Next weekend's second collection is the "World Mission Sunday" collection. The theme is Missionaries of Hope Among the People, which was chosen by Pope Francis before his death and is obviously tied to the Jubilee of Hope. That hope is the lived reality of priests, sisters, and lay peoples who are bringing the light of Christ into place darkened by suffering, war, poverty, and other existential difficulties. That hope is also a call addressed to us as shepherds, to renew in our people the fire of missionary love as together we seek to bring Christ, our Hope, to the ends of the earth. Please give generously.

Bishop Caggiano is asking for prayers as he and all the priests throughout the Diocese of Bridgeport gather at the Seventh Convocation of Priests from Sun., Oct. 12 through Wed. Oct. 15. The Convocation once again will be held at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington, NY. The purpose of the three day meeting is to strengthen the fraternal bonds among the priests and to provide a time of spiritual renewal for them so they may return with an even greater commitment to service.

Parish Offices will be closed on Mon., Oct. 13 for Columbus Day and will reopen on Tues., October 14. The Church will be open during the day and will close at 4 pm.

Thank you to everyone that contributed to this years Bishop's Appeal. We went over goal and we thank you so very much for your generosity

COATS FOR KIDS

REMINDER: the Knights of Columbus will be collecting donations for "Coats For Kids Drive" which is a charitable initiative that collects and distributes warm winter coats to children in need, to ensure they stay warm and healthy during the colder months, particularly for families facing financial hardship. They will be at the Church doors this weekend and October 18th where we will be collecting after each Mass.

The Rise Against Hunger meal packaging event will be held on Saturday, October 18, at the WEPCO complex in Wilton (36 New Canaan Road). A combined force of 700 volunteers will be working together in two-hour shifts to get 142,000 (or more) highly nutritious meals packaged in one day. This is enough to feed over 400 malnourished children for an entire year wherever the need is greatest at the time of the event in October. Youth as young as 13 may sign up in their own names; children under that age and as young as 6 can accompany their parents who volunteer and work alongside their parents.

Each volunteer is asked to bring a non-perishable food item for food pantries, to help those in need locally.

Shift times are 9:00-11:00, 11:00-1:00, 1:00-3:00, 3:00-5:00.

Become a Foster Parent

Make a profound difference in a child's life by opening your heart and home. FCA's Foster Care program matches caring adults of any relationship status or gender, with children ages 6 to 18 years old from the Connecticut Department of Children and Families (DCF). Our most successful foster parents are open-mininded, dependable, patient and willing to try different parenting styles for children with different needs. Having a flexible schedule, being tolerant, and demonstrating the ability to work as a member of our team are all important qualities for success.

For more Information, contact Jeannie House 203-523-5331 or JHouse@fcagency.org

Praying the Rosary
By tradition, the Catholic Church dedicates each month to a certain devotion. The month of October is dedicated to the Rosary, one of the best known of all Catholic devotions that included the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary (October 7). The best way to celebrate the month is, of course, to pray the Rosary. This October, Pope Leo XIV invites the faithful to pray the Rosary daily for peace in our world and to be faithful instruments of reconciliation in our daily lives.

FAITH FORMATION

There are no Faith Formation classes this Sunday, October 12, due to the holiday weekend.

Next Sunday, October 19, grades 1-5 will attend the 9:30 Mass and then move to the school for class until 11:30. Parents should pick up children at their classrooms.

The next class for the middle school Faith Formation students will begin with Mass at 4:30 on October 26, followed by class until 6:30. Pick up is in the church parking lot.

Parents of First Communicants: Be sure to save this important date---November 5 at 7:00 pm. Bishop Caggiano invites all parents whose children are preparing for First Holy Communion to a special conversation about their vital role in this spiritual milestone. Parents from seven other parishes will join us at Our Lady of Fatima.

It is not too late to sign up for the meal packaging event on Saturday, October 18. Rise Against Hunger is a great way to help those in need around the world. There are choices of shifts (9:00-11:00, 11:00-1:00, 1:00-3:00, and 3:00-5:00). Will you have time to help feed hungry children? See sign up link in this bulletin.

SHARING OUR FAITH

Do you know someone who would like to learn more about the Catholic way of life? There is a process within the Church (OCIA) through which non-Catholic adults can learn and decide if they want to become Catholic Christians. This process paves the way for an unbaptized adult to be baptized. If the adult has been baptized in another Christian tradition, then he or she is prepared to be received into the full communion of the Catholic Church. To hear more about OCIA, please call Kathleen Rooney (203-762-9080).

