Nov. 1	4:30 p.m.	Bereavement Mass included in the Vigil

Second Collection next weekend is the Monthly collection that helps with the needs of the Parish. You might ask yourself- what are the needs of the Parish?

Well, one of our projects we are currently working on are the modulares that are at the back of the school. Even though the school is rented out, we still need to maintain the buildings. The modulares were added to the school in the early 2000's and were supposed to be temporary. Well they have survived and have had minor updates to them, but now we need to address their condition.

November 2nd is Daylight Savings Time—remember to turn your clocks back one hour.....Saturday night

You don't have to make every session as each week will focus on the upcoming Sunday Readings. All materials will be provided and there is no cost.

ALL SAINTS DAY

On Saturday, November 1st, the Church celebrates the Solemn Feast of All Saints, and because it falls on a Saturday it is NOT a Holy Day of Obligation.

However, we will be celebrating our deceased who have passed away this past year at the Saturday evening 4:30 Mass, Nov. 1

Parish Family
Kyle, Christine & Claire Oehler

November is the month dedicated to All Souls.

All Souls Day Envelopes are available at the entrances of the Church. If you would like to have your beloved deceased remembered in our Masses, please take an envelope and make sure that you write the names of your loved ones on the envelope. The All Souls Day Envelopes will be placed on the Altar for the Month of November.

"Merciful Father, hear our prayer and console us. As we renew our faith in your Son, whom you raised from the dead, strengthen our hope that all of our departed brothers and sisters will share in His Resurrection, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Did you know?

- That when children come up for Communion who are not of age to receive Communion, that a minister other than the Priest is not allowed to bless them?
- If you need gluten free hosts, please let the Priest presiding at Mass know before Mass and try to be the last to receive.

Here's a thought!

Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen "As we enter heaven, we will see them, so many of them coming towards us and thanking us. We will ask who they are, and they will say a poor soul you prayed for in purgatory."

The Knights would like to thank you for your generous support.

You know when God keeps placing something on your heart, repeatedly, until you can no longer ignore it? Encounter God's love and mercy and be drawn back into a deep relationship with Him and His Church. We would love to have you train to be a Eucharistic Minister or a Reader for Masses. Maybe you would just like to serve the homebound or minister at a nursing home. Training is free and easy. Please call the office or let Fr. Paul know and we will be happy to lead you to the right direction. Your rewards will be plenty .

Our Lady's Association cordially invites ALL women of our Parish to our A Day Retreat & Reflection

Monday, Nov. 10 . Join us for 9 am Mass and recitation of the Rosary, then a spiritual reflection and light lunch in the Parish Center

AN OPEN INVITATION FOR YOU TO BECOME A NOCTURNAL ADORER

For more than 50 years, the Nocturnal Adoration Society has been a living spiritual treasure in the heart of our parish. For one hour a month, on the First Friday from October to June, a team of two or three Nocturnal Adorers has rotated overnight to keep prayerful vigil with Him before the Blessed Sacrament.

Part of the hour, we recite from a book of prayers. Then we sit in quiet private reflection, allowing us to seek His graces as we thank Him for the gifts He gives us in the course of our personal life. One Nocturnal Adorer calls it, "The best hour of my month." The spiritual blessings are enormous. Come join us.

For more information, ask Father Paul (pastor@olfwilton.org) or our coordinator, Brian Highland (olfnocturnaladoration@gmail.com). Or speak with a Nocturnal Adorer. Names are available from Nancy O'Connell at the Parish Office. Call (203) 762-3928.

We ask you to at least think deeply on this invitation.

FAITH FORMATION

The first through fifth grade Faith Formation students will meet at the 9:30 Mass next Sunday, November 2, and move to class at the school until 11:30. The next Mass (4:30) and class for middle school students will be on November 9. Dismissal is at 6:30, and pick up is in the church parking lot.

Confirmation will be held on Tuesday, May 12, 2026, at 6:00PM in Our Lady of Fatima Church. Eighth Grade candidates, please get your paper work in order and check due dates in your folder.

