gave us Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn. He once said: "The difference between the right word and the almost-right word is the difference between lightning and the lightning bug."

God love you and give you His peace.

An Anniversary Coming Up!

It's almost five years since Bishop Frank Caggiano came to Our Lady of Fatima parish on Aug. 15, 2020 to bless and dedicate our Philip Tai Lauria Memorial/Prayer Garden. It is inspiring to see people come by to remember in prayer family members and friends whose names have been inscribed on the granite plaques and pavers placed on and around the cruciform structure.

In his comments that day, the Bishop described the memorial as "a garden of dedication and remembrance," calling it "a great gift" to the parish.

The garden is a spiritual oasis in the midst of a busy community. Benches on either side of the structure provide comfort to those who use the space as a place to reflect and pray.

Close to 70 plaques are in place. More are available. Information on how to purchase a space is available at the Parish Office: (203) 762-3928; bookkeeper@olfwilton.org.
