"Shepherds After My Own Heart" is the annual drive for seminarian formation and the work of the Vocation Office. They have nearly 40 men in formation, which costs more than $70,000 per seminarian annually. The new Vocation Plan is to also provide personal support to young men as they discern their vocation. The Appeal Weekend is this weekend.

The Rise Against Hunger meal packaging event will be held on Saturday, October 18, at the WEPCO complex in Wilton (36 New Canaan Road). A combined force of 700 volunteers will be working together in two-hour shifts to get 142,000 (or more) highly nutritious meals packaged in one day. This is enough to feed over 400 malnourished children for an entire year wherever the need is greatest at the time of the event in October. Youth as young as 13 may sign up in their own names; children under that age and as young as 6 can accompany their parents who volunteer and work alongside their parents.

Each volunteer is asked to bring a non-perishable food item for food pantries, to help those in need locally.

Shift times are 9:00-11:00, 11:00-1:00, 1:00-3:00, 3:00-5:00.

GROWING FOR GOOD - Late Season News

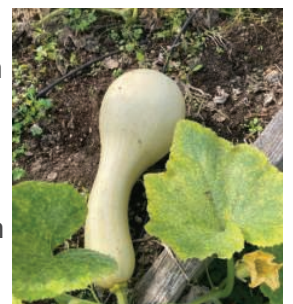

The first beautiful ears of glass gem corn from our 3-sisters indigenous tribute garden have been harvested. There is much more left, and the stalks are still supporting the golden pods of turkey crow beans as they dry, with a couple of pumpkins left, nestled at the bottom. Giant squash continues to ripen in the boxes, as well as late tomatoes and green beans. We've had a very lucky year.

Well over 400 pounds of produce has been delivered to Catholic Charities so far this year. Cover crops of oats and peas have been sown to help regenerate our soil to prepare for next year.

If you are interested in seeing the beauty in the late season garden, wander by the back of the property and take a look! If you'd like to be involved in any way please contact Kathy Rooney at roonskath@gmail.com

"All flourishing is mutual." Robin Wall Kimmerer, The Seviceberry

Each year in October, the Knights of Columbus starts a "Coats For Kids Drive" which is a charitable initiative that collects and distributes warm winter coats to children in need, to ensure they stay warm and healthy during the colder months, particularly for families facing financial hardship. This year, our drive kicks off on the weekends of October 11th and October 18th where we will be collecting after each Mass.

FAITH FORMATION

There are no Faith Formation classes next Sunday, October 12, due to the holiday weekend. The next class for grades 1-5 is on October 19. Grades 6-8 meet next on October 26.

Confirmation candidates and whoever would like to follow Jesus' example of serving others : Sign up for Rise Against Hunger to be held on Saturday, October 18. See details in another section of this bulletin. Use the time toward your Confirmation Service hours. There are four shifts available (9:00-11:00, 11:00-1:00, 1:00-3:00, and 3:00-5:00).

SAVE THE DATE: October 15, for a First Reconciliation meeting, at 6:00 PM, in church. All parents of children preparing for First Reconciliation should attend. BLESSED books which are used for home preparation will be distributed, as well as pertinent information and dates.

SHARING OUR FAITH

Do you have a neighbor, co-worker, friend, or family member who is curious about the teachings of the Catholic religion? This is a wonderful chance to evangelize! Invite him or her to attend Mass with you and ask any questions about our faith while enjoying coffee after Mass. Email Kathleen Rooney (krooney@olfwilton.org) for more information on how to welcome non-Catholics.

Those who have not been active in the practice of their faith for many years—or a few months—may be looking for a way to return. The first step is to contact a priest. Reach out to your family member, friend, co-worker, or acquaintance and ask if he/she would like you to help get the process started. Sometimes it just takes a helping hand to lead the way back.

How to Earn a Smile on the Face of Christ

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

The disasters vary, but the post-event interviews of the heroes who responded have a certain commonality. The reporter offers them praise but they almost always respond: "I was only doing my duty." Those of us with any sensitivity might even be moved to tears on hearing this. It is a certain bravery blended with sure humility. Such can restore one's faith in humanity when cynicism tries to hold sway.