The Rise Against Hunger volunteers packed 150,300 meals for children in areas where the need is greatest. Many thanks to those who participated in this work of mercy.

SHARING OUR FAITH

Perhaps you know an inactive Catholic who would like to return to Mass and the sacraments but does not know where to begin. The first step is to contact a priest. He will listen to the issues that have been a source of discontent and help the person work through them. Through prayer and guidance, the inactive Catholic may join active parishioners in his or her community of faith. Be God's instrument in encouraging someone to come back "home."

Do you know a non-Catholic adult who is interested in learning more about the Catholic faith? Reach out to that person who may want to join us at our next inquiry session. Find out details from Kathleen Rooney (203-762-9080) or krooney@olfwilton.org.

Silent Homilies

A rosary display can encourage prayer while inviting us to meditate on Christ's life, death, and resurrection, where forgiveness and grace are most fully revealed. By keeping the rosary visible and accessible, families create a gentle call to seek God's strength, mercy, and healing each day. In this way, the Rosary is a silent homily that helps form hearts that are humble, repentant, and open to God's love.

About Mercy and Humility

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Many times, we have instances where we could rightly say that Our Lord “pulls no punches.” The term comes from the sport of boxing and refers to the boxer’s decision not to hit his opponent as hard as he very well could. Applied to a speaker, it means that he or she talks very directly, even if their words might upset a listener or two.

This weekend’s Gospel section from Dr. Luke is a good example of this. However, many Pharisees present when He told the story would naturally be very upset. Jesus paints the picture of a proud braggart praying “with himself” instead of God. The conceited man not only lines up for God all his supposed “good deeds and practices” but also makes clear to God his superiority over the tax collector in the back of the room.

No matter how much or how little we know about prayer, that man up front disgusts us, or “turns us off” if we have any appreciation of humility. There is something quite out of place when a person approaches God with a list of all their good works, implying that they are therefore worthy of special treatment. It is very much like the loud-mouthed plane passenger demanding extra attention just because he/she has a first-class plane ticket. The ticket doesn’t confer royalty of any kind on a rude rider.

The beauty of the prayer of that tax collector “standing far off” is twofold. All done with an economy of words that is itself exemplary, a quality obviously favored by Jesus over wordiness.

First, his prayer acknowledges the chief attribute of God for which we should all be grateful, and that is His mercy. Who of us would be in any position of comfort with our Maker were He not so? Our failures to return His love, our very sins, would, without His mercy, doom us to hellfire.

Secondly, there is the man’s striking humility. How we can all benefit by having large doses of that virtue present in us when we go to pray. No wonder our humble Savior told His audience that the tax collector went home “justified.”

On that matter of brevity in prayer, here is a thought from no less than Thomas Jefferson, our third president, who wrote our Declaration of Independence: “The most valuable of all talents is that of never using two words when one will do.”

God love you and be humble in His sight.

Stop and Say a Prayer Here

It's five years since Bishop Frank Caggiano came to Our Lady of Fatima parish on Aug. 15, 2020 to bless and dedicate our Philip Tai Lauria Memorial/Prayer Garden. It is inspiring to see people come by to remember in prayer family members and friends whose names have been inscribed on the granite plaques and pavers placed on and around the cruciform structure.

In his comments that day, the Bishop described the memorial as "a garden of dedication and remembrance," calling it "a great gift" to the parish.

The garden is a spiritual oasis in the midst of a busy community. Benches on either side of the structure provide comfort to those who use the space as a place to reflect and pray.

Close to 75 plaques are in place. More are available. Information on how to purchase a space is available at the Parish Office: (203) 762-3928; bookkeeper@olfwilton.org.

SAINTS FUN FACTS

Saint Simon was a cousin of Our Lord and bishop of Jerusalem. He led Christians to safety in Jordan to evade the sack of Jerusalem by the Romans. He was eventually martyred by Atticus.
