Second Reading: Romans 8:35, 37-39
Gospel: Matthew 14:13-21

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Aug. 4	10 a.m.	Soup Kitchen Food Pickup
Aug. 5	12:30 p.m.	Duplicate Bridge
Aug. 7	1 hour	First Friday Adoration after Mass

SUMMERTIME FIRST FRIDAY ADORATION
PLEASE NOTE that during THE SUMMER we will have Benediction and Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament for one hour after the 9 a.m. Mass Friday, August 7.

There are two more weekends for the sale of the raffle tickets. At the time this bulletin is being written, we have sold 641 tickets which is $16,000. The parish will receive back half of that money which brings us to $8,000. We were hoping for at least a $10,000 goal that will go towards the refresh of the Parish Center. That refresh will include new painting, new floor, updated lighting and new cabinets for the kitchen area and overall kitchen refresh. The project has been started by Mike Healy who dedicated his time and talent by removing the sound boards, retaping the ceiling and patching it and hand sanding the ceiling. Since this is a community room –won't you consider helping by supporting the raffle? Thank you.

SOUP KITCHEN/ FOOD PANTRY MINISTRY

The Open Doors Soup Kitchen serves hundreds of meals a day to the less fortunate in South Norwalk. The OLF Soup Kitchen/ Food Pantry Ministry is looking for help in the following ways:

- ♦ Food donations - Donors provide assigned food items, such as bags of salad and a few pounds of ground beef, on a monthly basis. Food items are dropped off at the Parish Center in the days just prior to the Tuesday morning collections.
- ♦ Drivers - OLF volunteers regularly transport rescued food donations (mostly produce and baked goods) from the Village Market and the Wilton Stop and Shop to the Open Doors Food Pantry and Person to Person, both in South Norwalk. Pick-up time is after 9:00 AM, with deliveries within the morning hours. We are currently in need of all-important substitute drivers.

- ♦ For more information about this rewarding ministry, please contact Sharon Steinberg at mcs Sharon100@optonline.net.

Save The Date

Sept. 18 in the back of the Parish Center (outside)- join us for the annual

Parish Picnic

6-9pm

Pizza (Gluten Free Available), Caesar Salad, pulled pork sliders, cheeseburger sliders, hot dogs, loaded Nachos, chicken tenders, potato salad, cole slaw! Lemonade, assorted soft drinks, cookies, brownies and s'mores.
BYOB and see you there!

MAHJONG!

Any interest in playing (no teaching) games of Mahjong on Tuesday evenings in the Parish Center? Please contact Jen Felipe at 240.778.5144.

FAITH FORMATION

It's that time of year again...Project Backpack!

Once again Wilton Social Services has asked for our help in providing children in need with back to school essentials. If willing and able, please purchase a new Large Black or Navy backpack. We ask that along with the backpack you purchase a $50+ gift card to either Walmart or Staples. Please return backpacks to the Parish Office by Sunday, August 9th. School supplies have become quite expensive, and we greatly appreciate your help in ensuring that every child in Wilton has what they need to make it a great and successful school year!

We are gearing up for another great Faith Formation year and look forward to welcoming your children on Sundays after Mass.

- Deadline: Registration closes September 1st.
- Early Bird Offer (OVER): Please go to olfwilton.org and under Faith Formation, find the registration link
- Capacity: Classes are filling fast. If in-person sessions reach capacity, remaining children will be placed in our homeschool program.

Please submit your registration as soon as possible to secure your child's spot.

Calling all 2025–2026 homeschool families! To ensure your upcoming registration is processed, please complete the following step:

- Required action: Drop off last year's completed work and books.
- Contact persons: Deliver all materials directly to Kathleen or Alison.
- Drop-off location: Visit the Parish Office to return items.

Registration policy: New sign-ups remain on hold until materials arrive.

SHARING OUR FAITH

Are you or anyone you know interested in exploring the Catholic Church as your church home? Have you been sitting in the pew next to your Catholic spouse or other family member for years wondering what you have to do to become Catholic? This is a challenge to all of you who might know someone who fits one of the above descriptions: Invite that person to accompany you to Mass or a parish event. Be a welcoming example of our Catholic community. Suggest joining a small group of inquirers with no strings attached. Contact Kathleen Rooney (krooney@olfwilton.org) for more information.

There's a Priesthood We All Share In

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

August could be called "the month for daydreamers." I say that guardedly because not all of us are on vacation. But a lot of people are. Those lucky souls have the chance to stare up into the sky from wherever they go to relax and daydream as they note the shape of the clouds. Or they could lie back on the beach sand or their backyard hammock and think deep thoughts along with their dreams. May I suggest one such thought that would not arise immediately, but it is encompassed by the famous story we read in the gospel for today? It is "the priesthood of the laity."

Obviously, there is what the Church calls "the ministerial priesthood." This is the one instituted by Christ at the Last Supper table when He told his baffled Apostles to "Do this in memory of Me." That's the priesthood of the ordained gentlemen who graduated from a seminary.

