SHARING OUR FAITH

If you know Catholic people who have been away from Church and the sacraments, please assure them that the Church wants them back. Catholic roots are deep and many of those who have been inactive want to receive Holy Communion again. Encourage them to take another look at the Church and tell them that Jesus loves them and will welcome them back with open arms. An appointment with a priest is the first step. Any priest will welcome your call.

Are you or anyone you know interested in exploring the Catholic Church as your church home? Have you been sitting in the pew next to your Catholic spouse or other family member for years wondering what you have to do to become Catholic? This is a challenge to all of you who might know someone who fits one of the above descriptions: Invite that person to accompany you to Mass or a parish event. Be a welcoming example of our Catholic community. Suggest joining a small group of inquirers with no strings attached. Contact Kathleen Rooney (krooney@olfwilton.org) for more information.

NEW THIS YEAR

We are having a Pumpkin Patch as a fundraiser this year. Not only will it build community among us—it will raise money that will help offset the reconstruction of the Parish Center.

More information will be forthcoming—but if you are looking for something to do to help—we can always use volunteers. Please call the office if you'd like to help. 203-762-3928.

Forgiving Isn't Always Easy

When it happened to me, it felt like what I imagine a heart attack might feel like. Sudden, surprising, painful. The pain came from information relayed by a person who was, at the time, one of our diocesan officials in the clergy office. He told me what another priest had said in a negative critique of me. The assessment came from someone I happened to admire. Hearing his judgment of me hurt doubly for that very reason.

While this took place many years ago, the incident springs to mind immediately whenever I think of our good Lord's admonition found in today's Gospel: "So will my heavenly Father do to you unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart."

Boy, is that hard to do sometimes! There have been similar examples in my life, but the one I cited stands out the most because of the hurt. After that wears off with time, a certain justifiable anger can still well up within us. We start creating a line of defense witnesses as we put the offending one on an imaginary trial in the courtroom of our minds.

In His human nature, Our Lord knew all about such hurt and anger. After all, He was like us in all things but sin. But listen again to those words of His as He hung, the victim of hate, on that Roman cross of pain and punishment: "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."

So, despite any and all efforts we might make to get out from under this teaching of His—and some of us are quite clever about that—we must either obey Him or walk away. It's the biggest mistake any of us can make, once we know and believe Him to be the Son of God: the One who really practiced what He preached, the One who loves us despite ourselves.

Once upon a time, a friend of Clara Barton, the founder of the American Red Cross, reminded her of an especially cruel thing that had been done to her years before. But Miss Barton seemed not to recall it.

"Don't you remember it?" her friend asked.

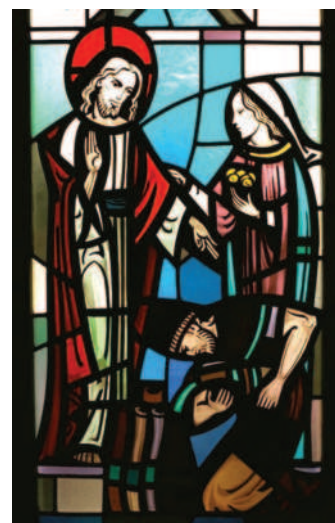

"No," came the reply. "I distinctly remember forgetting it."

You can't be free and happy if you harbor grudges, so put them away. Get rid of them. Collect postage stamps or collect coins, or model trains, if you wish—but don't collect grudges.

God love you as you collect new graces in your life.

Parables

Teaching children about the parables is a wonderful way to help them understand the important lessons of Jesus through memorable and engaging stories. In the Parable of the Unforgiving Servant (Matthew 18:21–35), Jesus tells of a servant whose enormous debt is completely forgiven, but who then refuses to show the same mercy to someone who owes him much less. Through this dramatic contrast, Jesus teaches us that God's mercy and forgiveness are gifts we could never earn, and that receiving this mercy should change the way we treat others. This parable can help your child understand that Jesus calls us to forgive again and again, not simply with our words, but from our hearts, sharing with others the mercy that God so generously gives to us.

Have You Visited Lately?

It's six years since Bishop Frank Caggiano came to Our Lady of Fatima parish on Aug. 15, 2020 to bless and dedicate our Philip Tai Lauria Memorial/Prayer Garden. It is inspiring to see people come by to remember in prayer family members and friends whose names have been inscribed on the granite plaques and pavers placed on and around the cruciform structure.

In his comments that day, the Bishop described the memorial as "a garden of dedication and remembrance," calling it "a great gift" to the parish.

The garden is a spiritual oasis in the midst of a busy community. Benches on either side of the structure provide comfort to those who use the space as a place to reflect and pray.

Close to 75 plaques are in place. More are available. Information on how to purchase a space is available at the Parish Office: (203) 762-3928; bookkeeper@olfwilton.org.

SAINTS FUN FACTS

by mario d. macari

SAINT JOHN OF THE CROSS, THE GREAT SPANISH MYSTIC, WAS ONCE A MENTOR TO THE COUNTESS OF FERIA. THE COUNTESS ENTERED THE ORDER OF POOR CLARES, AND BECAME KNOWN AS THE "SPOUSE OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT" FOR HER RELENTLESS AND TIRELESS HOURS BEFORE JESUS. WHEN ASKED WHAT SHE DID AT THOSE TIMES, SHE RESPONDED:

"GOOD LORD! I'M ASKED WHAT I DO IN HIS PRESENCE! WHAT DOES A POOR MAN DO IN THE PRESENCE OF A RICH MAN? WHAT DOES A SICK PERSON DO IN THE PRESENCE OF HIS DOCTOR? WHAT DOES A THIRSTY MAN DO AT THE WELL? WHAT DOES A STARVING PERSON DO BEFORE A TABLE LADEN WITH FOOD? HE IS RICH; HE IS THE PHYSICIAN; HE IS THE FOUNTAIN; HE IS THE BREAD FROM HEAVEN, AND HIS LOVE FOR US IS SO GREAT THAT HE DIED THAT HE MIGHT DWELL AMONG US. WHY? THAT HE MIGHT ENRICH US, HEAL US, REFRESH AND NOURISH US!"