It is time to reach out and invite that non-practicing/inactive Catholic to return home to the Church and resume active practice. Perhaps there is someone in your family or group of friends or co-workers who just needs a person to show him/her the way back in a non-judgmental and loving manner. Find that person this week and ask the Holy Spirit to give you the words.

Remember to Say Thanks

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

It seems that Bob had agreed to paint Fred's backyard storage shed while the latter was on vacation. Well, Fred has been back from his trip for four days now, but no thanks have come Bob's way yet.

Cheryl had volunteered to babysit Maureen's twin boys for the week while Maureen visited her ailing mother. That was two weeks ago now, but Cheryl has yet to hear a word of thanks.

Charlie volunteered to tutor his friend Pete in physics for an upcoming exam. Pete did well, but Charlie was a bit peeved that he never got thanked for his efforts. Especially because Pete was not an easy student.

These three are just modern-day incidents of ingratitude that are hardly earth-shattering. But were any of us to be transported back to the days when Jesus walked the earth and did so as victims of dreaded leprosy, we would experience our whole world turned upside down. Not only would we have been cast out of our homes. We would also be banned from normal society. So, meeting up with this young Rabbi from Nazareth who offered us a cure would be a genuine Godsend. So, after certification by the priest that our cure was real, the next logical step for us would be to thank Jesus profoundly. So, as you rushed to do so, you find to your chagrin that you are alone before Him. Naturally, He asks you: "Where are the other nine?" You have no satisfactory answer.

That question of Jesus reverberates down through the tunnel of time in the face of all the indifference, neglect, and ingratitude of God's children in every age. "Where are the others?" (Well past the number 9.)

The question posed suggests an examination of conscience before every good Confession, does it not? Do we view our sins, even though they may be venial in nature, as "leprosy of the soul"?

Even though there is no banishment from visible society due to this form of "leprosy," we know in our deepest parts of mind and soul that we are "temporary outcasts" from association with His love until confession is made and absolution given. But oh! The relief afterward! The joy! The smile on Jesus' holy Face and the hug He offers is priceless!

And if you think you have nothing to thank God for, consider this truth that I found: "There is one thing for which you should be abundantly thankful—only you and God have all the facts about yourself."

God love you and give you, His peace.

Stories

Stories that include a child or family member's journey of faith can provide examples of how everyone's relationship with Christ can be ever-growing and lifelong.

Trials and Tribulations

Storytelling helps parents teach children to seek God with humility by making abstract concepts like forgiveness relatable and real. Sharing personal stories of failure and reconciliation models vulnerability and the importance of repentance. It creates a safe space for children to explore moral lessons and understand that mistakes are part of a faith journey. By hearing and telling stories, children learn how to approach God honestly, ask for forgiveness, and grow spiritually.

Share stories about when life can be hard, and how faith has a role in perseverance and finding hope.

Stop and Say a Prayer Here

It's five years since Bishop Frank Caggiano came to Our Lady of Fatima parish on Aug. 15, 2020 to bless and dedicate our Philip Tai Lauria Memorial/Prayer Garden. It is inspiring to see people come by to remember in prayer family members and friends whose names have been inscribed on the granite plaques and pavers placed on and around the cruciform structure.

In his comments that day, the Bishop described the memorial as "a garden of dedication and remembrance," calling it "a great gift" to the parish.

The garden is a spiritual oasis in the midst of a busy community. Benches on either side of the structure provide comfort to those who use the space as a place to reflect and pray.

Close to 75 plaques are in place. More are available. Information on how to purchase a space is available at the Parish Office: (203) 762-3928; bookkeeper@olfwilton.org.

SAINTS FUN FACTS

by John Sheppard

St. Luke was born in Syria and trained as a physician. He was also one of the most extensive writers of the New Testament. In addition to his gospels, he also wrote the 'Acts of the Apostles.'

He was one of 'the seventy' and worked with St. Paul, traveling to Rome and converting Jews and pagans to Christianity. He was also with Paul during several of his confinements.

Luke is also credited with being a prolific painter, creating many works of Mary and Jesus.

St. Luke is known as the patron saint of artists, physicians and surgeons.

He died at age 84 in Boeotia.
