FAITH FORMATION

It's that time of year again...Project Backpack!
Once again Wilton Social Services has asked for our help in providing children in need with back to school essentials. If willing and able please purchase a new Large Black or Navy Backpack.

We ask that along with the backpack you purchase a $50+ gift card to either Walmart or Staples.

Please return backpacks to the Parish Center by Sunday, August 10th. Please know we do accept monetary donations and will purchase the backpacks and gift cards for you if you are unable to do so yourself. We greatly appreciate your help.

Faith Formation classes for 2025-26 are quickly approaching! If you have not yet registered, please do so this week. All registration is done online by going to olfwilton.org, clicking on Faith Formation and registration. Complete the form and submit. Once classes are filled, remaining students will be placed in homeschool.

Faith Formation catechists will meet on Sunday, August 10, in the Conference room, after the 9:30 Mass. We look forward to working together to form good disciples among our students! We are grateful for the willingness of our catechists to make the commitment to mentor our first through eighth graders.

OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) is the process through which non-Catholic adults explore the teachings and traditions of the Catholic Church. If you know a person who is interested in learning more about our faith, please contact Kathleen Rooney (203-762-9080) for information on the first steps to take. We welcome all inquirers!

Is there someone in your life who was born and raised a Catholic but no longer practices his/her faith? Reach out to this person and encourage him/her to make an appointment with a priest to talk about the issues that are of concern. This is an opportunity to celebrate Mass & the sacraments as an active Catholic!

Wisdom From Billy Graham

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

We can all easily see that scene from books, plays, or movies called "The Reading of the Will." A group of people are gathered in a lawyer's office to hear him read out the terms of what a deceased supposedly "loved one" has decided for his inheritors to receive. We picture the expressions on the faces. Some are tearful. Some are dry-eyed and intense.

As the narration progresses, the expressions change. One thing for sure: any scowls among them mean we're in for some rough scenes ahead. Some mayhem; maybe even murder. And it's all about m-o-n-e-y.

The theme of today's Scriptures is all about the foolishness of making much ado about financial wealth. In a culture like our own, complete with the "haves" and the "have nots," we know that for many people money matters are the only "matters" that matter! Therefore, it's almost "un-American" to agree with Christ's perspective, which He makes clear in the parable He tells us today.

So, the cultural question becomes "Who is right?" Do we rush to extremes to justify our own outlook, whatever that may be? Proffer such lame excuse as "I work hard for my money and I can keep it all if I want to," permitting one to hold back from donating any of it? Or "the Church is always asking for money and that's not right for any religious group"? This, even when the need the Church is trying to meet, is to help fellow human beings in dire straits?

In other words, we are adept at finding reasons to keep a tight grip on our wallets and purses. Sometimes our observations are on target when truths emerge about funds deliberately mishandled by so-called charitable organizations like Churches. But it all comes down to the cold fact that we can't take it with us. As the late Billy Graham put it, "You never see an armored car behind a hearse."

Another less obvious but certifiable fact: we all have a scheduled appointment with our Maker that we cannot cancel or avoid. He is the one who preached the parable we hear today, and He will be running the meeting.

One of God's many characteristics is that of generosity. He made us all from nothing and gives us everything our eyes can see, and our brains imagine. So, there's no doubt about His generosity. What about yours and mine? Here's a helpful little ditty that can make you smile and decide:

"Do your givin'
While you're livin';
Then you're knowin'
Where it's goin'."

God love you and give you His generous Heart.

An Anniversary in 12 Days!

It's almost five years since Bishop Frank Caggiano came to Our Lady of Fatima parish on Aug. 15, 2020 to bless and dedicate our Philip Tai Lauria Memorial/Prayer Garden. It is inspiring to see people come by to remember in prayer family members and friends whose names have been inscribed on the granite plaques and pavers placed on and around the cruciform structure.

In his comments that day, the Bishop described the memorial as "a garden of dedication and remembrance," calling it "a great gift" to the parish.

The garden is a spiritual oasis in the midst of a busy community. Benches on either side of the structure provide comfort to those who use the space as a place to reflect and pray.

Close to 75 plaques are in place. More are available. Information on how to purchase a space is available at the Parish Office: (203) 762-3928; bookkeeper@olfwilton.org.

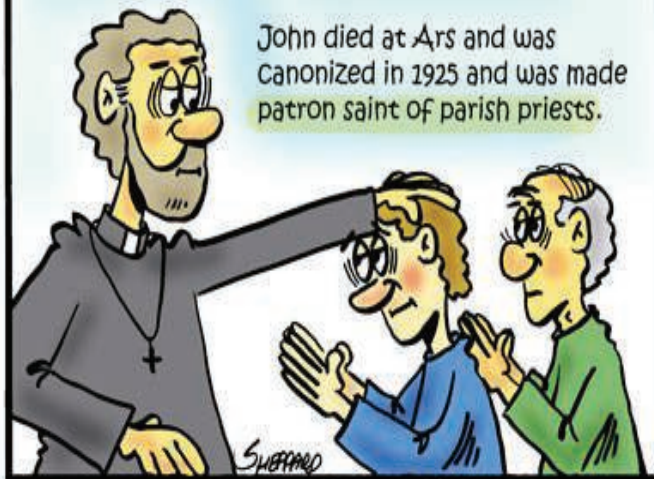

SAINTS FUN FACTS

by John Sheppard

St John Baptist Vianney was born in France in 1786. After being drafted into the Army, he deserted and returned home and entered the seminary in 1813.

He was assigned to Ecully and in 1818 he became Cure, as pastor of Ars. He worked 16 to 18 hours a day working in the confessional, administering the Sacrament of Penance, or Reconciliation.

John died at Ars and was Canonized in 1925 and was made patron saint of parish priests.
