Second Collection this weekend is the Monthly collection that helps with the needs of the Parish. You might ask yourself— what are the needs of the Parish?

Well, one of our projects we are currently working on are the modulares that are at the back of the school. Even though the school is rented out, we still need to maintain the buildings. The modulares were added to the school in the early 2000's and were supposed to be temporary. Well they have survived and have had minor updates to them, but now we need to address their condition.

Second Collection NEXT weekend is the Military Services in the USA.

MINISTRY

November is the month dedicated to All Souls.

All Souls Day Envelopes are available at the entrances of the Church. If you would like to have your beloved deceased remembered in our Masses, please take an envelope and make sure that you write the names of your loved ones on the envelope. The All Souls Day Envelopes will be placed on the Altar for the Month of November.

Did you know?

- That when children come up for Communion who are not of age to receive Communion, that a minister other than the Priest is not allowed to bless them?
- If you need gluten free hosts, please let the Priest presiding at Mass know before Mass and try to be the last to receive.

Signs of Hope (Oct.)

See the Doors of Faith Opening in our Parish!

God invites us to see the "signs of hope" in our midst. Here are the sacramental celebrations and additions to our Liturgical Ministries last month.

- 2 Infants Baptized
- 7 new families have registered
- 2 Children had First Holy Communion
- 1 adult started R.C.I.A.
- 3 people were anointed and have been buried in the Catholic Faith
- Collected $3,775 for children's coats

God is at work making our Parish Family vibrant and alive! Let us all be pilgrims of encouragement and welcome them into the Doors of Faith.

"Hope does not disappoint" Romans 5:5

You know when God keeps placing something on your heart, repeatedly, until you can no longer ignore it? Encounter God's love and mercy and be drawn back into a deep relationship with Him and His Church. We would love to have you train to be a Eucharistic Minister or a Reader for Masses.

Maybe you would just like to serve the homebound or minister at a nursing home. Training is free and easy. Please call the office or let Fr. Paul know and we will be happy to lead you to the right direction. Your rewards will be plenty.

Our Lady's Association cordially invites all the women of the parish to attend its annual retreat day on Monday, November 10. Father Paul will give a presentation and lead a discussion. The day will include Mass, coffee, and muffins, Father's presentation and discussion, and time to reflect in the church after reciting the Rosary. Private confessions will be available. The day will conclude with lunch in the Parish center. Please advise Joyce Ploder at 762-3512 or Anne Novitsky at 762-7503 if you would like to join us for a day of prayer and companionship. All women are welcome!

ADORATION

What it is:

A practice of spending Time in prayer with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, which is the consecrated host.

How it works:

After Mass, consecrated hosts are placed in a special holder called a monstrance for people to pray in front of.

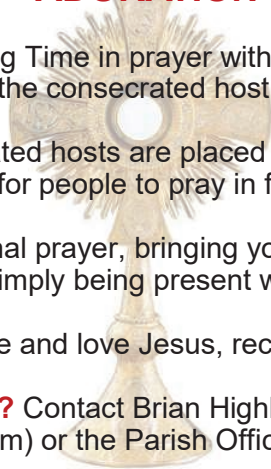

What to do:

Spend time in personal prayer, bringing your needs, desires, or fears to Jesus, and simply being present with Him.

Significance:

This moment to adore and love Jesus, recognizing His presence in the Eucharist.

Want to give it a try? Contact Brian Highland (naturebuf@gmail.com) or the Parish Office (203.762.3928)

The Parish Office including Faith Formation will be closed on Wednesday, Nov.5 due to database software training. We hope to be back at 4 p.m.

FIRST FRIDAY ADORATION OF THE BLESSED EUCHARIST will be on Nov. 7

Daytime adoration is now downstairs after the 9 am Mass and will remain there for the 9 pm nocturnal team until the 8 am Mass on Saturday. To join the Daytime Team or the Nocturnal Team, email Brian Highland at olfnocturnaladoration@gmail.com.

Remember only the center door will be unlocked for entering and exiting. Park in the front circle please.

FAITH FORMATION

Today, November 2, the elementary Faith Formation students (grades 1-5) will meet at the 9:30 Mass and move to the school for class until 11:30. Next week, November 9, the middle school students will gather at the 4:30 Mass and walk to the school afterward for class until 6:30.

Parents, if your child is receiving Communion at a Mass, please be sure that he or she consumes the host immediately.

