AN OPEN INVITATION FOR YOU TO BECOME A NOCTURNAL ADORER

For more than 50 years, the Nocturnal Adoration Society has been a living spiritual treasure in the heart of our parish. For one hour a month, on the First Friday from October to June, a team of two or three Nocturnal Adorers has rotated overnight to keep prayerful vigil with Him before the Blessed Sacrament.

Part of the hour, we recite from a book of prayers. Then we sit in quiet private reflection, allowing us to seek His graces as we thank Him for the gifts He gives us in the course of our personal life. One Nocturnal Adorer calls it, "The best hour of my month." The spiritual blessings are enormous. Come join us.

For more information, ask Father Paul (pastor@olfwilton.org) or our coordinator, Brian Highland (olfnocturnaladoration@gmail.com). Or speak with a Nocturnal Adorer. Names are available from Nancy O'Connell at the Parish Office. Call (203) 762-3928.

September 27th
1:00 on the front circle.

OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY WEEKEND Oct. 3 and 4

All Sunday Masses will use the Votive Mass of Our Lady of the Rosary. The homily will reflect on the place that Our Lady plays in our lives as Christians. It will explain the power of the Rosary as a prayer of the heart, pleasing to God. Prayer cards are available at the Church doors.

FAITH FORMATION

Faith Formation students in grades six through eight will meet at the 4:30 Mass next Sunday, October 4, Class begins after Mass and student pickup is at 6:30 in the church parking lot. The next Mass for students in grades one through five is at 9:30 on October 18. Parents should meet their children in the classroom at dismissal time (11:30).

Confirmation Service hours are available on Saturday, October 17, at the meal packaging event at the WEPCO complex on New Canaan Road. See details of this amazing experience in another section of this bulletin.

Reminder to parents whose children are registered in homeschool for Faith Formation this school year: If you have not yet picked up your child's book, please come to the Faith Formation office (located within the Parish office).

SHARING OUR FAITH

If you know Catholic people who have been away from Church and the sacraments, please assure them that the Church wants them back. Catholic roots are deep and many of those who have been inactive want to receive Holy Communion again. Encourage them to take another look at the Church and tell them that Jesus loves them and will welcome them back with open arms. An appointment with a priest is the first step. Any priest will welcome your call.

Are you or anyone you know interested in exploring the Catholic Church as your church home? Have you been sitting in the pew next to your Catholic spouse or other family member for years wondering what you have to do to become Catholic? This is a challenge to all of you who might know someone who fits one of the above descriptions: Invite that person to accompany you to Mass or a parish event. Be a welcoming example of our Catholic community. Suggest joining a small group of inquirers with no strings attached. Contact Kathleen Rooney (krooney@olfwilton.org) for more information.

NEW THIS YEAR

We are having a Pumpkin Patch as a fundraiser this year. Not only will it build community among us—it will raise money that will help offset the reconstruction of the Parish Center.

If you are looking for something to do to help—we can always use volunteers. Please call the office if you'd like to help. 203-762-3928. Check out the signup genius to look for a shift that will work.

Admit Sin and Then Trust in God

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Whether it's part of a printed piece or an electronic one, we all know the contrast offered by those "before and after" ads. Non-users of the product always look glum or dejected. But users? Ah, they look so happy and bright, smiling at us with the joy that the given product brought into their lives. As we ponder a purchase, we consider that we, too, deserve to be smiling and happy.

Today we are given a parable in the Gospel passage, namely the "Parable of the Two Sons." Granted, it's not as familiar to us as parables like the "Prodigal Son" or the "Good Samaritan," but it has its distinct teaching purpose. That is, the different reactions of two groups of people to the teaching of John the Baptist. Remember that John, Our Lord's cousin, had the task of preparing the world for Christ's coming through repentance. It reminded me of those reactions in "before and after" ads.

There is a non-smiling group, namely Israel's leaders, the Scribes and Pharisees, who simply do not accept what John is saying. Their faces are sad and their mood is cynical. The smiling group, on the other hand, is made up of those who accept what John is saying. They are happy hearing about a way out from under their sinful condition.

Raising the stakes quite a bit, we hear the ultra-important teaching of Our Lord Himself about all this. He proposes an outlook on our part that includes, first of all, the admission of our sins and then trust in Him. Do we believe in Jesus' approach? Or do we agree with the notion that, generally, I'm doing OK in the sin department and I have very little to repent?

