Taizé Prayer Service

Please join us in Church at 7pm on THURSDAY 12/11 for a meditative Advent Taizé prayer service. It is a perfect time to take a break from the hustle and bustle of the holiday season and focus on the coming of the Lord with song and prayer.

Next weekend the second collection supports the Retirement Fund for Religious. Support those who have dedicated their lives to service-praying, teaching, and caring for those in need-usually for little to no pay. Today, their religious communities do not have enough retirement savings. Your donation provides for the essential care, medicine, and daily needs of thousands of senior women and men religious. Please give generously.

2026 Calendars are available at the Church doors compliments of Collins Funeral Home.

This weekend is known as Accountability Sunday. All parishes publish financial reports. Our year runs July 1, 2024 to June 30, 2025. Statements can be found at the Church doors and on our website: www.olfwilton.org.

Advent invites us to slow down and prepare our hearts for Jesus—but with the world's constant noise and pressure, finding peace can feel impossible.

This Advent, let's say no to being overwhelmed by the secular world and yes to the overshadowing of the Spirit.

MINISTRY

THE GIVING TREE is in the Parish Center. Be an angel and take an angel card. We thank you all for such a quick response to the Giving Tree. Your generosity has been overwhelming. Please return the gifts by the weekend of December 14th to the Parish Center or Office. As always, we thank you for your generosity.

We are in need of more Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers

If you are interested in one of the ministries, we will gladly help you. We send you the link to take a course, we will show you how to get Virtus trained and then train you to be a minister. Liturgical ministry is an excellent opportunity to fulfill your baptismal call of service to one another. This engaging liturgical celebration utilizes the talents and gifts that God has given this community to the fullest extent. Whether participation is through "behind the scenes" preparation and planning or through a public role of service within the Mass, such as reader or Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion (EMHC), your participation brings life to our celebrations. Call the office 203.762.3928 and get started!

We welcome the newly Baptized into the family of Our Lady of Fatima Parish:

Lilly Britt Kryvyy

Congratulations to her parents, family, and friends.

SHARING OUR FAITH

Is there someone who comes to Mass with you and perhaps attends parish activities? If so, have you ever asked him or her to consider learning more about our religion? Why not invite your non-Catholic friend or family member to call Kathleen Rooney (203-762-9080) to learn about OCIA, a process through which inquirers explore the teachings of the Catholic Church? As Christmas approaches, think about how you can be God's instrument in bringing our Catholic faith to others. What a wonderful gift!

Is there a piece of your heart that longs to be reunited with your parish family and join with them in the Eucharistic celebration? If you or someone you know has not received the sacraments for a period of time---long or short---please know that there are priests who can help you re-join the Catholic community. Any priest would feel blessed to help one who has been "away" from active practice of our faith to return and feel spiritually alive once again through reception of the sacraments. Don't hesitate to call one.

If your child has received First Holy Communion and would like to be trained to be an Altar Server, please call the office to let us know so Fr. Paul can start a class.

Learning the Truth in a Meaningful Way

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Those of us of "a certain age" became educated by a process called "Rote Learning." You'll recognize it as I define it here: "a memorization method that relies on repetition and drilling to commit information to memory without necessarily understanding the underlying concepts." It is a technique for retaining specific facts, like the times table, historical dates, and vocabulary, and that allows for quick recall, but it does not foster critical thinking, or deep comprehension of the subject matter. In addition, with the passage of time, we have learned that rote learning does not prepare youngsters for higher education and does not usually build knowledge. Yet, for all that last critique, I can quickly recall $9 \times 6 = 54$ when I need it, without turning to my smart phone.

All of this brings us to consider how the ancient Hebrews in Our Lord's audience had no choice but rote learning. This was underscored by the twin facts that there was no printed matter to refer to, and for the common folk at least, no way to read if there had been.

No wonder, then, that Our Lord, as the Master Teacher, would tell stories to bolster their knowledge of truth, with what we would call today "meaningful learning." For example: How to be a good neighbor? Consider the classic parable of "The Good Samaritan."