REMINDER TO PARENTS OF FIRST COMMUNICANTS: Bishop Cagiano will be at Our Lady of Fatima to address the parents of children preparing for First Holy Communion on WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 5 from 7:00 to 8:15. All are expected to attend this meeting. Please confirm your attendance with Kathleen or Alison.

SHARING OUR FAITH

It is time to reach out and invite that non-practicing/inactive Catholic to return home to the Church and resume active practice. Perhaps there is someone in your family or group of friends or co-workers who just needs a person to show him/her the way back in a non-judgmental and loving manner. Find that person this week and ask the Holy Spirit to give you the words.

Is there a person who has asked you questions about our Catholic faith? Have you invited him or her to attend Mass with you or join you at a parish event? You can follow through with introducing him or her to a priest to continue the conversation. Now is the time!

Words for Today from St. Ambrose

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

One of the small delights in life is to discover who the composer was for a quotation that you have liked for a long time. That happened for me as I sat down to write this reflection for this special day in the Church calendar, namely "All Souls Day."

The words I have in mind are these: "We have loved them during life; let us not abandon them in death, until we have conducted them by our prayers into the house of the Lord." Beautiful thought, is it not?

I found those words years ago on the reverse side of a memorial card for someone. But that placement did not acknowledge the author. Nevertheless, I have often used them on the occasion of a funeral. Only recently was the mystery solved, when Archbishop Wenski of Miami quoted them and cited the author. They are the thoughts of no less a person than the great fourth century bishop of Milan, St. Ambrose.

St. Ambrose, as a Doctor of the Church, fought tirelessly against the Arian heresy prevalent in his time. He also was the bishop who baptized his prized pupil, St. Augustine, after having instructed his famous convert in the Faith.

I also prefer to think of St. Ambrose as the presider at many a funeral in his diocese of Milan, where he led the prayers for his people, the survivors.

Not only did Ambrose hold dear the Church's teaching about life after death, but he was also a sensitive soul attuned to the situation. His words come down to us as consolation for mourners at a funeral at any time and place. They also provide motivation for such people going forward with their lives. Remembrance of their lost loved one in such a way keeps them alive in their hearts.

Ambrose' own priestly heart was grounded in a faith perspective of the world around him. His vigor in defending the authentic Church teaching against the prevalent heresy was also part of him as a leader. The words he wrote on the occasion of a funeral had to spring from his personal prayer life. Combined with his diligent studies and his role as a teacher, they come down to us as a practical part of his heritage.

No doubt Bishop Ambrose struggled, as we all do, to maintain our faith and equilibrium in the face of a loved one's "passing." He also knew the need to call on that faith when our hearts are broken. That is precisely because "we have loved them in life."

Allow me to close these thoughts of mine with an invitation to think along with St. Ambrose and apply his words to all the faithful departed, known and unknown: "We have loved them during life; let us not abandon them in death, until we have conducted them by our prayers into the house of the Lord."

God love you and give you, His peace.

Silent Homilies

Little things can make a big difference In families where religion is transmitted successfully. Sacred objects are powerful. Statues of saints and the Blessed Mother, candles near photos of deceased members of the family, crucifixes on the wall, pictures of Jesus knocking at the door – all these can serve as silent homilies for children. These types of objects send a sacred message and serve as reminders of God's continued presence in your life and home.

One such silent homily is the Sacred Space, which can be a home altar or sacred place where one can take a moment to say a prayer, have a quiet thought, and remember departed loved ones. This space can include a crucifix, saint cards, candles, rosary beads, pictures, and small personal items of deceased family members. This practice can help children remember and pray for loved ones who have passed.

Stop and Say a Prayer Here

It's five years since Bishop Frank Caggiano came to Our Lady of Fatima parish on Aug. 15, 2020 to bless and dedicate our Philip Tai Lauria Memorial/Prayer Garden. It is inspiring to see people come by to remember in prayer family members and friends whose names have been inscribed on the granite plaques and pavers placed on and around the cruciform structure.

In his comments that day, the Bishop described the memorial as "a garden of dedication and remembrance," calling it "a great gift" to the parish.

The garden is a spiritual oasis in the midst of a busy community. Benches on either side of the structure provide comfort to those who use the space as a place to reflect and pray.

Close to 75 plaques are in place. More are available. Information on how to purchase a space is available at the Parish Office: (203) 762-3928; bookkeeper@olfwilton.org.