Yet there are also those many smaller and very personal tragedies that include such things like temporary loss of faith and trust in God. If we have ever experienced these, we know that they rob the soul of peace. In these cases, heroism is anonymous and unknown. People like you and me, who through prayer and the support of friends have been able to triumph over the pain. We do not ever count ourselves as heroes. But God does. That is the truth to remember. It is the reward of faith.

It sometimes happens that we forget God's love for us and the support it supplies. We lose the energy it takes to be a Eucharistic person. We lapse in practice. Slowly but surely the "Mass less" Sundays pile up. We drift away from the "once upon a time" child we were the day of our First Holy Communion. And if we manage to do something good for God, we want some applause.

It is really an exceptionally good gift the Holy Spirit gives us, through this weekend's gospel passage, to remind us of a certain fact. It reflects that "full transparency" so prized in public discourse these days. What is it? This: we are unworthy of the personal and tender love of God. When we live as He asks, we are not heroes but only doers of our duty as His adopted children.

Even so, that attitude brings its own reward. What is that? The smile on the face of Christ when He notes that we are doing our best, day after day. It is the Sacred Smile we hope to see in person some fine day. The guarantee of that event is based on humility, the true touchstone of healthy spirituality. Here is a good example of that virtue in ordinary life:

Once upon a time, an ardent music lover unexpectedly met the great Johannes Brahms. On recognizing the composer, the man asked: "Master, would you please write here a small portion of a masterpiece and sign it so I can have precious memory of this fortunate encounter?"

Brahms took the pencil and paper, scribbled the initial bars of "The Blue Danube" by Johann Strauss II and signed "Unfortunately, not by me. Johannes Brahms."

God love you and be among His humble heroes.

Some and Say a Prayer Here

It's five years since Bishop Frank Caggiano came to Our Lady of Fatima parish on Aug. 15, 2020 to bless and dedicate our Philip Tai Lauria Memorial/Prayer Garden. It is inspiring to see people come by to remember in prayer family members and friends whose names have been inscribed on the granite plaques and pavers placed on and around the cruciform structure.

In his comments that day, the Bishop described the memorial as "a garden of dedication and remembrance," calling it "a great gift" to the parish.

The garden is a spiritual oasis in the midst of a busy community. Benches on either side of the structure provide comfort to those who use the space as a place to reflect and pray.

Close to 75 plaques are in place. More are available. Information on how to purchase a space is available at the Parish Office: (203) 762-3928; bookkeeper@olfwilton.org.

SAINTS FUN FACTS

by John Sheppard

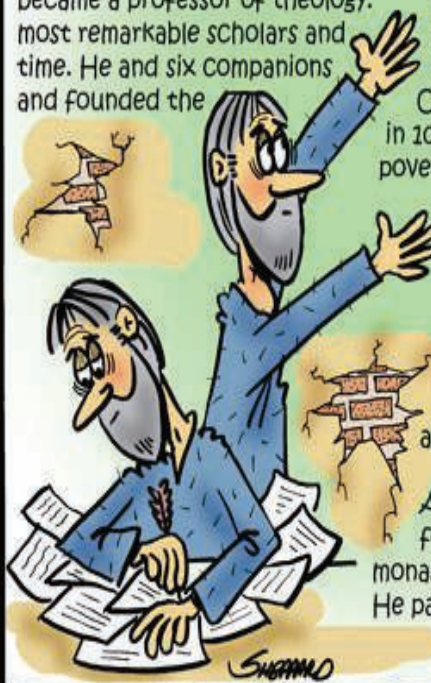

St. Bruno was born in Cologne and studied at the Cathedral in Rheims. He was ordained in 1055 and became a professor of theology.

He was one of the most remarkable scholars and time. He and six companions built a monastery and founded the Carthusians order in 1084. They embraced poverty, manual labor, prayer and transcribing manuscripts.

Their fame spread and Bruno became an advisor to the Pope.

After 6 years he founded St. Mary's monastery in Calabria. He passed away in 1101.