Even we moderns can learn from John the Baptist's living example and his preaching, what the short season of Advent is all about. He doesn't tell stories, like his cousin does. But watching him and listening to him is enough. He tells us to "Repent, because the Kingdom of heaven is near." That kingdom was afterward personified by the Infant in the manger.

In practical terms, observing Advent could mean some deliberate fasting before the coming feasting. Or scheduling some quiet time away from the hustle and bustle of these weeks to pray. Certainly, the making of a good confession in Advent is a good idea, because it clears away the debris from the "stable" of our souls to welcome Jesus.

Of course, there are other ways to learn besides the two I have mentioned. Not necessarily all pleasant. We have this story of a man who wanted to train his mule. The first thing he did was to pick up a big stick and hit the mule with a resounding wallop between the ears. As the mule staggered about, someone said to him "What's the matter with you? Why did you do that awful thing? The man said. "Listen, to teach a mule, you must first get his attention."

Poor mule! Yet anybody who has taught knows you need the attention first. Let the Advent season get our attention for authentic prep for Christmas.

God love you and have a good Advent week.

Stories

Stories that include a child or family member's journey of faith can provide examples of how everyone's relationship with Christ can be ever-growing and lifelong.

Trials and Tribulations

Stories can be about family trials and tribulations and faith's role in perseverance and finding hope. When there are setbacks in life, our relationships can be a meaningful source of stability and guidance; this is especially the case with Jesus Christ. Telling your children about your faith and encounters with Christ when you needed him the most can be powerful.

Come Pray During Advent

It's five years since Bishop Frank Caggiano came to Our Lady of Fatima parish on Aug. 15, 2020 to bless and dedicate our Philip Tai Lauria Memorial/Prayer Garden. It is inspiring to see people come by to remember in prayer family members and friends whose names have been inscribed on the granite plaques and pavers placed on and around the cruciform structure.

In his comments that day, the Bishop described the memorial as "a garden of dedication and remembrance," calling it "a great gift" to the parish.

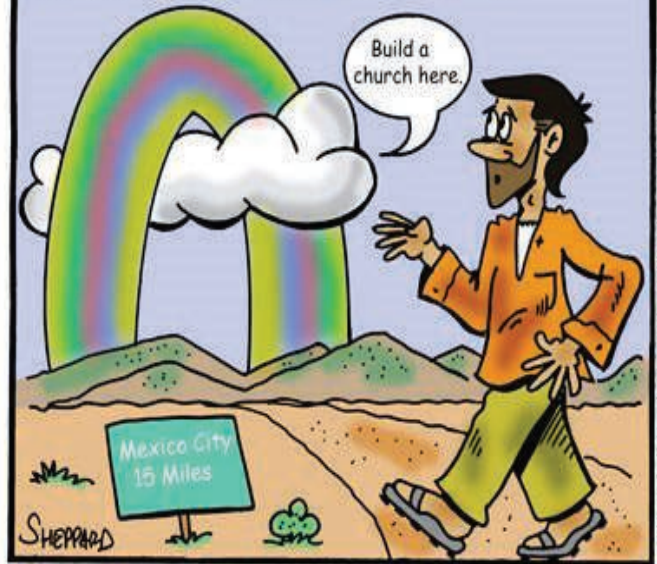

The garden is a spiritual oasis in the midst of a busy community. Benches on either side of the structure provide comfort to those who use the space as a place to reflect and pray.

Close to 75 plaques are in place. More are available. Information on how to purchase a space is available at the Parish Office: (203) 762-3928; bookkeeper@olfwilton.org.

SAINTS FUN FACTS

by John Sheppard

St. Juan Diego was born in Mexico in 1474. One day on his daily 15 mile trek to Mass, the Virgin Mary appeared to him. She was in a cloud surrounded by a rainbow. Juan was asked to tell the bishop to build a church on that site. Asking for proof, the bishop relented when Juan brought him flowers from the proposed site that were not even native to Mexico.