Here I can imagine a cartoon depiction of a sad-faced sinner outside the confessional before going in. In the next scene, he or she is smiling and happy, exiting the confessional fully prepared for a halo. Saying this, I do not mean to cheapen what God does for our lives when we repent. My experience tells me that most sinful habits involve a kind of wrestling match between our resolve and temptation. Yet I, and we, must always remember that even the striving to improve means we want to love Jesus even more than we have. That's our ultimate relationship.

The Church asks us to pray this weekend for migrants and refugees. Normally an easy task. But today these people have become controversial. From our comfortable perches as approved good citizens, we must not look down on these brothers and sisters. Their anxious faces reflect uncertainty. The "before" look of fear. May our own outlook and our prayers for them bring to their faces the "after" look of acceptance, hope, and love. After all, that's what God gives all of us each day as we migrate, with hope and determination, to reach our common heavenly home.

"Not all the teeth put into our laws are wisdom teeth." — Anon.

Wi-Act's Rise Against Hunger Meal-Packaging Event is on Saturday, October 17th at WEPCO!

It's time to package those meals that provide lifegiving sustenance wherever the need is greatest at the time of our Event!

This year, the Event will be packaging its 2-millionth meal (about 2/3rds of the way through the day), and Wi-Act is going for 190,000 meals this year (up from 150,000 meals last year) and is adding a fifth shift to make that record number possible.

You can choose your shift time by going to the link for OLF listed below.

Shifts are from 9-11 am, 11-1 pm, 1-3 pm, 3-5 pm, and 5-7 pm. However, the 3-5 pm shift will have principally a youth focus (though children and youth are welcome on all shifts, of course).

Children as young as 7 can register with their parents, and youth 13 and up can register on their own.

You will have a great time working to lively music, knowing that what you are doing is lifesaving for the children to whom these meals will be served in educational settings where they can be nourished in mind as well as in body.

This is a great opportunity for those who need service hours. Join the many volunteers who will be doing a work of mercy on October 17!

OLF link for adults and youth to sign up is <https://signup.com/go/gGhLdoR>

Have You Visited Lately?

It's six years since Bishop Frank Caggiano came to Our Lady of Fatima parish on Aug. 15, 2020 to bless and dedicate our Philip Tai Lauria Memorial/Prayer Garden. It is inspiring to see people come by to remember in prayer family members and friends whose names have been inscribed on the granite plaques and pavers placed on and around the cruciform structure.

In his comments that day, the Bishop described the memorial as "a garden of dedication and remembrance," calling it "a great gift" to the parish.

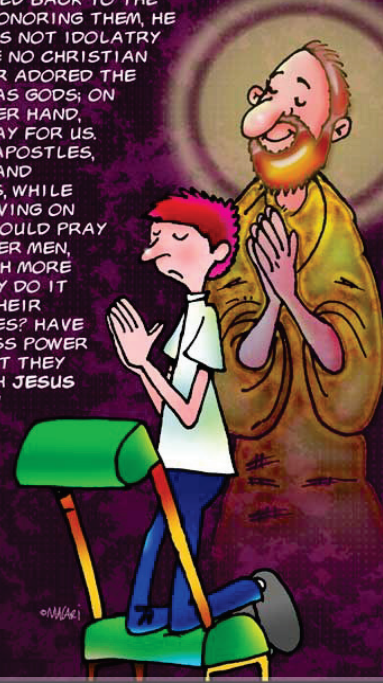

The garden is a spiritual oasis in the midst of a busy community. Benches on either side of the structure provide comfort to those who use the space as a place to reflect and pray.

Close to 75 plaques are in place. More are available. Information on how to purchase a space is available at the Parish Office: (203) 762-3928; bookkeeper@olfwilton.org.

SAINTS FUN FACTS

by mario d. macari

DO CATHOLICS WORSHIP SAINTS OR THEIR RELICS?
SAINT JEROME, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH, HAS THE ANSWER: "WE DO NOT WORSHIP THE RELICS OF THE SAINTS, BUT HONOR THEM IN OUR WORSHIP OF HIM WHOSE SAINTS THEY ARE. WE HONOR THE SERVANTS IN ORDER THAT THE RESPECT PAID TO THEM MAY BE REFLECTED BACK TO THE LORD." HONORING THEM, HE SAID, WAS NOT IDOLATRY BECAUSE NO CHRISTIAN HAD EVER ADORED THE SAINTS AS GODS; ON THE OTHER HAND, THEY PRAY FOR US. "IF THE APOSTLES, SAINTS AND MARTYRS, WHILE STILL LIVING ON EARTH, COULD PRAY FOR OTHER MEN, HOW MUCH MORE MAY THEY DO IT AFTER THEIR VICTORIES? HAVE THEY LESS POWER NOW THAT THEY ARE WITH JESUS CHRIST?"
