Happy New Year once again and many thanks for all the cards and gifts that were sent to the office. We are truly blessed and we thank you.

This month brings us some much needed help for Fr. Reggie. First, let us welcome back Deacon Tony. We are so grateful to have him healthy again and with us. You will see him assigned to a Mass and if there is a * next to TC—that means he will be preaching.

This month we also welcome back Fr. James (JV) who so kindly has agreed to help us. As you know, he is the Stamford Hospital Chaplain now.

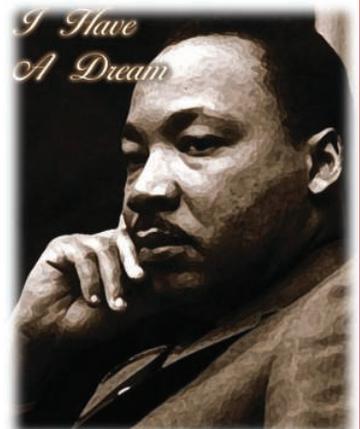

Fr. Cyrus Bartolome (CB), Pastor of Assumption Church in Westport will also help us a bit this month

And Fr. Paul Sankar (PS), who is the Norwalk Hospital Chaplain, will also be helping out this month. We are so grateful to them all for giving some much needed rest to Fr. Reggie.

And speaking of which, I am not sure if you realize this but Fr. Reggie has been asked to join the folks in Birmingham this Martin Luther King weekend. It is quite the honor and privilege for him to go. Fr. Reggie will be the keynote speaker after the walk at the Martin Luther King breakfast!

“This was the method that Jesus used with the apostles. He put up with their ignorance and roughness and even their infidelity. He treated sinners with a kindness and affection that caused some to be shocked, others to be scandalized, and still others to hope for God’s mercy. And so he bade us to be gentle and humble of heart”.

Anne DeSantis from Holy Cross Ministries, lists three ways you and your family can honor the Blessed Mother throughout the coming year.

The Church celebrates the Solemnity of Mary on January 1 each year, and this feast honors Mary’s motherhood. It is also the eighth day of Christmastide and a very special time of the liturgical year. Our Blessed Mother deserves our time and attention on all her beautiful feast days; we should love and honor her in the greatest of ways. Here are three ways to grow deeper in devotion to Mary in the new year and beyond.

THE ROSARY

There is no greater way to love and give time and attention to Our Lady than in praying the Holy Rosary. The Rosary is the greatest prayer as it encompasses the Gospel of Christ, her Son. The mysteries of the Rosary are all about the paschal mystery of Our Lord and Savior, Jesus. Each one invites us to pray with Mary on the life of Christ. Gather the family around for the Rosary as often as possible. Make it a point to pray the Rosary each day as you are able.

STATUES

children of the love of Mary.

Statues, icons, and holy objects are reminders of our faith, and they are a blessing to have inside and around a home. Statues of Mary are a beautiful reminder of the Mother of God and of your love for her and her Son. Having a statue of Mary inside and even outside of one’s home offers a place of prayer for a Rosary or other prayer to the Blessed Mother. Statues are also a wonderful reminder to

OUR LADY'S INTERCESSION

Always ask Mary’s intercession. She is close to her Son, and she cares deeply for you as she is the Church’s greatest saint. When we beg for Mary’s intercession, we are honoring her—not just in one month of the year, but every day and in all ways. Pray the Hail Mary throughout the day and teach children the value of loving Mary as the Mother of God. She is a tender mother who prays for all her children.

Continue to honor Mary each day of the year in these simple but profound ways. Remember, she loves you and she is with you always through prayer and intercession. She will always lead you and your family to Jesus, her divine Son.

FAITH FORMATION

Faith Formation classes resume on January 8, for grades 1-5. Reminder: Second graders should bring their BLESSED book and be ready to recite their prayers.

The next class for grades 6-8 will be held on January 22.

THERE ARE NO CLASSES ON JANUARY 15, due to the holiday weekend.

First Reconciliation will take place on Saturday, January 28, at two ceremonies---9:00 and 10:00. Parents have received notice of the time scheduled for their children.

Questions? Please call or email Kathleen or Alison.

SHARING OUR FAITH

RCIA is a process within the Catholic Church through which non-Catholic inquirers explore the teachings and practices of our religion. If you know a man or woman who would like to pursue prayer, Scripture, Catholic doctrine, and conversation with a small group of parishioners, please contact Kathleen Rooney (203-762-9080). No strings attached, just "Come and See."

If there is anyone in your life who has been away from the Church for either a long or a short time, please invite him or her to call Father Reggie to talk about what has kept him or her away. This could be the beginning of a path back to active participation in one's family of faith. Look into your heart and make that call!

GOOD NEWS OF CHRIST .....Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

The first thought I had after thinking of today's ensemble of Readings was that of an eclipse of the moon. It's a picture of a slowly creeping darkness overcoming brilliance completely, at least for a brief time. The familiar conflict of virtue against sin that we experience almost daily comes to the birth story of Jesus, and the present day life of His Church, our Church too.

The extended Christmas story easily conjures up the struggles we all have against negative powers. Almost as soon as the last notes of the beloved Christmas carols fade from our hearing, we got the jolt of St. Stephen's cruel martyrdom on December 26. That was followed up with the slaughter of the Holy Innocents, with an easy application to modern day abortion.

In all of that, we are taught by the Holy Spirit, speaking through the Scriptures, not to give in to any Pollyanna outlook on life. Or about the process of our redemption. It involves crisis and the Cross before any rejoicing over the Resurrection.

We professed followers of the true Messiah, Our Lord and Master Jesus Christ, have to be ready for repeats, in substance, of all the pain and setbacks recorded in Church history over the centuries.

Another image, like that of an eclipse that entered my mind is that of an imaginary "Gloomy Gus Association" at its annual convention. All members must dine on cold pea soup with bland crackers for three days and learn what to do with the fresh pin cushions distributed to them with an assortment of newly minted pins. Each pin represents a potential negativity they can introduce into anything positive in the coming year. King Herod would of course be a charter member of the group.

Returning to reality, I'd like to ask my fellow optimists to celebrate today this outbreak of the Good News of Christ. To free it from any confinement to a past time and place. This news came via the Magi visit to the vastly wide world of the Gentile nations. That should elicit an "Alleluia" from us all. That leads me to this easy depiction of the problem out there in Secular City:

Once upon a time an optimist invited a pessimist to go duck hunting. The optimist wanted to show off his newly registered hunting dog that could do things no other dog could. The pessimist looked at the dog and said, "Looks like a mutt to me."

At that moment, a flock of ducks flew over. The optimist shot one of the ducks and it fell into the middle of the lake. He snapped his fingers and his new dog ran out on the water, picked up the duck, and ran back on the water. The optimist took the duck from the dog's mouth, turned to the pessimist and said, "What do you think of the dog now?" The pessimist replied, "Dumb dog—can't even swim."

God love you and give you His peace.

Makes a GREAT gift!

SAINTS FUN FACTS

by John Sheppard

St. Margueritte served in the Canadian wilderness for many years. She survived Indian attacks, fires and plagues. Resisting efforts for recall back to the congregation of Notre Dame, Margueritte convinced the bishop of a need for her services in Montreal.

She and her sisters helped minister at the hospitals and established schools.

They lived in huts fulfilling their call from God. Her Rule was made official in 1698. She was canonized in 1982.