But we can turn to St. Paul's writings to tell us what the Church has steadfastly taught, and still does, about another priesthood more common and fundamental, namely the "priesthood of the faithful." Paul writes: "Through Baptism all the members of the Church share in the priesthood of Christ."

Now this doesn't mean that you should start shopping for Mass vestments. Or look for the nearest seminary. Rather, does this teaching give a formal name to what you have hopefully been living your whole life. That is, living as Christ would if He were in your place. It also encourages you "to share their ordained priests' anxieties and help them as far as possible by prayer and active work so that they may be better able to overcome difficulties and carry out their duties with greater success." (Vatican II, no.9)

So, you and I are in a certain partnership with Christ to continue His work here below. In that way, we are assured of a spot in the "place above." Just by your example of being here at Mass to worship God on an August Sunday when so many "so-called Catholics" who should be here are not. This priesthood we share makes us both like the boy in this closing story who is flying his kite.

The boy's kite was so high that it had disappeared into the clouds. A man came by and asked, "Why are you holding on to that string?" The boy said, "I've got a kite up there." The man looked up and said, "I don't see it." The boy replied, "Well, I know it's there because I can feel the tug."

That's like the tug we all feel from time to time in our hearts, which lets us know that God is for real and He cares for you. That's a fact, and not a summer daydream.

God love you and let you feel His tug this week.

God's angels are all around you

Each morning, St. Germaine would stick her staff in the ground in the middle of her flock. An angel would come to watch the flock while she left to attend Mass. Despite wolves in the area, she never lost a sheep.

St. Josemaria Escriva would greet the guardian angel of each person he met before shaking the hand of the person. He'd unite the meeting with the will of the angel for that person and pray for God's will in their conversation and time together.

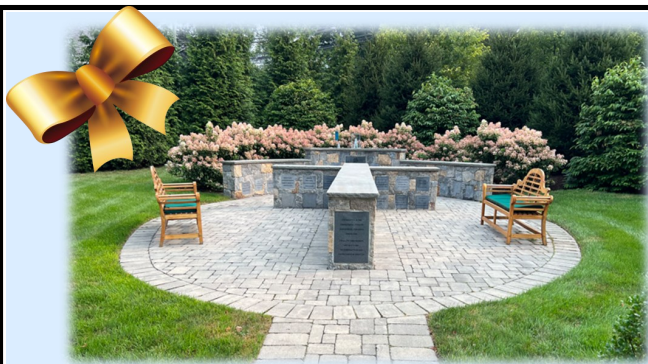

When St. Isidore, a farmer from Spain, went to Mass in the early morning while his coworkers went to the fields, two angels appearing as young men would plow and cultivate his plot so he wouldn't have to miss Mass.

Pope Leo XIII composed the St. Michael Prayer after receiving a terrifying vision of the future of the Church, entrusting the Church to her guardian - St. Michael.

Most importantly, Jesus himself had deep friendship with the angels who ministered to him in his moments of suffering.

Follow the saints in their love and gratitude for the angels. It's the fastest way to grow in holiness. Take time to learn about guardian angels and their unique purpose in your life.

And, perhaps most wonderfully, you will learn how to discern the angels' actions in your life and grow in awareness of their presence all around you.

Anniversary Coming Up

It's almost six years since Bishop Frank Caggiano came to Our Lady of Fatima parish on Aug. 15, 2020 to bless and dedicate our Philip Tai Lauria Memorial/Prayer Garden. It is inspiring to see people come by to remember in prayer family members and friends whose names have been inscribed on the granite plaques and pavers placed on and around the cruciform structure.

In his comments that day, the Bishop described the memorial as "a garden of dedication and remembrance," calling it "a great gift" to the parish.

The garden is a spiritual oasis in the midst of a busy community. Benches on either side of the structure provide comfort to those who use the space as a place to reflect and pray.

Close to 75 plaques are in place. More are available. Information on how to purchase a space is available at the Parish Office: (203) 762-3928; bookkeeper@olfwilton.org.

SAINTS FUN FACTS

by mario d. macari

WHILE SAINT DOROTHY LAY DYING, MARTYRED FOR HER FAITH IN OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, A PAGAN LAWYER CRUELLY MOCKED HER SAYING THAT SHE SHOULD SEND HIM "SOME APPLES OR ROSES FROM HEAVEN" SINCE THEY WERE BOTH CURRENTLY OUT-OF-SEASON IN THE MIDST OF WINTER AND IMPOSSIBLE TO GET. SAINT DOROTHY JUST SMILED AND DIED.

THE LAWYER WAS EXTREMELY SHOCKED LATER THAT DAY WHEN A SMALL CHILD APPEARED AT HIS FRONT DOOR WITH THREE FRESHLY PICKED APPLES AND THREE FRESHLY PICKED ROSES.

THE LAWYER BECAME A CHRISTIAN AND LATER DIED A MARTYR AS WELL.
